Who's Zat?

BY KRISTINE CARPENTER
 This little girl is ready to go riding, even though it is in a wagon. Richard Kleke guessed that it was Rachelie Hunt, but later on he figured out the correct answer but it was too late. Melissa Lu Wilcox took a wild guess and exclaimed that it was Linda Korenek. Nichelle Cunningham also guessed that it was Linda. Vivian Cumpan said that it was Johanna Kubena. Keith Pennell and Becky Kutler jokingly added that it was Stevie Almanza.

The end is near

BY CINDY MIDGETT
 As May finally rolls along the excitement begins to build at Rice High School, especially with the arrival of the senior caps and gowns on May 2.

Some of the graduating seniors have put calendars on their desks for all to see and take notice as they mark off the remaining school days. The final exams for seniors begin Tuesday, May 21 with testing in second, fourth and sixth periods followed by school dismissal at 2:10 p.m. Wednesday, May 21, first, third and fifth periods will be tested.

Thursday, May 22, the seniors are to report to the gym at 8:25 a.m. for graduation practice. As soon as the procedure is mastered, they will be dismissed and must leave the campus at that time, so arrangements for personal transportation will be needed. Seniors are to be back in the Commons at 7:30 p.m. to line up for graduation exercises. Exams for the underclassmen will begin Wednesday, May 21. Tests scheduled are for first, third and fifth period classes.
