Yanks Pirates duel in Boys Major League as season ends next week

| Team    | W | L  |
|---------|---|----|
| Yanks   | 8 | 3  |
| Pirates | 7 | 4  |
| Dodgers | 6 | 5  |
| Cubs    | 1 | 10 |

Tuesday's Major Boys League action began with the heated rivalry between the Pirates and Dodgers. The visiting Dodgers started quickly with two runs in the top of the first on a single by lead-off batter Kevin Williams, a double by Kevin Diggins, a double by Rodney Bosa and a walk by Marcus York.

The Pirates went down meekly after Kevin Jackson's trip to first on an error followed by strike outs of Weeks, Kerry Sims and Wade Statky thrown by Marsha Norris.

In the top of the second, the Dodgers continued their scoring on a single to Marcus Diggins, a walk to Cody Smith, a double by Kevin Williams and another double by Kevin Diggins. Pooh Norris singled, making the inning worth three more runs. The score was 6-0.

In the bottom of the second, the game once more was taken out of the hands of the young players when a frustrated former player insisted on calling the pit picking rules of the game in order to make professional players out of little leaguers, rather than allowing the game to be the fun time it is. The young umpire enforced the "look on the rubber" rule which upset the pitcher's rhythm and forced six bases on balls and a hit to Kevin Jackson. That along with several passed balls punched in five runs for the Pirates. The Dodgers then inserted Reggie Donner as pitcher and the Pirates scored three more runs in the third inning on a walk to Earnest Sims, a free-base to Scott Garrett who was hit by a pitch and a double and some good base running by Chris Weeks. The Dodgers went down in order in the top of the fourth and the game was called on time limit at 7:06, with the Pirates victorious at 8-5.

The second Tuesday game between the Yanks and the Cubs turned into a cliff hanger and was a welcome relief. In the top of the first, Polock and Meitzen reached base on passed balls but died there when DelaGaza popped up to the catcher, Ramirez.

Everitt Ramirez started the bottom of the first for the Yanks with a line smash single and took second and third on passed balls. Chad Sunderman then was hit by a pitch and Matt Wilson singled to left, scoring Ramirez and Sunderman. Then, after an error at second on a ball hit by Louis Canajo, Wilson scored. That made the score 3-0 and the rest of the game looked to be a no-hummer.

The second inning was three up and three down for both sides, but in the third, Ethridge lead off for the Cubs with a walk and a daring steal of second base that gave his team a 3-0 lead. Lujon got on when the Yank third sacker mishandled his hard shot. Lujon scored when Polock pushed the ball for a double to right. Then with the help of the coaches pulling and Polock pushing, Lujon made it home. The score was knotted at 3.

When the Yanks again thundered in the bottom of the third, it was on an error by Lujon of a Sunderman shot, a single to Wilson, bases on balls to Pat Powers and Mareika, a single by Bradley Girard and a double to Shawn Turner. The score then was Yanks 7, Cubs 3.

However, the Cubs were not finished. They scored 6 in the fourth to forge ahead. Jamie Marquart reached first on an error there. Montreal was hit, Lujon walked and Steve Polock streaked around the bases on an inside the park grand slam home run. Walt Meitzen walked and scored on Gonzolo DelaGaza's triple. Gonzolo walked when Francisco Lopez singled to left center, Ethridge, Lujon and Polock walked and Lopez scored making it 9-7 Cubs.

In the bottom of the fourth, the Yanks showed some real grit when they came from behind as Chad Sunderman walked, Pat Powers reached on an error by DelaGaza at third, Chris Mareika walked, Bradley Girard was hit by a pitched ball, Shawn Turner hit a double, Ramon Pantajo walked and marvelous Matt Gunn smashed a single. The Yanks scored five to emerge victorious 12-9. It was an exciting game.

The Friday Cub-Yankee game was equally exciting. The Yanks led 1-0 at the end of the first and the Cubs led 3-3 at the end of two. It was 13-6 Yanks after the top of the third and the game ended 13-12 Yanks when the Cubs scored six and left one on base in the bottom of the inning. Both teams battled back gallantly through out the game and the game was only decided at the last out.

Tuesday of this week saw two critical games with the Pirates and the Yankees. The Cubs and the Dodgers play the spoiler rolls Tuesday and Friday night. This is the next to last week of the season, so if you want good entertainment, you had best make it out to the ball park. The games are free, making them the best entertainment value in Eagle Lake.
