Rice High School Class of 1975 held 10 year reunion

The Rice High School graduating class of 1975 held their ten year reunion Saturday, June 15, at Circle G Danceland in Altair. Class members began to arrive at three in the afternoon. Photographs, newspaper articles, high school yearbooks and other memorabilia were displayed at the register table.

Throughout the afternoon, musical hits from 1975 were played along with today's hits. Members and their guests enjoyed reminiscing their high school days and catching up with what's new.

A delicious barbecue beef supper, catered by Staff's Catering of El Campo, was served at six that evening. Following the meal, a brief business meeting was held.

Prizes were awarded in several categories. Deborah Schoellmann won the prize for changing the most, Anthony Leopold won for changing the least, Sarah Susan Olvera Viamonte won for traveling the farthest (Miami, Florida). Dianne Shinnick Cerny for being married the longest (almost ten years), and Becky Stienke VonDerAu for having the most children (two stepchildren, one of her own, and one on the way).

The next reunion was also discussed. It was voted that it be held in five years with Richard Sommerlatte, John Kossbeck, and Sandy Tate Schneider being in charge. After the meeting, all class members were asked to step outside for a group picture being taken by members' husbands and wives.

The evening ended with everyone dancing to DJ music and having a good time. Fifty-four class members and their guests attended the reunion. Class members attending were Ricky Chisum, Edmond Fraser, Mano Graham, Cindy (Pavin) Pink, Debbie (Sommerlatte) Cameron, Penny (Sowell) Stelling, Carl Mascheck, Sandy (Tate) Schneider, Kenneth Korenek, Tim Lueddecke, Paul Nawara, Janene Crane, Beverly (Gertson) Krenck, Debbie Schoellmann, Linda (Rucka) Polach, Maurice Johnson, Carol Schoellmann, Denise Hagedorf, Larry Bowen, Jim Walker, Yolando (Godino) Gonzalez, Wesley Wick, Dianne (Poppi) Bures, Billy Breithaupt, Andrew Till, Tony Leopold, Sarah (Mathis) Turner, Leroy Alvarado, Richard Sommerlatte, Charlene (Parker) Gully, Mark Henke, Ronnie Pfeiffer, Sarah Susan (Olvera) Viamonte, Donna (Danklefs) Kent, Cindy Wegenhoft, Dianne (Shimek)

Cerny, Barbara (Chappell) Cunningham, Shells (Grigar) Vullgren, Jackie Polach, Holly (Jones) Cooper, G.C. Lowe, Chris (Morales) Villarreal, Peggy (Stallman) Beck, (Stenkel) VonDerAu, Sophia Morales, Margret (Gonzales) Teague, Jerry Smidowes Jr., Daryl Hunt, Theresa (Matthews) Mika, James Black, James Heneka, Keith Cameron, Ron Janow, and Elroy Torres.

Special guests were Joe Wendel, then English and Business teacher, and Fred Grahmann, principal, and his wife, Sharon.

Special thanks are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Graham for their help and cooperation; Mano Graham, Cindy Pink, Debbie Cameron, and Beverly Krenck for a job well done; and to all the others who helped in obtaining names and addresses thus making our reunion a success.

Tuesday night movie
Last Tuesday evening, approximately 15 residents enjoyed the evening with a nighttime movie. A religious picture was shown and popcorn and drinks were served during breaktime. Everyone had a delightful time.

June 15th barbecue
Last Wednesday, residents and employees celebrated June 15th with a delicious barbecue dinner with all the trimmings and in the afternoon they cooled off with homemade vanilla ice cream.

Residents Walter Padon, Evelyn Redmond, Ray Harper, Herbert Hoffman churned the ice cream machine and were so delighted to help. A large turnout for the afternoon is reported and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

Bingo time
Bingo was held Thursday afternoon instead of Wednesday due to the June 15th barbecue.

Residents participating in last week's game were Ingram, Dora Bowen, Evelyn Redmond, Edith Morris, Lillian Williams, Lillie Mae Williams, Rosie Hoffman, Lou Ella Malek, Emma Randolph, Walter Padon, Bennett Beichert, Sara Gray, and Georgia Franks.

Everyone enjoyed the quarters given as prizes per game. Our highlight of the game which is "blackout" was won by Mrs. Edith Morris.

Sunshine Class met in home of Ophelia Raabe

The Sunshine Class met on June 20 with Ophelia Raabe as hostess. Seven members and one guest, Beale Birdwell, answered roll call with a favorite Bible verse.

Elsie Beane gave the treasurer's report and read the minutes of the last meeting. A card was signed to be sent to Sophie Zoeller who was absent.

Jonie Mae read two poems - "Love" and "God is Never Beyond our Reach."

They study was led by Tommie Naderwer - this chapter being "How to Get Right with God."

The hostess served delicious turkey salad sandwiches, bing cherry salad, chips, pickles, Angel food cake, tea and coffee to the group. Next month we will have a covered dish luncheon and meet at Nellie Larson's home.

Congratulations Edith.

Yard sale
Last Friday, we ended the week with a successful yard sale in spite of the rain. A lot of clothes and furniture was sold and our residents were very pleased with the outcome of the sale. The proceeds will go to the Heritage House resident council and be used for the residents' activity fund.

Everyone was so pleased, we are preparing for our next yard sale which will be held in the near future. We want to thank all the people who helped make our yard sale such a successful event. Our thanks to you.

Baby shower honors LYN
A "surprise" baby shower was given in honor of Mrs. Pat Flores, LYN at Heritage House, Tuesday afternoon. Co-workers and special guests greeted the new mother-to-be and presented her with a baby carriage in the "pink and blue" decorated dining area.

Special guest was the honoree's mother, Mrs. Clarence Horndt. The afternoon was enjoyed with visiting and looking on as Pat opened and graciously received beautiful baby gifts.

Refreshments of sliced ham, assorted dips, chips, cake and punch were served to the honoree and guest.

We want to congratulate Pat and Arthur Flores - we're all waiting for the end of July to arrive!

Andrew Hewitt participated in rescue operation

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Andrew L. Hewitt, son of Isaac T. and Jewel Hewitt of Eagle Lake, recently participated in the rescue of 13 Vietnamese Boat People in the South China Sea, while stationed aboard the landing command ship USS Blue Ridge, homeported in Yokosuka, Japan.

On the evening of May 16, the Blue Ridge sighted a vessel approximately 110 miles southeast of Vietnam.

A 1978 graduate of Rice High School, Altair, he joined the Navy in June 1978.

German Society meeting set

The Texas German Society will hold a meeting at Mansfield Memorial Library at 930 Travis St. in Columbus at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 29. Interested persons from the general public are invited to attend this important meeting to promote German Heritage in the Colorado County area. It is not necessary to make reservations and there is no cost associated with the meeting.

State officers of TGS were well pleased with the representation from Colorado County at the state meeting in La Grange on May 4 and hope that there will be an enthusiastic turnout at this local meeting.

State president Alfred Drechsler and vice president Alex Wied (Wied is also Fayette Co. chapter president) will speak on German Heritage and on the purposes of TGS. Some old German songs will be played and sing-alongs.

If further information is desired you may contact either Drechsler at (713) 464-8782 or Wied at (409) 249-3681.

Hospital auxiliary wants recipes

The Eagle Lake Community Hospital Auxiliary is in the process of collecting old and new recipes for a Sesqui-centennial Cookbook to be assembled and printed within the next few weeks. Anyone wishing to have a recipe in the book is asked to type each one, if possible, so that errors can be avoided.

Recipes of years gone by that your mother or grandmother used when being conservative, or new ones, will be welcomed and gladly accepted. Your help in providing these promptly will be greatly appreciated by the Pink Ladies. Please sign so your name can be placed by each recipe.

Send or hand to one of the committee members: Mrs. Howard Johnson, 701 Partridge Lane; Mrs. Charles Spangler, 204 W. Center or P.O. Box 806; or Mrs. Fred R. Franks, chairman, P.O. Box 895, Eagle Lake, Texas 77434.

The minutes of the previous year's meeting were read and approved. Officers for the next year's reunion were elected as follows: Jerry Malek of Houston, president; Cynthia Riba of El Campo, vice president; and secretary-treasurer. Next year's reunion will be held at the Phillips camp again on Saturday, June 14, 1986.

A delicious meal of barbecue with all the trimmings was served at noon. Volleyball, horseshoes, sack races, hayrides and swimming were enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Ernest Malek of Taylor was recognized as the oldest person present. Lance Bubela from Houston was the youngest; and the Ed Malek family from Wichita Falls traveled the greatest distance to the reunion. Several door prizes were awarded every hour.

Approximately 187 people attended this year's reunion. This was the largest gathering to date.

SAFETY BELTS

Wear your safety belt at all times. Remember, voluntary efforts by each of us to use safety belts could do more than any one safety effort - cut traffic deaths by as much as 75 percent.
