Rangers clinch title

The Rangers of the Minor Baseball League wrapped up the league championship last Tuesday evening with a 7-3 victory over the Mets.

The Rangers, coached by John Brasher, Charles Abel and Randy Burrow, finished the season with 6 wins and 3 losses and one tie while the Sox ended up in second, followed by the Mets.

Halfway through the season, the Rangers had a 2 and 3 mark. At that time, the coaches met with the players and told them that if they wanted to win the league championship, they would have to win their remaining five games. The players met the challenge and responded by winning four games and tying one over a five game span.

In Thursday's game, the Rangers drew first blood by scoring two runs in the first inning with hits by Reno Morales, Chris Burrow and Neil Broesche. In the bottom half of the inning the Mets, coached by Rick Ferrill, tied the score with a couple of hits and two Ranger errors.

In the second inning, the Rangers came right back by scoring two runs on three hits. The Mets in their half of the second threatened when their first two batters reached base with back to back singles. Ryan Thomas got out of the jam by striking out the next two batters and got the third to ground out. The bats came alive once again for the Rangers in the third inning when Joe Belmares, Chris Burrow and Eddie Strube singled while Ryan Thomas tripled. The end result was a three run out burst. The Mets scored a run in the bottom of the third to finish out the scoring for the night giving the Rangers a 7-3 victory.

I personally would like to thank my coaches Charles Abel and Randy Burrow for their time and assistance, to the parents of the players who came to the games to support our team, and to Carol Ripper for announcing our games. A bid congratulations to all of the players on the Rangers team who did what we asked of them and won the championship.

Men's Softball League to close-out season tonight

The Men's Softball League in Eagle Lake will close-out its regular season play tonight, Wednesday, with Duncan Cattle Co. and the Lakers battling for the second round title and a spot in the post season playoff against the first round winner, the Gambiers.

Duncan and the Lakers will pair-off in the opening game tonight at 7 followed by the Wild Bunch and Don Morrison Ford at 8 and Circle G Danceland vs. the Gambiers at 9.

During tonight's action, trophies will be awarded to the third through sixth place teams while trophies for the top two spots will be awarded after the best-of-three post season playoff series between the Gambiers and either Duncan Cattle Co. or the Lakers.

Overall records going into the final night of the rain delayed season are: Duncan Cattle Co. 7-2, Lakers 7-2, Gambiers 5-4, Don Morrison Ford 4-5, Wild Duncan 3-6 and Circle G Danceland 1-8.

CareBears held end of season party Wednesday

The CareBear T-Ball team ended their 1985 season with a Sloppy Joe party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Dromgoole last Wednesday night. The team has had a good time practicing and playing together so the party was a fitting climax.

After supper, the boys and girls played outside, then came in for the presentation of their individual trophies as a memento of the season.

The team consisted of Kelly Almanza, Royce Ashton, Chris Dietrich, Misty Duncan, Ross Lujan, Lacy Moore, Kenny Pipkins, Peyton Powers, Timothy Powers, Justin Rodgers, Jason Webb and Aaron Wilson. Coaches were Henry Webb and Steve Almanza. Also present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wilson, Matthew, Joshua and Benjamin; Mrs. Steve Almanza and Becky, and Mrs. Henry Webb and Cindy.

Colorado Valley All Stars picked

The Colorado Valley Little League has picked its All-Stars and announced league winners. Teams are made up of players from Sheridan and Garwood.

The winners of the first half of the season were the Sheridan Red Raiders with a 9-3 record, and winners of the second half were the Sheridan Blue Raiders with a 10-4 record.

All Stars are Norman Rotard, Jamie Weeselski, Roy Johnson, Corey Leopold, Donald Budous, Andrew Castaneda, Matthew Gallagher, Anton Bujnoch, Raymond Ford, Kori Klein and Connie Soto. A league spokesman said the team would not participate this year in play-off activities.

Twirlers, Flag Corps members

Nearly 90 youngsters from four years old to the fourth grade are participating this week in the Vacation Bible School jointly sponsored by the Episcopal, Lutheran, Presbyterian and Methodist Churches, and held at the Methodist Church. In this class, youngsters were participating in a game that helps them learn each other's name. From left is Shelly Schmidt, Tina Rodgers, Pam Frick, Michael David, Konesheck, Vanessa Rodgers, and Kelli Matthews. Sherry Mangum and Sue Causey were the teachers. Not pictured is Peter Joshua Wilson. According to Sharon Webb, school director, more than 30 adults are helping. The public is invited to the Parent Night activities at 7 p.m. at the church to watch the youngsters sing and share what they have learned.
