

Stiles, Reitz married in double ring ceremony

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church was the setting on Saturday, June 8 at 6 o'clock in the evening for the double ring wedding vows which united Patricia Christine Stiles of Eagle Lake and Robert Gordon Reitz of Houston in marriage. Rev. Ray Widacki officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Stiles Jr. of Eagle Lake. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Satteria of Houston.

Mrs. Charlyne Spaniel played the organ and was accompanied by Mrs. Cynthia Sunderman, Draper Stephens, Mrs. Diane Spaniel and Miss Betty Kane, who sang.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Stiles wore an original designer gown of ivory satin and beaded French lace, styled with a Queen Anne neckline, a fitted bodice and a natural waistline. French lace accented the bishop sleeves and deep cuffs as well as the slipper length skirt which cascaded in to a full cathedral length train, edged in accented-pleated chiffon. She also wore a designer brimmed hat with pearls and tulle bouffant veil. A strand of pearls and pearl ear studs completed her attire.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of fern filled with white and lavender orchids and angel's breath. All bridal party flowers were designed by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bobby McCracken of Victoria.

The bride following the wedding tradition of something old, something new, the bride's hat something borrowed—the bride's gown from her aunt, Mrs. Janis Waddell, and something blue, her garter.

ATTENDANTS
Miss Melinda Stiles attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Gregg Wilgowski, sister of the groom, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Emily Schottel Stiles, sister of the bride; Miss Kelly Kern of Houston; Miss Cheryl Leeves of Conroe and junior bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth Stiles, sister of the bride, of Eagle Lake.

The attendants wore original Bill Levkoff tea length gowns of perrywinkle blue taffeta. The bodice held off the shoulder double ruffles with dusty pink inserts that went into a deep vee in the center back and front. The natural waist was cinched with a wide sheer cumberbund accented with a pink taffeta rose. The junior bridesmaid wore a dress fashioned by her mother, of pale lavender dotted swiss. The fitted bodice had puffed sleeves trimmed in lace and the waist cinched with a white satin ribbon. The extra full skirt had two wide rows of lace above the bottom skirt ruffle. All the bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink and lavender lilies with angel's breath bound together with satin ribbon.

Xavier Villala-Pando of Houston served as best man. The groomsmen were Mark Wood and Gregg Wilgowski of Houston, John Gorkus and Bill Miller of Clear Lake and Andy Stiles of Eagle Lake.

Ushers were Louis Stiles, David and Chris Satteria, Ricky Reitz and Mike Wikson.

RECEPTION

The reception was held at the Eagle Lake Community Center which was decorated by Mrs. Janis Waddell with potted green trees placed around the hall. The tables were covered with white tablecloths and held centerpieces of magnolia with lavender flowers and candles. Serving tables were covered with white net.

The bride's table held the five-tiered poppyseed with lemon filled wedding cake having columns and flowers between each tier. Fresh flowers and ribbons topped the cake. Silver candelabra held 12 tapered candles on each side of the cake.

The groom's table held the groom's cake, crystal punch bowl and the silver champagne bucket with the bride and groom used for their first toast.

The house party consisted of Krissie Wood of Seabrook; Brenda Elliot, Laura Korenek, Breva Baxter, Carla Boudouque, Linda Donnell and Sammy Satteria, all of Houston; Wendy Rodgen of Spring, and Sherry Lahee of Eagle Lake.

A buffet of colby and cheddar cheeses and crackers, small sausage rolls, fresh vegetables and dip, rolled ham, salami, and salmon mousse were all served on silver trays with a large exotic flower arrangement centering the table.

A dance followed, starting with a grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Spaniel. Music was furnished by Roy and Ann Glaze.

After a honeymoon trip to Hawaii for a week, the couple will reside in Dallas.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was held at Marvin's in Altair. A delicious steak dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by the bridal party and family.

LUNCHEON

Miss Gail Austin, Mrs. David Hengst and Mrs. Carl W. Austin hosted a lovely bridesmaid's luncheon. Tables were decorated with lavender tablecloths and sheer damask. Each table had arrangements of lavender and pink flowers in crystal bowls.

Chicken salad, melon balls, and fresh baked hot rolls were served with Mile High lemon pie as dessert. The meal and fellowship was enjoyed by all.

SHOWERS, PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jax of Houston hosted a skiing and swimming party for friends and relatives of the honorees at their lake house on Lake Livingston.

Refreshments were served out on the deck overlooking the lake after some hard games of volleyball. A delicious dinner of brisket, ham, salad, potato salad, beans, and brownies was served inside on the bar, buffet table.

Everyone had a delightful evening and wished the couple many years of happiness. A bachelorette party was given by Cheryl and Michelle Leves of Conroe and Melinda Stiles of Eagle Lake. Dinner at Benning's and a night out in Houston was enjoyed by all.

Emily (Schottel) Stiles gave her sister, Patty, a bar shower at her apartment in Houston. Classmates from San Houston State University and friends had an enjoyable time.

A tea shower was given at the home of Mrs. Draper Stephens. The serving table was covered by a beautiful lace table cloth. A large wine and pink flower arrangement was centered on the table flanked by candles. An assortment of cookies, sandwiches, nuts, mint, coffee and punch was served.

Hostesses were Mrs. Patty Stephens, Dorothy Kohleffel, Della Grasshoff, Georgia Dierschke, Vernell Kucherka, Edna Hollas, Charlyne Spaniel, Joann Gertson, Judy Austin, Mary Theuman and Carolyn Noak.

Reception

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Kohleffel hosted a reception for their daughter and her groom at the Forum of Civics. Guests enjoyed mingling in the garden areas and throughout the building. A long buffet table accented with spring flowers and candelabras was placed in the large formal garden.

Inside the building the bride's table held a four tiered traditional wedding cake. Between each tier the cake was decorated with stephanotis entwined with miniature ivy. The groom's cake was German chocolate. Both cakes were created by Gladys Dostal.

The bride graduated from Rice High School and from The University of Texas at Austin. She currently serves as the Deputy Director of Development for the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston.

The groom graduated from Huntville High School and is a regional sales representative for Baxter Travenol, Inc. Following a wedding trip to Aspen, Colorado, the couple will reside in Houston.

Rehearsal dinner
Brigadier General and Mrs. George M. Higginson honored their son, Stephen and his bride-elect, Dina, with cocktails and dinner following the rehearsal of the Cromer-Kohleffel wedding party, Thursday, June 13 in the Royal Suite at the Westin Galleria Hotel.

Bridesmaid luncheon
On June 14, Ms. Katy Gill and Ms. Barbara Hawthorn honored the bride and members of the wedding party with a lovely luncheon at Brennan's.

Miss Cynthia Elaine Wegenhoft served as maid of honor and Mrs. Jerry Cameron as matron of honor. Honor attendants wore tea length gowns of imported embroidered silk organza designed by Virginia Snelling. To accent the champagne gowns, the attendants carried arm bouquets of white dendrobium spray orchids, white roses and pale peach roses accented with miniature ivy and maiden hair fern.

Honorary members of the house party were: Mrs. Brock Ashby, Mrs. Jackson Hooper, Mrs. Timothy P. Selly, Mrs. Thomas B. Ayers, Mrs. Stuart Sharrock, Mrs. Jerry D. Williams, Ms. Janet Bauer, Ms. Katy Gill, Ms. Barbara Hawthorn, Mrs. Mary Lou Rapson, Ms. Sharon Bueck, Ms. Marilyn Mahalite and Ms.

Kohleffel and Cromer exchange vows

Mrs. Stephen Lee Cromer

Miss Dina Marie Kohleffel and Stephen Lee Cromer were united in marriage on Friday, June 14 at eight o'clock in the evening. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Thomas Pace at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Houston. Kevin Harvey played the wedding music and Mrs. Louise Mendez was soloist.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Forum of Civics, where music was provided by Bob Henshen.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lee Kohleffel of Eagle Lake. The groom is the son of Brigadier General and Mrs. George M. Higginson of Austin and grandson of Mrs. Ruth Berry Brown of Temple.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, the bride chose a designer's gown of white silk taffeta combined with Chantilly lace. The draped contour bodice of the lustrous silk taffeta had a sheer yoke of the delicately patterned French lace which was styled with a wedding ring neckline and long fitted sleeves.

From an elongated waistline the full gathered skirt swept in to a circular train of court length. The bride chose to wear a designer style hat covered in Alencon lace and imported illusion.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet in a loose and irregular style of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis with miniature ivy and maiden hair fern and fluffy ruffe fern. Woven into her bouquet was a prayer book that her mother had carried on her wedding day.

Miss Cynthia Elaine Wegenhoft served as maid of honor and Mrs. Jerry Cameron as matron of honor. Honor attendants wore tea length gowns of imported embroidered silk organza designed by Virginia Snelling. To accent the champagne gowns, the attendants carried arm bouquets of white dendrobium spray orchids, white roses and pale peach roses accented with miniature ivy and maiden hair fern.

Honorary members of the house party were: Mrs. Brock Ashby, Mrs. Jackson Hooper, Mrs. Timothy P. Selly, Mrs. Thomas B. Ayers, Mrs. Stuart Sharrock, Mrs. Jerry D. Williams, Ms. Janet Bauer, Ms. Katy Gill, Ms. Barbara Hawthorn, Mrs. Mary Lou Rapson, Ms. Sharon Bueck, Ms. Marilyn Mahalite and Ms.
