Lasseter and Brown exchange vows

Miss Michelle Lynn Lasseter and Carl Gene Brown exchanged wedding vows in a lovely ceremony on Saturday, July 27 in the First Baptist Church of Eagle Lake at four o'clock in the afternoon. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Melburn Sibley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry C. Lasseter of Fort Worth. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene F. Brown of Eagle Lake.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a stately gown with an elegant standup schiffli embroidered neckline. Lace and pearls adorn the form-fitting bodice. The puffed satin Juliet sleeves ended in fitted sheer lace with snap closure at the wrist. The full skirt of luster sheer complete with a satin flounced hem extended to form a chapel-length train. The layered full length veil was trimmed with lace which matched the bridal gown and was secured by a crown ornamented with lace and pearls. The bride carried a silk floral bouquet of white carnations, pink roses, cymbidium orchids, and greenery tied with streamers of satin ribbon.

ATTENDANTS
Attending the bride as maid of honor was Alicia Pocock of Waco. Bridesmaids were Bonnie Luann Brown, sister of the groom of Eagle Lake; Nicole Anderson, cousin of the groom of Haskell; and Melissa Lasseter and Myrna Lasseter, sisters of the bride of Fort Worth.

The attendants wore formal "dusty rose" colored gowns of moire taffeta with a fitted bodice and scoop front and back neckline. The puffed "melon" shaped sleeves were complete with ruffled edges. The softly gathered flared skirt was accented with an attached cummerbund. The beautiful gowns were designed and sewn by Mrs. Gene Brown, mother of the groom.

They each carried a bouquet of lavender, pink and dusty rose silk flowers with rosebuds, baby's breath, greenery and satin streamers. For their hair the bridesmaids chose the same silk rose with a touch of baby's breath.

The groom chose Brad Henschel of Waco as his best man. The groomsmen were Joe Lang, Bill Harrison, Albert Tomchesson, all of Eagle Lake, and Kenneth Compton of Wharton. The groom and his attendants were attired in formal pearl gray tuxedos and each wore a dusty rose boutonniere.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lasseter wore a dress of pale blue chiffon with flowing skirt and tucked bodice accented with pearls. Mrs. Brown, the groom's mother, selected a dress of floral chiffon in shades of pink and rose. The brides featured a sheer overlay accented with a tie at the waistline. Each mother wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Honored guests were Mrs. Edna Fouts and Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Anderson, of Haskell, grandparents of the groom.

For the special occasion, the church was decorated with a large arrangement of white gladioli centered on a tall white column. On either side were spiral candelabras with white tapers and greenery. The unity candle was decorated the same. Two large Boston ferns were added for greenery. The family pews were marked with large white bows.

Mrs. Clara Mae Nash played the traditional organ music and accompanied Mrs. Phillip Ferguson as she sang "Sunrise, Sunset," "The Wedding Song," and "The Lord's Prayer."

RECEPTION
The reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, was the focal point. The bride's cake was a three-tiered white confection decorated with rose colored silk flowers between the pillars. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom framed in white lace. Candelabras, white ceramic doves and the punch bowl with rose colored punch added to the beauty of the table.

The groom's table held a silver coffee service and two-layered German chocolate cake. The inscription "Michelle and Carl - July 27, 1985" was written on the cake. NEWS FROM PINK LADIES

The Eagle Lake Community Hospital Auxiliary Sequences' tent committee again wishes to thank those of you who responded with old and new recipes for the new cookbook and those of you who will be responding soon.

This is just a reminder to those that promised one or more to please get them to Kate, Freda or Eunice before August 21.

Thanks to Miss Lee Nesbitt for a recipe. A former Columbus fifth grade teacher for many years, who happened to be this reporter's teacher only a few decades ago, surely the best year of her teaching career.

Please remember the deadline folks, Wednesday, August 21!

Wier and Vasina married in Lissie

Patricia Ann Wier and Terry G. Vasina were united in marriage on Saturday, June 29 at four o'clock in the afternoon. Reverend E.B. Beasley performed the double ring ceremony at the United Methodist Church in Lissie.

The bride is the daughter of Max Wier and the late Clarence Henry Wier, of Houston. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. (Lefty) Vasina of Lissie.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Robert P. Wier, of Houston. Mrs. Elizabeth Wier French, of Webster, attended her sister as matron of honor, and Roy Foster, of Baytown and Lissie, served as best man.

James H. Beal and M. Wade Beal, nephews of the bride, served as candle lighters. Ushers were Kenneth Vasina, brother of the groom and Paul Frank, brother-in-law of the groom. Al Ward, of Houston, played the Johannes organ and also was soloist.

Honorary members of the house party were Cookie Tillman, Candy Graham, Mary Ann Douglas and Molly Hayman along with Ed Hayman, Mike Norman, Paul Tipton, Brian Hobbs and Scott Butsch.

The reception was held at the American Legion Hall in East Bernard. Following a barbecue dinner, the 170 guests danced to the music of Al Sulak.

After a honeymoon trip to Hawaii, the couple will reside in Houston, where both are employed by Texaco Inc.

The rehearsal dinner was held on June 28 at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiese. Other host and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Arlt and Mrs. Leona Herman.

The rehearsal dinner was a perfect beginning that set the mood for an also perfect wedding and reception.
