Public/Legal Notices

NOTICE
Houston Lighting and Power Company (HLP&P), in conjunction with Central Power and Light Company (CP&L), has filed a petition with the Public Utility Commission of Texas seeking a declaratory order regarding the South Texas Nuclear Project. The petition has been assigned Docket No. 6325.

The Public Utility Commission has determined that the following issues will be considered in Docket No. 6325:

- The reasonableness of the proposed settlement of the litigation between the owners of the STNP and Brown and Root;
- The prudence and efficiency of HLP&P and CP&L in the planning and management of the South Texas Nuclear Project during the Brown and Root litigation;
- The reasonableness of the litigation expenses incurred by HLP&P and CP&L in conjunction with the Brown and Root litigation;
- The effect of the settlement on the construction of Unit 2 of the South Texas Nuclear Project;
- The appropriate accounting treatment of the proceeds realized by HLP&P and CP&L from the proposed settlement; and

The final or final nature of the findings reached in Docket No. 6325.

The results reached in Docket No. 6325 may have an impact on future proceedings on the rates charged to the customers of Houston Lighting and Power Company and Central Power and Light Company.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or be heard may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Office at (512) 456-6223 or (512) 456-0227, or (512) 456-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Public/Legal Notices

NOTICE
Houston Lighting and Power Company (HLP&P), in conjunction with Central Power and Light Company (CP&L), has filed a petition with the Public Utility Commission of Texas seeking a declaratory order regarding the South Texas Nuclear Project. The petition has been assigned Docket No. 6325.

The Public Utility Commission has determined that the following issues will be considered in Docket No. 6325:

- The reasonableness of the proposed settlement of the litigation between the owners of the STNP and Brown and Root;
- The prudence and efficiency of HLP&P and CP&L in the planning and management of the South Texas Nuclear Project during the Brown and Root litigation;
- The reasonableness of the litigation expenses incurred by HLP&P and CP&L in conjunction with the Brown and Root litigation;
- The effect of the settlement on the construction of Unit 2 of the South Texas Nuclear Project;
- The appropriate accounting treatment of the proceeds realized by HLP&P and CP&L from the proposed settlement; and

The final or final nature of the findings reached in Docket No. 6325.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or be heard may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Office at (512) 456-6223 or (512) 456-0227, or (512) 456-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.
