18 contestants to vie for one of two crowns

Eighteen young Colorado County women will be on stage next Saturday night in the Columbus High School Auditorium for the annual Colorado County Fair Queens' contest. The main Fair Queen and Membership Queen pageant will immediately follow the new Junior Fair Queen which begins at 7:30 p.m. (see additional story).

There is a small admission fee charged at the auditorium, to help cover pageant expenses.

This year's contestants and their sponsors are: Kari Barten, Columbus, Colorado County Citizen; Tonia Hill, Columbus, Potter's Western Store; Michelle Sirols, Columbus, Colorado County Federal Savings and Loan Association; Angela Warschak, Columbus, Heinsohn's Store; Evelyn Gibson, Columbus, CP&L; Jacque Nesvada, Columbus, Columbus Rotary Club; Susan Stewart, Columbus, Lee Briscoe and Associates, Real Estate; Melissa Dunn, Weimar, First State Bank; Kimberly Beken, Weimar, Betty's Interior; Beth Dunn, Weimar, Brasher Motor Co. of Weimar; Sherri Fraka, Eagle Lake, Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce; Tina Grahmann, Rock Island, Sheridan Lions Club; Renee Bala, Eagle Lake, Johnny's Sport Shop; Leslie Heard, Eagle Lake, Eagle Lake Rotary Club; Valerie Bengo, Eagle Lake, Eagle Lake Noon Lions Club; Jennifer Fields, Altair, Circle C. Farms; Yvonne Burton, Columbus, Brookshire Brothers, and Rosemary Helmeck, Weimar, M-G Farm Center.

Master of ceremonies for the pageant again will be Clinton Voelkel, with beautiful piano music by Jack Gillespie. Bill Carpenter of Garwood will be MC for the Junior Queen festivities.

Last year's pageant was won by Valerie Dunn of Weimar. You can enjoy the pageant this Saturday in the Columbus High School Auditorium.

Special cooking contest for Men

We know that there are alot of excellent male cooks in the county and the Fair invites you to match your specialty against the county's best. A Best of Section ribbon will be awarded the best dish in each of the following categories: meats, vegetables, salads, desserts and breads. Combinations such as vegetable casseroles, gumbos, etc. will fall under one of the above sections.

A grand champion and reserve champion ribbon will be awarded the overall two best dishes. Tom Northrup heads this committee and can be reached after 5 p.m. at 922-3459, or you may call Bambi Simmons at 732-6843. The contest will be held Sunday afternoon, September 15 at 2 p.m. at the V.C.C.

Come on men, show your stuff! Give us a call and put your name in the pot.

What's a Queen? It's Important to the fair

The Colorado County Fair Queen is not like some in other areas. She is not a "Queen for a Day." She is a integral part of the fair structure.

Queen candidates must qualify by acquiring a sponsor - a club, organization or business in the county - then sell Fair Association memberships totaling $150. She is judged highly on personality and charm, and when elected, represents the fair throughout the following year. She serves as an ambassador at the other fairs, parades and meetings where the Colorado County Fair is represented.

Some past queens have attended the statewide fair conference in Dallas, have served on various committees and regularly attended meetings of the association. Not only do they represent the association well, but also represent the interests of the young people of our county.

The queen's trophy, awarded during the annual pageant, is the largest trophy awarded during the fair.

The Point West Dance Co. of Katy will perform Friday Night in the Veterans Community Center at 8 p.m. Surprise Entertainment also is scheduled then.
