

Lois Steele, Robert Hemphill united in covenant of marriage

On November 30, 1985, Lois Ann Steele and Robert Hemphill were united in marriage at their home in El Paso. Solemnizing the couple's vows were Reverend James Millender, pastor of That Marvelous Light Baptist Church and Reverend Douglas Rapp, pastor of Glen Arbor United Methodist Church.

Two dozen long stemmed roses were presented to the bride by Zephaniah Duncan in stead of David Harper, father of the bride, who was unable to attend.

Attending the couple were Billy Evans, best man, and Mrs. Norma Sterling, matron of honor. Sophie and Gerald Steele also attended their parents.

Many friends, family and other well wishers joined the Hemphills in celebration. Out of town guests were Cathy Wesson and Barbara Chandler of San Antonio, Mrs. Jennie Hemphill, mother of the groom, the Joe Whitakers, the Guy Hemphills, Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Armstrong, Belinda Denley, Sherry and Reginald Hemphill and life long friend Robert Harris, all of Houston and Eagle Lake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Harper of Clairton, Pennsylvania. She graduated from Clairton High School and attended Cheyenne State College.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Jennie Hemphill of Eagle Lake. He graduated from Eagle Lake High School and Sam Houston State University in Huntsville. He received a Master's degree in Education from the University of Texas at El Paso and is a "Fullbrighter." Currently the groom teaches art at Irvin High School.

David Henderson transferred to Terrell SCS office

David A. Henderson, formerly of Eagle Lake, has transferred to the Terrell office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service from the Taylor office where he worked the past two years.

He is the son of Norman and Maggie Henderson of Eagle Lake. He graduated from Rice High School in 1979 and is a graduate of Prairie View A&M University, where he majored in animal science.

Henderson, who has already began his duties, will be assisting with conservation work in the Terrell field office, assisting the Kaufman Van Zan-Di Soil and Water Conservation District.

Henderson, 24, says his hobbies include horseback riding and bowling.

Guy Smith-James McMillan chapter honors 1985-86 Good Citizens

The Guy Smith-James McMillan chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution honored their 1985-86 Good Citizens at their December 21 meeting at the home of Mrs. John D. Marburger.

Mrs. Kim Joost, chaplain, led the group in the opening ritual, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

The chapter's Good Citizens were introduced. They are Miss Sherri Kunkel, of Giddings, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Kunkel, Roger Sury, of Fayetteville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sury, and Matt Hofmann, of La Grange, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Hofmann.

Mrs. Marburger, chapter regent, reviewed the criteria for the selection of the Good Citizens. Each high school in the area can select one student from the senior class with an outstanding record of leadership, responsibility, patriotism, and service. She challenged the three Good Citizens to continue to exhibit the qualities for which they were selected in their home, school, community and country.

Miss Kunkel's faculty sponsor from Giddings High School is Ms. Simona Field. She has been involved in the following activities: FHA, Spanish Club, Beta Club, TAPE, and S.A.I.D. She was the Homecoming representative of the Beta Club. Her honors include Who's Who Among American High School Students, U.S. Achievement Academy, Giddings High School Achievement Award, Outstanding FHA officer, and Academic All-American.

Sury's faculty sponsor from Fayetteville High School is Mrs. Judy Whitley. He has served as sophomore class treasurer, junior and senior class president and student council president. He is an honor student and treasurer of the National Honor Society. He has been in FFA for four years and is the current advisor. He serves as athletic statistician. Awards he has received include Physical Education award, UIL Science award, Leadership award, Chapter Farmer award, and Greenhand award. He is the CVO president, Mass server and commentator at St. John's Catholic Church in Fayetteville.

Hofmann's faculty sponsor from La Grange High School is Mrs. Karen Dooley. He has served as freshman class vice president, and sophomore, junior and senior class president. He has been on the student council for four years. In athletics, he participated in football and track all four years and also cross-country his senior year. He has served his FFA chapter as treasurer and advisor. As a freshman, he received a Rosa Meisner Academic award. He is currently a member of the Boy Scouts of America.

Mrs. Dorothy Albrecht, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Penny Robbins, who presented a program on the "Spirit of Christmas Past and Present." Mrs. Robbins enlightened the group about several of the symbols we traditionally associate with Christmas. She read excerpts from an article written about 30 years ago and pointed out the universality and timelessness of the sentiments expressed. She closed with a contemporary poem which blended the past and the present with our hopes for future Christmases.

After a very brief business meeting, Mrs. Joyce Stanek and Mrs. Marburger served refreshments of Christmas cookies, holiday sandwiches and wassail.

Upon departure, each of the Good Citizens was given a certificate of appreciation and a small gift. The group played pin the tail on the donkey and Brian Beasley was the winner. He was given an airplane set as a prize. Then we opened gifts and each were so nice and special. Next everyone sang Happy Birthday to the birthday boy while the tape recorder was on. Just and each of his friends made a big wish and he blew out the candles. Everyone enjoyed brownies, marshmallows, chips and fruit punch while listening to the tape recorder.
