Final Report: Houston Livestock Show

By TINA GRAHAMMAN
Each year several Rice High School FFA members anxiously await the coming of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

Entering heifers at the livestock show were Cindy Midgett, who placed fourth out of 75 in her class; Kevin Genz, Phil Huvay, Tara Stephens and Shawn Swickola. Dennis Hemphill made the shift with his Durac hog, and Devin Nort made the shift with his Bill Hefner, Brangas steer; Daryl Pieprica, Brahman Cross steer; Wade Miller, Simmental steer, and Paige Paschall, Brangas steer.

Representing Rice High School this year in the commercial Steer division finals were Leslie Sherman and Duane Korenek. Leslie placed second and received a $500 cash award and a 16-foot govt. truck.

Other exhibitors from Rice were Shari Popp, DeWayne Doplauf, Vance Coman and Louis Mahalik.

The judges based the points given to each contestant on a written exam, oral interviews, grade of the steers, accuracy in the contestant's record books, the cost of production, and how clean the contestants kept their pens.

Rice also had students participating in the halter steer division. Each student made the shift, but were non-placing exhibitors. They are as follows:

Todd Korenek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill R. Korenek of Garwood, recently participated in the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo calf scramble event. He was sponsored by Jim Nelson of Katy Service and Supply and was part of the competition on the night of Tuesday, February 25.

After catching his calf, Todd was the seventh contestant across the line. He said it was quite an exciting experience even though one female contestant ran over him with her calf.

Korenk was awarded $600 which he must use to help purchase a heifer for next year's Houston show. Congratulations Todd and best of luck next year!

The Raider Review extends a note of congratulations to each exhibitor and encourages them to keep up the great work.

Seniors learn about 'real' world

By VICKI DARDEN

On March 3, Carol Isenhower, a representative of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, made a presentation to the high school economics classes. Her talk dealt with the real world and each individual's place in it.

Ms. Isenhower first confronted ITT's success as a world corporation and then went on to discuss the adult lifestyle after graduation. Beginning with a breakdown of the income level of the high school graduate and the contrasting incomes of the university and trade school graduates, Ms. Isenhower posed a number of questions in the minds of the students to encourage them to think seriously about the future.

"She gave each class some tips on how to choose a career and also led them through the technique of budgeting. Overall, the presentation was a learning experience for conscientious students and an eye-opener for those who are hesitant about future commitments."

IRRIGATING DEVICES

Recently, the water pick or oral irrigating device has become popular. How do they work? The water pick cleans teeth by irrigation with tiny jets of pulsating water which clean around the gums, between the teeth and under bridges where the toothbrush and even floss sometimes cannot reach. The pulsating water also flushes out food particles from difficult-to-reach spots where food collects.

The dental irrigator is not recommended for small children, but for children over 12 years with orthodontic braces, the device is invaluable in flushing out food particles.

Who's Zat?

By ELIZABETH YOUNG

The students at Rice High School were faced with the task of naming this impatient passenger awaiting a ride on the Red Wagon Express. The only clue given was that this little cutie now is a junior at Rice High School.

The baffled students were LuAnn Korenek, Sharon Shimek and Lisa Miller who thought it was Delores Soto; Kelli Lanier thought it was Danette Alvarado.

However, there were many correct guesses who also were baffled due to the fact this little cutie has a twin sister. With the fifty-fifty probability, the correct guessers were Kevin Dornak, Lesley Matthews, Rhonda Hodde, Lynn Brzozowski, Donna Drik and Mrs. Gonzales. They all knew this dandelion in distress was Debra Soto and not Delores.

Debra, a member of the Raider Band, and a member of Student Council, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Soto Jr. of Eagle Lake.
