Junior class rings arrive

By DOLORES SOTO
The long awaited class rings for the juniors finally have made their way to Rice High School. On Wednesday, March 19, many juniors were up bright and early in order to be the first to receive their rings.

Paul Check, Balfour representative, began handing rings out at 7 a.m. in the Rice High School Commons. Each student was required to pay the balance of his ring in order to receive it on that day. If the balance was not available, the student may continue to pay the remaining amount in monthly payments and will receive his ring by mail. Each of these Balfour rings is backed by a full guarantee stating that if the ring should need any altering or replacement of a stone, Balfour will do it free of charge.

Seniors receive invitations

On the morning of Thursday, March 20, the Rice High School Commons was alive with excited seniors who received their graduation announcements, personal cards, memory albums, etc.

Seniors arrived early that morning, paid the remainder of their balances to the Balfour Company, and began the traditional exchanging of cards. Those seniors who arrived late were literally mobbed by those waiting cards.

The entire class of 1986 was fired up and the phrase that was heard the most was "Can you believe we're about to graduate?"

Student Council plans academic banquet

By KELLI LANIER
On March 17, the Rice High School Student Council met at Rice at 6 p.m. On the agenda were the many activities that will be sponsored by the Student Council this school year. The annual blood drive, scheduled for March 21, was discussed. A group of council members were put in charge to handle the blood drive from start to finish.

Also the council decided to hold the Academic Banquet on May 12. Committees were organized to be in charge of invitations, decorations and cleanup. Council members next voted to hold a Powderpuff football game, some time in April. One of the guidelines is that it will have to be held immediately after school.

Last on the agenda was the discussion of the Student Council buying a board to put in the gym on which the Rice High School fight song will be printed. No decision was made at this time towards this purchase.

The meeting adjourned, and a date will be set for the next meeting.

Tennis team in Columbus tournament

By LAURA APPELT
On Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15, the Rice tennis team participated in the Columbus tournament. First and second round action took place on Friday and the quarterfinals, semifinals and finals were played Saturday.

Both boys' doubles teams from Rice earned the right to play in the finals. Kevin Dornak and Jeff Marquet played a team from Belleville to determine third and fourth place. They lost the match making them the fourth place winners.

Ben Gonzales and Norman Breimon played Columbus' doubles team for first and second and won 6-3, 6-3 for the tournament champions. Congratulations to both doubles teams for a job well done!

She was serving on the Arizona Court of Appeals when a call came from the White House that President Ronald Reagan wanted her to fill the vacancy on the U.S. Supreme court created by the retirement of Justice Potter Stewart. On September 26, 1981, Sandra Day O'Connor became the first woman to take the oath of state senate in 1969, and three years later became the first woman

Summer school offered by area schools if you want the credits

By ELIZABETH YOUNG
This summer various schools in the area are offering summer sessions to any student wishing to attend. The cost per session is approximately $70 for 1/2 credit. Students wishing to attend may obtain an application from Mr. Wright, counselor, on May 1.

El Campo, Wharton, Lamar Consolidated and Katy will offer the sessions. El Campo will begin by June 9 and only will offer history and government. Wharton will offer two sessions, June 9-July 3 and July 7-August 1. Lamar Consolidated will offer three sessions but has not confirmed the dates. Katy also will offer a session from June 9-July 3.

Korenek. But Bill Hefner thought surely the picture was David Schartemmer's, and both Lara Dupre and Teresa Havens chose Vance Pence as their candidate. Finally, after much consideration, Shari Popp realized this glowing little face belonged to time, for Stacey Causey, resigned DeWayne Dwyer. Now isn't he the fact that it had to be Diane
