Pam Cranek
Cranek earns
Princess Photo
Model title

The National Pageant Screening Committee of Defiance, Ohio recently announced that Pam Cranek, of Garwood, who recently earned the 1985 photo contest, has earned the title of Princess Photo model.

Placement was determined by photogenic qualities, achievements, resume and their past talent and pageant competitive placements.

Pam will be making personal appearances, be assigned a special competitive title and be eligible for many national and international level pageant or talent competitions.

The pageant screening committee further announced that they are now accepting applications for the 1986 photo contest. Contestants will be competing in the 3-6, 7-12, 13-16 and 17 years and up groups.

Those persons or groups interested in competition, whether pageant or talent, are urged to write in for information on the national club. Interested persons are to write to Screening Director, P.O. Box 338, Defiance, Ohio 43512.

Xi Pi Psi plans art show, Founder's Day luncheon

Xi Pi Psi met March 25 at the Pappy Seaborn house with Mary Lou Szymanski as hostess.

Members were pleased to have Dr. Russell Thomas as the speaker for the evening. He spoke on "Women of the Eighties" and "The Art of Wellness." After the informative program, Dr. Russell conducted a question and answer session.

During the business meeting, social chairman Kay Clifton reported on the success of the 1986 Lady of the Year tea. Beta Sigma Phi of Eagle Lake selected Helen Farris as Lady of the Year. Members were proud to honor Mrs. Farris and the past ladies who were chosen.

Plans were made for the annual Xi Pi Psi art show to be held May 3 at the downtown square. The date for the Founder's Day luncheon was set for April 26. The salad luncheon will be held at Circle K.

Members voted on the recipient of the Xi Pi Psi scholarship, which will be presented during the awards ceremony at Rice High School next month.

Election of officers were conducted by Glenda Blair, president. Officers for the 1986-87 year will be: president, Ernie Sommerlatte; vice president, Cherry Corman; recording secretary, Glenda Blair; corresponding secretary, Sue Causey; treasurer, Pat Cook; extension officer, Kay Clifton.

Following the business meeting, Mary Lou provided delicious refreshments. An informal social was held.

Catholic church honors seniors with Mass, dinner

The 1986 graduating class of Catholic seniors at Rice High School were honored Saturday night, April 5, with a Mass celebrated by Father Ray Widacki and also a covered dish supper at Diner Hall. Sponsoring the party were the Altar Societies from Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Churches and the Eagle Lake Knights of Columbus.

The seniors participated in the Mass, led by Joe Wendel, lay minister. Mass servers were Robert Dierschke and Jerry Fajkus. The Liturgy of the Word followed with Beverly Rucka reading the First Reading; Susan Kalra reading the Responsorial Psalm, and Martha Garcia reading the Second Reading. The Gospel was read by Father Widacki. Offertory ushers were Margaret Leal, Lydia Rodriguez, Pedro de la Cruz, and Olga Palacios.

At Offertory, the presentation of gifts was read by Xavier Morales while the seniors presented their gifts. The symbolic gifts and who presented them were as follows: white rose, Melissa Rodriguez; class colors, Melinda Sales; class motto, Ida Gonzalez; spirit stick, Frances Young; letter jackets, sports, Brenda Soto; candle, Nancy Torres; vocational tools, Monica Marsalia; Bible and rosary, Dalia Garza; rings, Linda Reyes; diploma, Donna Prazak; money, Beverly Rucka; wine and hosts, Curtis Rose.

When the Lord's Prayer was recited by the congregation, the seniors made a sea of blue in their blue gowns, holding hands, in a circle around Father Ray and the Altar.

At the Rite of Peace all seniors wished each other well.

The seniors wish to thank Joe Wendel for directing them for the ceremony; to Cynthia Sunderman, Elizabeth Miller and Janelle Mascheck for the music; to the parents who set up Diner Hall and decorated the tables; and to Father Ray Widacki for an inspiring Mass.

A covered dish supper followed at Diner Hall honoring the seniors. The main table was set against the wall where the seniors were seated.

Also seated were Mrs. Dorothy Kohleffel, Altar Society president, and Mr. Kohleffel; Marcia Salinas, president of Our Lady of Guadalupe Altar Society and Mr. Salinas; Ray Sykowski, grand knight of Knights of Columbus, and Mrs. Sykowski; Mr. Wendel; Father Ray; the speaker, Richard Lesak, and his wife from Wharton. He made an informative talk on money, life, insurance and wills.
