ELECT

LARRY DUNNE

State Representative District 30

Is The District 30 Seat For Sale?

I hope not. But it appears that a "FOR SALE" sign is swinging from our only seat in the Texas House of Representatives, a seat that needs to be occupied by an individual who has one goal—to represent all citizens without intimidation from selfish special interests.

Why are some of the candidates so willing to spend massive amounts to secure this seat? Robert Saunders, it appears, will spend six to eight times what the job pays annually in the primary alone. Dan Bule is ready to spend perhaps four to five times the annual salary.

My financial outlay will be considerably less than one year's salary. BY CHOICE I am firm in my COMMITMENT TO REPRESENT ALL OF THE PEOPLE and not the selfish interests of a very few. I do not require the services of high-priced public relations experts and direct-mail specialists to create an image of me that is slick, but hollow.

The brochures, tabloids, and mass-mailed letters you receive from these candidates are contrived at great expense. They are prepared by these specialists who have targeted you as a potential candidate for propaganda-propaganda designed to influence your vote.

Dan Bule's smokescreen words of "Trust, Tradition and Tax Reform" mean what? Not much! Political talk about lowering taxes in the face of a severe budget crisis is the rumbling of a man who has failed to grasp the issues. Robert Saunders and his transparent campaign is a sad reflection that District 30 has received no representation for the past six years. If you are not fooled by their empty words and slicker-than-ice images, then perhaps my style of representation is for you.

I believe in a direct approach with honest answers. If I don't have the answer, you can be sure that I'll work, dig deep and come up with an answer that will be fair and equitable.

I am concerned about the problems many of our citizens have encountered with APPRAISAL DISTRICTS, GOVERNMENTAL UTILITIES, EDUCATION and CRIME. My commitment to issues of the ELDERLY and the ABUSED CHILD are well known, as is MY EMPATHY FOR THE DEVASTATED MORALES OF OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS. FARMERS need a hand and the GO-GRAD needs clean water.

I am ready and eager to represent the will of the people of this district. That is what representation is supposed to be—not waiting to react after the fact, but being vigilant to the challenging needs of the citizens.

Is our seat for sale? I don't think so. On May 3, you will have more than an alternative. You now HAVE THE SOLUTION!

Heritage House News

By Patricia A. Herndt

Sunday church services were conducted at Heritage House by Rev. Melburn Sibley of the First Baptist Church this past Sunday. Our residents enjoyed the feeling of consolation from the sermon. Rev. Sibley gave and we want to thank him for visiting our facility.

Worship services are held each Sunday at 3 p.m. in the dining area of our facility. We welcome families and friends of our residents to attend worship services at Heritage House.

Heritage House residents and employees would like to welcome Walter Walla of Alleyton and Ophelia Harbert of Wharton. We hope their stay is comfortable and pleasant.

Our facility extends deepest sympathy to the family of Julius Dewees of Wharton.

Heritage House held the monthly family council last Thursday in the activity room. Families of our loved ones attending are sincerely thanked for coming and participating at the meeting. We hope more family members will get involved by attending the monthly family council which will be held Thursday, May 29 at 3 p.m. in the afternoon. Families of residents at Heritage House are urged to mark this date on their calendar.

Family council meetings are held to involve family members more in the care of their loved one. If a family has a complaint, comment or opinion, please bring it to our attention so that our department heads will be able to act upon your needs. We do value your thoughts and opinions, for the car your loved one receives in our facility is most important to our staff.

Our residents were delightedly surprised by the monthly resident birthday party last Friday afternoon, hosted by the United Methodist Church ladies of Eagle Lake.

Members of the church served a large assortment of angel food cake, birthday cake, ham and cheese sandwiches, and delicious punch. We thank the ladies for their graciousness, assorted refreshments and for hosting April's birthday party for our lovely group of birthday youngsters.

April's birthday list of residents are: Andella Ward, Charles Pavla, Lizzie Hill, Edith Morris, Ida Mae Vates, Inez Holmes, Clara Kirkenfeld, Lillian Williams, Lucille Reese, and Lou Ella Malek. Our facility wishes each one a happy, happy birthday and many more to come.

Mr. Goodwrench

Bill Stiles asks for your vote

Your Commissioner tries to merit your support each day (and has done so since he was first elected) by arriving before 7:00 a.m. to start the road crew on their jobs. He has made every decision in the construction and paving of over 50 miles of roads.

Bill has proven he truly desires to work for your interest by not missing a single meeting in the approximately 1200 commissioners' court sessions.

Bill Stiles has the courage and conviction to vote 'no' to an issue that could cost you many thousands of dollars. He believes and has practiced economy the entire time he has been in office.

Please go to the polls May 3rd and let your voice be heard!
