Leopold chairs Aggie Muster in Japan

On April 21 each year, on the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto, Aggies gather together where ever they are to commemorate fellow Aggies who have died during the year. This Texas A&M tradition was begun in 1883 and is continued today.

2nd Lt. Philip Leopold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Leopold of Eagle Lake, served as chairman for the 1986 Aggie Muster in Okinawa, Japan. He reported that 35 Texas A&M former students, family and friends attended the Muster which was held on Kadena Air Base. The group paid their respects to fallen Aggies and enjoyed telling stories of their days at A&M.

the league schedule and to help maintain the ball park.

"It is imperative that a representative from all teams interested in playing this summer be present at this meeting," emphasized current league officials, adding, "scheduling of games for the 1986 season will be set-up immediately following this meeting so it will be impossible for teams to be added later."

request. There is a limit of one request per household. Requests will be selected by random drawing the week after the deadline.

Those fans whose requests are drawn will be mailed a ticket invoice and will be offered an opportunity to purchase two tickets. Ticket prices are: $40 for each seat in the field, mezzanine, and loge levels; $30 for each upper level seat, and $20 for each seat in the pavilion.
