Student Council update

By Suzanne Corman
The Rice High School Student Council held their first meeting on September 15 in the meeting room. President Lesley Matthews called the meeting to order. The first order of business was to discuss and adopt new points in the attendance rules for the council. They are (1) any new member that misses two meetings and one scheduled activity is released from the council, (2) the class will be left with one less representative. Student Council officers were nominated and voted on. They are as follows: corresponding secretary, Stacey Causey; treasurer, Bill Helfer; reporter, Kelli Lanier; recording secretary, Carol Kurenek; historian, Leslie Sanderman; vice president, Suzanne Corman; and president, Lesley Matthews.

Band council meets

By Jennifer Mader
On Wednesday, September 17, a band council meeting was held at the home of junior representative Lara Dupre. Attending were band directors Miss Harbath and Mr. Porter, Bill Helfer, Debra Soto, Dolores Soto, Marsha Hoffmann, Rhonda Parak, Danette Alvarado and Suzanne Corman. A delicious dinner of chicken spaghetti was prepared by Mrs. Natalie Dupre.

After the meal, the band council discussed business. Dates for the band Christmas party and the band banquet were brought up, and nothing has been scheduled as of this time.

The officers are: Deirdre Douglas, president; Lena Castillo, vice president; Beth Ferguson, secretary; Jennifer Labay, treasurer; Melva Hemphill, reporter; and Linda Spates, historian.

VICA officers elected

By Kelli Lanier
The Cosmetology Department at Rice High School has chosen the 1986-87 Vocational Industrial Clubs of America officers. They are as follows: president, Nelva de la Garza; vice president, Barbara Kuykendall; treasurer, Kimberly Aldridge; secretary, Christine Montoya; reporter, Jamie Ferrill; historian, Sherry Frink; parliamentarian, Paige Botard; president pro tem, Cathy Castillo; and vice president pro tem, Sherry Kutach.

There are twenty-five students enrolled in Cosmetology this school year. The department is open to the public to perform all salon services.

The VICA club members will also be selling candy on November 3-4 to earn money for contest and travel expenses. The Raider Review staff hopes Cosmetology has a good year and wishes them luck at all contests.

Meet the Rice Raiders

By Lesley Matthews
Each week the Raider Review introduces one of the players of the mighty Rice Raider football team. This week the spotlight is on No. 51 Frank, a 180 pound senior who stands 5'11", holds the position of offensive tackle. This is his third season on the varsity team. When asked about the assets of the team, Frank replied they were starting to play more as a team and he feels that if everyone plays to the best of his ability, the team will take district. He did express, however, that the team needs to play with more emotion. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Adkins of Eagle Lake. It also was stated that support from Rice Raider fans definitely helps the team. So go cheer the Raiders on to a victory over Yoakum in Raider Stadium this week!
