There are 54 trees planted along the main thoroughfare of Eagle Lake. Money from contributions and memorials is available to plant 10 more trees which will be done immediately by Peter Canaris, 56.

Canaris also has contracted to plant 12 water oaks contributed by Gerald Powers of Austin, son of O.W. Powers. The water oaks will be planted down FM 102 and bring the number of trees planted to 76.

The Civic Garden Club, through the tree committee, will continue to accept donations and memorials for trees until such time as its source of bargain-priced trees is exhausted, which may be only a few months.

Citizens who earnestly desire to participate in this project should make their contributions now as the grand and reserve champions, trophies for first places in other events, and ribbons for second through sixth places. Silver buckles will be awarded to high pointers in each age group and Navajo saddle pads for reserve honors. Showmanship is counted as a performance and high point contenders must be entered in the halter competition.

Age group for classes and high point are: 13 and under, 14 through 18, and 19 and over. Married contestants will ride in the 19 and over category.

American Quarter Horse Association and WCJC Collegiate FFA rules will be used. No youth shall show stallions.

A six point system will be used with points accumulated on a one horse/ride team. If more than one person rides one horse, or any contestant rides more than one horse, points will be kept separately. Gerald Robinson is the judge.

Pre-entry fees are $4 and $5 on the day of the show. Pre-entries must be in within four days of the show. Books will close at the beginning of each prior class. Books open at 7:30 a.m. and the show starts at 8 a.m.

Contact: Johnna Martinez (793-4127), Michelle Lewis (532-2972) or Suzie Wanek (345-083) for information.

"THE PRODIGAL is a powerful commentary on our present condition... a message to which we all can relate... it is a Christian film in the best and clearest sense... I hope and pray it will reach a wide audience." - Rev. Don P. Macomber, Bel Air Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles, California
