4 Cards of Thanks

The family of the late Eva Selders Roberts would like to extend our appreciation and gratitude to friends, neighbors and relatives of Eagle Lake, Houston, Philadelphia, PA. for their support during our time of sorrow.

We would like to extend a special thanks to Reverend Coby Shorter, Reverend Obie Rhodes, Reverend Joe James and Reverend Nixson and the Mann Funeral Home for a job well done; the pianist (N. Cunningham) for the special song for Eva. We would also like to thank Mrs. Anna Coleman and Mrs. Annie Malone for the nice remarks. Last, but not least, we thank all the other nice people for the money, cards, and flowers and food, and also for the so many other kind offers and thoughts.

May God bless each and everyone.

God you know the disappointment,
The discouragement,
The anxiety
The loneliness
Yes, even the anger
I feel because my prognosis is not good.
I can only pray that you will give
Me and my loved ones
The strength to face what lies ahead.

The Selders and Roberts Family

Fifty years together

Deane Fletcher, former Eagle Lake School superintendent, and his wife Vyvian, of Winfrey Valley in Winslow, Arkansas recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married January 31, 1937 in the Presbyterian Church in Hollis, Oklahoma. Dean served as superintendent of the Eagle Lake School System from July 1950 through June 1958. Heifer calves were strong to $2 a hundred higher with some of the light weights $3 to $5 a hundred higher. Packer cows were a little weaker than last week, says George Hagan and Don McAlister.

Annual TJCA convention scheduled

A student holiday will be observed this Friday, Feb. 20 at Wharton County Junior College to permit faculty and administrator attendance at the 40th annual convention of the Texas Junior College Teachers Association and Texas Junior College Association to be held February 19-21 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Houston.

WCJC president, Dr. Elbert C. Hutchins, will preside at the annual TJCA meeting attended by presidents of the state's 49 junior college districts. The speaker will be Dr. Jared Hazleton, president of the Texas Research League, a non-profit, citizen-supported, educational organization which conducts research on state and local government in Texas.

Activities by Wharton County Junior College and eight other Texas Gulf Coast colleges in a joint effort of marketing, advertising and public relations will be presented to a section meeting on public information and journalism.

TJCTA president Doris Huibregtse of Big Spring announces this year's convention theme is "Education at the Crossroads". She calls it appropriate "considering the current outlook for post-secondary education." "At a time when education has become a household word, a state financial crisis has reared its ugly head. To go foward — even to maintain the educational offerings now available — our state leaders must vote badly needed revenue increases."

Happy Birthday
Robert R. Wells, Jr.
You are a very special friend.
Love,
Donnie Lilie

Sheridan News

by Velma Kutzer

Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy and children of Victoria along with Beatrice Botard visited relatives in Sheridan during the past weekend.

James Werner is once again offering his services as an income tax preparer.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kallina and Hannah spent last weekend on Lake Travis near Austin with Scott and Becky Placke.

Get well wishes are extended to Mabel Franklin who is a patient in the Eagle Lake hospital. She sustained a broken leg in a fall at her home Saturday afternoon. Her mother, Alma Foster, also suffered some damage to her elbow.

Mrs. Jewell Ross entered the hospital in Weimar Thursday and spent five days in the special care unit. She was moved to a private room Monday with some improvement in her condition. We wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

The Valentine banquet held at the Baptist Church Friday night at 6:30 was a great success. The committee responsible for decorating the hall did an outstanding job and the Mexican food was delicious. Blaine Hollub of Center entertained the group with lots of good music after the meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Vawter, who have not missed a Sunday in Sunday school in 12 months, were honored as king and queen. Marcie Kutzer and DeWayne Dopslauf were named king and queen of the youth division.

A banquet for the young children was held Saturday morning at 11:30 with approximately 41 children attending. After the meal, they were entertained with a delightful puppet show provided by Jean Krebs. Justin Kutzer and Mandy High were chosen as king and queen for the children.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Ernest Tesch who died recently. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon with burial in a cemetery near Sublime. He is survived by his widow and three sons, Elvin and Maxie of Sheridan and Robert of Victoria.

The family of Roy Heinold extend their gratitude to the Sheridan Lions Club for the organization of the blood drive which was held Monday. Thirty-nine donors responded to the need of replacing the blood used by the blood bank in Houston for the late Roy Heinold. Three were turned down and not able to give blood. The family sincerely appreciates everyone who helped in this cause.
