Xi Psi Psi members view paintings and sculptures at D.R. Wintermanns

Xi Psi Psi sorority held its 200th meeting on March 17 with JoAnn Gertson as hostess. David and Eula Wintermann welcomed Xi Psi Psi members to their pool house to view some of their many beautiful paintings and sculptures. Members were guided by Mr. Wintermann who familiarized them with various art works and with many facts about the artist as well. It was a delightful program, one those in attendance will long remember.

Special Olympics track and field meet Saturday

The 1987 Texas Special Olympics Area III track and field meet will be held Saturday, April 11 at the Stroman High School track in Victoria. Opening ceremonies will begin at 8 a.m. with various track and field events taking place throughout the day.

Area III consists of 11 counties including Colorado County. Teams from Colorado County that will be participating are the Eagle Lake Raiders, the Columbus Altamere Education Center and the Waldvogel Opportunity Center.

Special Olympics is an international movement that provides year-round sports training and competition for the mentally retarded. The goal of Special Olympics is best stated in its motto, "Let me win. But if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."

If you or your organization would like to know more about Special Olympics or our upcoming meet, please contact Darlene Stancik at (409) 234-3449 or (512) 444-1340 or Linda Lipperdt at 234-3474 or 234-3985.

Henneke Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements. Mrs. Pendergrass was cremated.
