Garwood/Nada News

By Georgia Michalka

A tip of the hat to officer "Curly" Wied. Deputy Wied's sharp eyes and alertness led to the apprehension of a murder suspect Wednesday in Nada. It's nice to know our law enforcers are on the ball.

The Garwood Lions Club sponsored a dog and cat vaccination clinic on April 25. Troy Krenke and Lawrence Boensch reported about 85 animals were treated at the Garwood School shop. Thanks to Dr. R.H. Potter of Columbus for this valuable disease fighting service.

Fish fry Saturday
The St. Mary's Church of Nada will have a fish fry this Saturday, May 9. The meal will be served from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the KJF Hall-Community Center. Advance tickets may be purchased from any St. Mary's student.

Frank and Marilyn Popp honored their daughter, Shari, with a graduation party April 25 at their MEJ Ranch in Sheridan. The register table was set up with Shari's memory book and a white rose, the senior flower. The table also held a decorated cake inscribed "Congratulations Shari, Senior 1987" along with a diploma and graduation cap in the senior colors of blue and silver. A meal of hamburgers, pinto beans, chips and fresh fruit was served at 6 p.m. Approximately twenty-six seniors came to help Shari celebrate and they enjoyed playing volleyball, horseshoes and washers.
