Six candelabras accented with greenery illuminated the altar. The unity candle was decorated with a cross made of carnations. A pair of candelabras was placed in the back of the church and candle arrangements adorned the windows. Fourteen candelabras were placed down the aisle. Over 130 candles were burning in the church.

The officiating gifts were presented by Scott Janish and Melissa Pounder, nephew and niece of the bride. The readings were given by Courtney Brandt, niece of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a formal gown of white tulle with a fitted bodice, accented with sequins and pearls. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie.

Estlinbaum, Sanders attend camp

Darrell Gene Estlinbaum and Shannon Wayne Sanders, both of Eagle Lake, had the opportunity to swim, horseback ride, fish, study nature, play sports and go on an overnight campout. Darrell, sponsored by the Eagle Lake Noon Lions Club, and Shannon, sponsored by the Garwood Lions Club, had the opportunity to enjoy special camping programs at the Texas Lions Camp at no cost to their parents.

The Texas Lions Camp is completely accessible to wheelchairs and its programs are adapted especially to serve children who are visually impaired, hearing impaired and physically handicapped.

"I have never been so touched as I was at the awards ceremony," said a camper's parent. "It is obvious that there is great mutual love between the children and counselors. The campers are given a chance to succeed with happiness and dignity, and the camp gives the children so much faith and hope."

All camp activities are well supervised by a trained staff of counselors with a high counselor to camper ratio, one counselor to every three campers.

The Texas Lions Camp is a non-profit organization which has served more than 30,000 handicapped children since 1949. The camp is funded by contributors interested in providing challenging programs for handicapped individuals. It is located on 500 acres of the Texas hill country near Kerrville and holds four summer camping sessions for physically handicapped children ages 7 to 16.

The remainder of the year, the facility provides educational instruction through its Texas Education Agency accredited school. If you know someone who can benefit from the programs, contact your local Lions club or write Texas Lions Camp, Box 247, Kerrville, Texas, 78029-0247.

Community Vacation Bible School 'parent night' held

The United Methodist Church was filled to capacity Friday, June 26 for the Community Vacation Bible School parent night. The children marched in singing "Rejoice in the Lord," accompanied by Claudette Powers and led by Robin Clipson. The five year old class led all the children in singing "This is the Day."

After opening with a prayer, Belinda Gonzales read the greeting from Paul's Epistle to the Colossians. The four year old class then shared some of their favorite songs from the week.

The kindergarten and first grade presented the song "I'll Forgive You" and led all the children in singing "I Love You Lord." The second grade acted out the song "Paul was Let Down in a Basket." The third, fourth and fifth grades shared some of Paul's writings and ideas with those present.

The offering received for the evening, as well as what was collected during the week amounted to over $100, and it was donated to the Community Hunger Fund.

A special visitor to the program was the Apostle Paul portrayed by Curtis Wilson. Paul visited each morning with the children and introduced that day's lesson. Following some closing remarks, Paul invited the parents to join the children in their rooms to admire their crafts from the week. All recessed singing "Who was Paul?"

The refreshments for the evening were provided by the ladies of Christ Episcopal Church and were served in the fellowship hall. A special treat all week long were delicious homemade cookies which were provided each day by the ladies from the Assembly of God, Methodist, Lutheran, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches.

The week sped by as we joined "Paul's Adventure for Christ." As director, Myra Wilson again extended her sincere appreciation to all the teachers and helpers who worked hard to give the children a fun and inspiring time.

Salad luncheon hosted by art club

On Friday, July 17 the Live Oak Art Club will be hosting a salad luncheon in the Colorado County Art Center, located at 1014 Milam in Columbus.

Serving time will be from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Plates are $4 each. Proceeds will go toward the restoration of the building. Last year's luncheon was a big success and art club members hope this year will be, too.

The updates of the areawide plan include important revisions in population and wastewater projections which can affect municipalities and water-related districts in the Greater Houston area which includes all of Harris County and significant portions of Brazoria, Fort Bend, Galveston, Montgomery, and Waller counties. In addition this year's update includes regional goals and objectives for water quality approved by H-GAC's Board of Directors in October 1986 and issues for future consideration.

H-GAC new population and wastewater projections will be considered by the Texas Water Commission in determining wastewater allocations for stream segments and in issuing wastewater discharge permits to municipal users.

Local governments in the Greater Houston area use the H-GAC Plan in developing and carrying out wastewater treatment activities and both H-GAC and local governments work closely with the Texas Water Commission in identifying potential water quality problems in the area and in developing programs safeguarding the area's vital water resources.

Views On Dental Health, CHEEKBITING

Without a doubt many of us have had the experience of unconsciously biting the inner side of our cheek. If you are tense, or have generalized anxiety, this may manifest itself when you are sleeping, or even when you are awake. One of the ways you may express tension is by clenching or grinding your teeth. This is called bruxing. Many people do it at night when they sleep. This may include biting your cheek or lip unconsciously. Normally it will heal in a few days if you don't keep chewing on that area.

If you have a continuing problem your dentist can check the relationship of your bite to see if there are any irregularities on the teeth surfaces that are contributing to your bruxing habit. If there are, they can easily be eliminated. He may also find a sharp cusp, or an uneven relationship of teeth in the cheek area. Again, he can correct this easily.

Lastly, he may suggest you wear a Hawley-type night guard appliance, or a bite guard to help break the habit and permit him to check your bite even more precisely.

Presented as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of DAVID W. EUERS, D.D.S., 784 S. McCauley Avenue, Eagle Lake, Texas, 234-3525.
