FOOTBALL CONTEST

$10 to First Place

(Entry listing the most correct winners)

$5 to Second Place

RULES:

Study the games listed inside each advertisement; each game is numbered. Pick the teams you think will win. Write those team names on the entry form, matching game numbers to the numbers on the form.

The entry with the most games guessed correctly will win $10. The second-best entry wins $5. First and second places will be awarded every week.

Entry forms must be in The Headlight office by 5 p.m. Friday before the games are played, or if mailed, must have that Friday's postmark. Winners will be announced on this page the following week, except for the last week when they will be on the sports page. The contest lasts through November 5, 1987.

At the bottom of each entry form, write in the total points you think will be scored in that Friday night's Rice Raider game. In case of ties in guessing the winners, the score-guess will be the tie-breaker. If a tie still exists, winners will be drawn.

Raymonda Moreida was incorrect on games 4, 10 & 17 while Joshua Grahmann missed numbers 2, 5, 6 and 8. Both of our winners guessed correctly on the game that gave over 70% of the entrants trouble... #14, BYU & UT. Another difficult one was #6, La Grange & Seely. It tripped up over 67%. The competition is getting rough. There were 7 entries that missed only 5... close! Best of luck this week!

Raider Review

Who's zat?

By JENNIFER MATTHEWS

Who is this terrible twosome in the red? That question baffled many of Rice's students this week. The only hints given were that they are both seniors and are not related.

Some of the many incorrect guesses were: Scott Ripper and Tiger Pratt, who guessed that it was Paul Marsalis and Mark Kucherka; Kevin Bendy and Ernie Trcka decided to disregard the hint, and both said Suzanne and Vance Corman; Michael Grahmann finally decided it was Vance Corman and Lane Thomson, and Amanda Garcia, after about five minutes of staring, decided it was Jeff Marquart and Traci Klein. Michael Rhodes and Duward Purdue, after a moment, answered Vance Corman and Jeff Marquart, and Patty Stephens' guess was Trip Clipson and Devin Van Nort.

Correct guessers with just a little help were Lane Thomson, Stephen Taylor and Mr. Wendel, but Kim Garrett, Sally Strube and Mr. Grahmann, for some strange reason, recognized these adorable faces instantly. They knew these two had to be none other than Vance Corman and Trip Clipson.

Vance, son of Wayne and Brenda Corman of Eagle Lake, plays varsity football for the Raiders. Trip is the son of Kay Clipson of Eagle Lake and Richard and Robin Clipson of Eagle Lake, and is an active member of the senior class.

Prairie Edge Museum Notes

Prairie Edge continues more and more to become a distinct honor to the Eagle Lake community. People donate or loan items that make wonderful displays showing our heritage. A large part of our museum is now air-conditioned, so even though we probably will have many more warm days before fall weather begins, we can look forward to the comfort of air-conditioning. Next week I want to write more about this recently installed facility.

Prairie Edge will be honored by a visit of the local Middle School third graders this Friday. They will be accompanied by their teachers; namely, Mrs. Klekar, Mrs. Ardis, Ms. Blyth and Miss Albrecht. The group can look forward to going through our very own red caboose. I'll plan to write more about this school visit next week.

I hope that people attending activities during the Waterford Festival will make a tour of our museum. Call Bill Harrison Sr. at 234-2662 or Elizabeth Boothe, reporter

A new face at Rice

By PATTY STEPHENS

For a few new students at Rice High School, this year is a complete change. One of these students is Brian Ferguson, a sophomore. Brian is from Orem, Utah where he attended Orem Junior High. His first impression of Rice was that the school had an organized system. He said he likes Rice better than his last school and he thinks the students and teachers are really friendly. Brian plays on the junior varsity football team and is also interested in hunting, camping and hiking. The Raider Review welcomes Brian and wishes him a successful year.

Brian is the son of Brenda Ferguson of Eagle Lake and Vernon Strothers.

New teacher at Rice

By LAURIE ABEL

Each year the opening of school at Rice brings new faces. Most of these faces belong to freshmen and new students looking confused and out of place. In addition, Rice High School has a few new teachers "learning the ropes."

Miss Meyer, a recent graduate of Southwest Texas, is beginning her first year of teaching consumer math and consumer economics. Miss Meyer, no stranger to these parts, graduated from Columbus High School.

Her first impression of Rice was how nice the school looks and how friendly the students are. She also noticed that we didn't have very many disciplinary problems. When I asked her how her first week went, she replied, "So far, so good." We all hope she will enjoy working at Rice. We're glad she traded in her Cardinal red for Raider blue!

WORKING STUDENTS:

When you fill out your Form W-4 or W-4A, "Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate," remember: If you can be claimed on your parent's or another person's tax return, you generally cannot be exempt from income tax withholding. To get it right, read the instructions that came with your Form W-4 or W-4A.
