Brenham Diocesan meeting held in Eagle Lake

The Brenham Diocesan Council of Catholic Women met at Diner Hall at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Eagle Lake. Hosts were ladies from Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Our Lady of Guadalupe with 95 ladies and 5 priests present.

Father Paul McCallum of Sealy, moderator of Brenham DCCW, was absent, being on the way to Medjugorje, Yugoslavia. Msgr. Thomas McNulty, of New York, is in Sealy in his place. New Dell Strieder, president, opened the meeting. The welcome was given by Carolyn Noska, the president of the Altar Society, and by Father Jesse Euresi, pastor of the Eagle Lake Catholic Churches.

This has been proclaimed the Marian year by the Pope in honor of Mary. To do our share at the meeting the rosary was recited, with each parish representing a decade. Commission reports were given. Carolyn Noska gave the international report. She reminded ladies the 1988 project is the Philippines. She said they are desperately in need of funds. Organization report was given by Gladys Soddak of Sealy.

Edna Dibola of Wallis gave the clerical endowment fund report. The Rev. Joseph Coffey Burns is completing. The new one is in memory of Karl Jeffery Wostack, 21, parishioner of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Freiburg, killed in a one car accident in August.

October is busy month for Sunshine Bluebirds

The third grade Bluebirds have had a very busy first month of meetings, trips and craft activities. The first meeting of the year was opened on Tuesday, September 29. Our craft was something new to us and very interesting. After coloring one layer of various colors and a top layer of heavy black, we sketched a picture scraping off the black with a toothpick revealing a very colorful picture of our own design.

During Fire Prevention Week, we were given a tour of the fire station and trucks with a "hands on" demonstration of the use of the fire hose. The tour was topped off with a ride on a fire truck. We would like to thank the Bluebird daddys for the tour — firemen Gary Glaister, David Baird and Michael Rucka.

We spent our third meeting making an unusual scarecrow jack-o-lantern to be used to guard the candy dish at home during this spooky holiday season.

To top off the month of October, five members of our group spent the weekend of October 23-25 at Camp Winawac near Rosebud. It was a fun-filled weekend meeting new friends and learning a lot about Indian customs and crafts. We made a "dream catcher" during craft time. The Indians believed that when a dream catcher was hung in their teepees, it would catch the evil spirits in bad dreams and let the good dreams filter through.

The Bluebirds attending the camp were Bridget Baird, Nicole Chamberlain, Sunny Gertson, Shara Glaister and Robyn Rucka. Adults attending were leader Betsy Glaister and Bluebird Mom Sylvia Rucka.

The month of October was closed with a Halloween party. Faces were painted with water colors in the Indian designs that were used at Camp Winawac.

The president explained the bar-burries, saying a family can donate $4,000 to C.E.F. and have a bursary named in their honor. The interest is used to help young seminarians and also needy parish projects.

Maria Mock of Frydek talked on the Legislative Commission. She said there will be 25 amendments to be voted on November 3, explaining some of them.

Msgr. S. Fuchs of Belleville talked on chain letters and letters from Jesus and Mary Crusade. They have no church approval, not to believe them.

It is a Pro Life Rally in Houston. The program was musical selections sung by Kay Huggins of Sealy. Door prizes were given.

Priests present were Fr. Gregory Pankaj, Chapel Hill, Msgr. S. Fuchs, Belleville; Father Michael Krol, Wal-lis; Msgr. Thomas McNulty, New York; Fr. Jesse Euresi, Eagle Lake.

Dinner was served by the Eagle Lake parish. The next meeting will be in January in Frydek.

McGehee return from extended trip

Mr. & Mrs. Chester McGehee returned home Oct. 3 from a most enjoyable trip of nearly five months which took them over 16,000 miles. Their journey started May 16 when they traveled to Pagosa Springs, Colorado to meet Mrs. McGehee's brother and his wife, Charles and Mary Kay Walker of Sweeny. Several days of sightseeing were spent together around that area. From there, the McGehees headed towards Canada where they spent almost three months touring Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia Provinces. They spent a week visiting Mr. McGehee's relatives in Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan Province, Canada.

Extensive touring was enjoyed in all provinces staying in various parks throughout their visit. Especially enjoyed were Jasper and Banff Alberta, Canada and Kananaskis Country, the Columbia Icefields and many other sights. Mrs. McGehee enjoyed spending several days at the world's largest shopping mall that covers 8 city blocks under one roof at Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Mrs. McGehee suggested spending weeks here but with Mr. McGehee protesting that move, they journeyed on. The mall had not only stores, shops and banks but an indoor waterworld, indoor zoo, indoor mini astroworld and more.

Several weeks could be spent at the mall alone. The trip took them through Washington State, Wyoming, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, Idaho and Colorado and was exciting, relaxing and most enjoyable.

Pink Ladies to sponsor game party November 17

Mark your calendars now! On Tuesday, November 17 the Eagle Lake Community Hospital Auxiliary will have a fund raising game party in the Eagle Lake Community Center at 2 p.m. This will be for ladies and gentlemen and will include games of bridge, canasta and dominos.

The proceeds from this event will go toward the cost of the $50,000 chemistry, auto analyzer recently installed in the hospital's laboratory. Tickets are on sale now for $5 each and can be purchased from any Pink Lady, at the hospital gift shop, Laker Printing or call Mrs. Faye Rutledge, chairman of ticket distribution.

Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded to winners in each division.

A bakery table will be an added attraction in the Community Center that afternoon. Each Pink Lady, active and associate, will be asked to donate an item to be sold. So you may want to bring some extra cash.

There also will be a "white elephant" table of assorted items. Could be something there you've always wanted.

The Auxiliary will be observing its 20th anniversary at this time with a Silver Tea. Those unable to be present at 2 p.m. may drop in and are urged to do so during the afternoon for refreshments and help celebrate the occasion.

The sophisticated analyzer will benefit every patient that enters the local hospital and upgrades the lab to one of the best in the area.

Your hospital volunteers extend heartfelt thanks to those who have generously given charitable donations toward the cost of the analyzer and hope others will do so.

"We sincerely hope you will join us for a fun-filled afternoon while supporting this effort. Your presence is needed and will be greatly appreciated," say the Pink Ladies.

Smoking will be permitted in the pavilion entrance area, only. Mrs. Charles Spangler is president of the Hospital Auxiliary and Mrs. Fred R. Frink is chairman of the game party. Feel free to call either of the above mentioned ladies for more information.

Plan to attend and make our hearts glad, say the auxiliary officers.
