Who's zat?

By PATTY STEPHENS

Quien es este niño? (Who's this boy?) This question baffled quite a few students at Rice. The only clue given to this mystery baby's identity was that he is a junior from Eagle Lake.

Lupe Cano was a popular wrong guess this week. Among the wrong guesses were Chris Rodriguez, Katina Carson, Brad Baumgarten, Elaine Contreras, Jason Gallagher, Jennifer Alvarado, Leslie Glover and Scott Ripper. Stephen Taylor, who had no idea, jokingly guessed the picture to be of Vance Corman while Bryon Brown, Anessa Williams and Lezi Schilling chose not to reveal their guess. Brian Center and Allen Eggemeyer were absolutely sure he was Javier Cano.

Though many students were perplexed over this picture, several students took one look at those adorable eyes and knew he was Nestor Benavides, son of Mr. and Mrs. Baldemar Benavides of Eagle Lake. Among

by RENEE BALAS

On Monday, November 16, the traditional Powderpuff football game featuring the senior and sophomore girls vs. the junior and sophomore girls was played. The big rivals consisting of The Wild One's (seniors and freshmen) and Russell's Ravishing Rustlers (juniors and sophomores) played to see who really was the toughest team and who would hold the bragging rights for another year. The brave coaches for The Wild One were coaches Wild and Sanders. Coach Russell led Russell's Ravishing Rustlers.

After the first half of exciting football was played, it came time for the wonderful half time show which included the crowning of the king. This year's court for Powderpuff king included Brian Balas, escorted by Donna Fudge; Rene Campos, escorted by Elva Rodriguez; Vance Corman, escorted by Marla Thomas; Keith Korenek, escorted by Suzanne Corman, and Jeff Marquart, escorted by Tracy Klein. The students chose Vance Corman as the 1987 Powderpuff king.

Cheering for The Wild One's were Vance Corman, Keith Korenek, Jeff Marquart, Greg Blair, Dustin Hengst and Patrick Powers. Rooting for Russell's Ravishing Rustlers were Kevin Bendy, Nestor Benavides, Mitch Miller, Casey Clipson, Dwight Dopslauf and Russell Labay. The ending resulted in a 0-0 tie, but both teams felt they were the best team in the Powderpuff NFL.

ATI presentation given to drafting, auto mechanics

By DIONNE GLOVER

On Wed., November 11, the Rice High School auto mechanics and drafting departments had the pleasure of listening to a presentation given by Arizona Automotive Institute representative Connie Thurman. The ATI is a school located in Glendale, Arizona, which specializes in intensive drafting and auto mechanics studies.

Miss Thurman visited the first and second period drafting classes and presented the classes with a program on ATI. Her presentation included a video tape of the school, a narration of school cost, and information about job placement. ATI has an 18-month course of intensive drafting study - 12

FTA convention held in Hallettsville

By LAURIE ABEL

Saturday, November 14, members of the Rice FTA organizations went to Hallettsville for the annual Texas Future Teachers of America convention.

The meeting was called to order and officers of District IIIA were recognized. The students then were dismissed to a variety of workshops including presentations on speech therapy, special education and Mary Kay cosmetics. The most popular workshop was an AIDS video.

Cindy Garza, Dionne Glover and Sally Strube were the three delegates from Rice. After the workshops, the students reassembled for the awards and election of new officers.

Rice students swept up the awards. Dionne Glover received first place for her essay about the TFTA theme, "molding minds, moving mountains." Cindy Garza took first for her poem about FTA. The Rice name tag, made by Shannon Pastojovsky, received third place in the naming contest. The new TFTA District III officers were elected with Laurie Abel being nominated for financial secretary.

Door prizes were then given out with Mrs. Gohlke, FTA sponsor, as one of the lucky winners. The session finally came to an end.

Dionne Glover, Jennifer Mader, Sally Strube, Camille Mitchell, Cindy Garza, Leslie Glover, Laurie Abel, Lynette Banks and Heather Abel attended the convention and received 15 points towards the FTA point award system.

Leadership awards given

By JENNIFER MATTHEWS

As the football season came to a close this year, the Rice High School Band and Outrider found that it was time to select the outstanding leaders in each organization. In both cases, the leader could be anyone in the organization. To be selected, there were no requirements other than being a good leader. This year, the Mighty Raider Band selected senior Leslie Sunderman, and the Outrider chose seniors Shannon Pastojovsky and Dora Hernandez.

Leslie is the daughter of Rita and Melvin Sunderman of Eagle Lake, and is very active at Rice. She is the president of Rice's FFA chapter, the corresponding secretary of Student Council, secretary/treasurer of the senior class, in the Business Club, and of course, she's in band.

Shannon, president of the Outrider, is the daughter of Judy and Skip Pastojovsky. Shannon also is the senior class reporter, active in the Senior Club and FTA and plays basketball for the Lady Raiders.

Dora, a fourth-year Outrider, is a member of the One-Act play, Business Club and takes Cosmetology. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baldo Hernandez.

Happy Thanksgiving from the Raider Review Staff!

RESTORING CHIPPED TEETH

If any of your teeth have been chipped in a fall or accident, they can be restored to a completely natural look with the new bonding technique. This is a great advantage, particularly where your front teeth are concerned. Any few there shows every time you smile. But it doesn't have to. No one is more aware than the smile. Best of all, it can be done in one office visit.

Presented as a public service to promote better oral health. From the office of DAVID W. EUERS, D.D.S., 704 S. McCarty Avenue, Eagle Lake, 234-3525.
