Raider Review

Batter up!

By JANIE BOTARD
Standing in the batter's box this week is sophomore, Norman "Bobo" Botard. Norman plays third base for the Varsity Raiders.
Bobo believes that the team is doing very well this season. "The practices have been hard, but I know, they will all pay off."
At the beginning of the season, Bobo felt that the hitting could have been better. He said the hitting abilities on the team have definitely improved and the defense is very impressive.
Bobo is the son of Norman and Janet Botard of Sheridan. Along with baseball, he is a member of the J.V. Basketball team. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing and hunting.

Spring break activities fun-filled

By ANESSA WILLIAMS
On Monday, March 26, most of the R.H.S. students awoke with one thought in mind: "Do I have to go back to school?" These people were experiencing the post-spring break blues. They wanted more days to lay around and do as little as possible.
Students at Rice High School were found doing many different activities during their week of freedom. Even though the students were found at different locations, they all had one goal in mind, having fun.
Some people decided to get away from it all and headed for South Padre Island. Others wanted to catch some rays at the beach in Galveston. Other people chose to lay by their backyard pool.
Some students seemed to not be able to get enough of school as they headed to San Marcos, Austin, and College Station to experience "college life".
Another favorite activity during spring break was to do absolutely nothing! Many laid around, watched their favorite soaps and were generally glad that they weren't in school.
But school time came around again, and on Monday morning reports of spring break activities were told and it appeared that everyone had a great time no matter what they did.

Abel chosen student of the week

By LAREINA PENCE
Heather Abel was chosen to be the Student Pride Award winner for the week of March 26-30. Heather was quite surprised when she heard the news, and she also felt proud. She said that she enjoys going to Rice because, "It is a fine school, and it has wonderful teachers."
Heather is an active member of the Rice Raider Band, UIL One-Act Play, Headline Writing, Number Sense, Literary Criticism and Prose. She is the Rice FTA Vice President, and she is the FTA's District Financial Secretary. Other than these activities, she enjoys going to the movies, hanging out with friends and listening to music.
Heather is the daughter of Charles and Jeanette Abel of Eagle Lake. Congratulations Heather!

Who's zat?

By NATALIE CORDOVA
Who could this little blonde headed cutie be? Well to our surprise, it is not a gal. The only clue given was that this little fella is a member of the junior class.
This picture left the junior students confused and puzzled. Those that guessed incorrectly were Jackie Dromgoole and Tressa Sewell, who thought it was Brent Mathis. Karen Earls took a wild guess and said Greg Blair. Jose Gonzales guessed Wade Satsky and Noble Anderson took a shot and said Welby Horton. Mr. Grammann and Mrs. Gohlke claimed it to be Noble Anderson. Those who guessed this adorable fella was none other than Tom Gold were Anessa Williams, Cassandra Edwards, Lareina Pence, Dustin Hengst, and Darryl Anderson.
Tom Gold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gold of Garwood.

Shelton promoted

Roy J. Shelton has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of private first class. Shelton is a motor transport operator with the 24th Support Battalion at Fort Stewart, Ga.
Shelton is the son of Rosie M. Shelton of Eagle Lake and brother of Shirley J. Pettit of East Bernard. He is a 1988 graduate of East Bernard High School.

TSTI to host spring sneak preview

Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI) in Waco will host an open house for high school students and their families on Friday, April 6 and Saturday, April 7.
"Sneak Preview," an open house held twice annually, is conducted to allow prospective and interested students to have a look at the many quality programs offered at TSTI. The weekend event will run from 8 a.m. till 5 p.m. on Friday, April 6, and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 7.
Visitors will be able to tour the campus and its housing facilities, and instructional programs will set up booths in the Student Center to give the visitors a quick look into their program. Instructors will be available to answer questions and provide tours of their individual programs.
The counseling staff will hold sessions about academic advisement and placement to help visitors decide the best program for them. Information about admission will also be available.
Sessions regarding financial aid will help students fill out the necessary (financial aid) application forms. Visitors are asked to bring their 1989 income tax returns to ease the process.
"Anything and everything a prospective student needs to know to make an intelligent decision about TSTI/Waco will be available at Sneak Preview," Charles Reed, director of Admissions said.
"It is a prime opportunity to get a firsthand look and feel for this place," he said.
Upon arrival to the campus, visitors are asked to check-in at the Student Center to register their attendance.
Sneak Preview, including a hamburger lunch, is free and open to any prospective student and their family.
"We want students to experience firsthand the world-class environment of TSTI," President Don Goodwin said.
For additional information concerning Sneak Preview, call the Admissions Office toll-free at 1-800-792-TSTI, or direct at 817-867-4812.

Rice receives rave reviews

By HEATHER ABEL
On Saturday, March 24, the cast, crew, and sponsor of the U.I.L. One-Act Play traveled to Columbus High School for district competition. While there, they performed Soladara, a drama about the Mexican Revolution.
The cast consisted of Welby Horton, Lana Hutchison, Heather Abel, Jill Janish, Ann Drik, Mandy Luevano, Bonnie Benge and Joy Johnson. The crew was composed of Brad Baumgarten, Jason Dulany, and Shannon Smith. Mrs. Billie Jean Jackson sponsored the group.
After a fine performance, the cast eagerly awaited the awards ceremony and the critiques. That evening the results were finally announced with Welby Horton and Lana Hutchison getting Honorable Mention to the All-Star Cast and Heather Abel making the All-Star Cast.
Congratulations to everyone for a job well done!

Caring for Dry Skin
Dry skin is a condition experienced by many people. Prevention of dry skin may be accomplished by increasing environmental moisture such as through the use of a cool mist vaporizer and by minimizing skin exposure to very hot water, harsh soaps, and detergents. Dry skin care involves the use of occlusive preparations and skin moisturizers.
Occlusives: Soaking the skin in water for a few minutes, followed by the application of an occlusive preparation such as lanolin, petroleum jelly or products containing animal or vegetable oils, often helps dry skin become softer and smoother. The occlusive fills in the tiny breaks in the skin and helps prevent the evaporation of water from the skin.
Moisturizers: Product ingredients such as glycerin and propylene glycol attract moisture. These ingredients either are absorbed directly into the skin or stay on the surface of the skin where they pull water from the atmosphere. Moisturizers may also lubricate the surface of the skin.
Skin care products are available as gels, lotions, creams, and ointments. Ointments are thought to have better occlusive properties, but lotions and creams are more popular because they usually do not produce greasy spots on the skin.
