Raider Review

Meet the Raiders

By VICKI DRLIK

This week's Meet the Raider is Marshan Norris. Marshan is a Senior and plays on the varsity basketball team. His favorite basketball player is Dominique Wilkins because of his great style of play. Marshan says their hardest opponent to date has been Brookshire-Royal because they gave Rice difficult situations during the game. He says Rice's strength is their scoring ability and their weakness is their sporadic play.

Marshan's favorite part of the game is slam dunking. His greatest influence in athletics has been Coach Lively. Marshan is the son of Mrs. Arlene Jackson of Eagle Lake.

Student Pride selected

By NATALIE CORDOVA The newest edition to the list of student pride recipients is freshman Rebecca Sosa. Rebecca says that all of her classes are fun and interesting so she can not single out one class as her favorite. She also states that her teachers are friendly, dedicated, and helpful to students so she can not select a favor-

Who's zat?

Not many students were fooled by this cute little face; however, others were mislead by her mischievous little grin.

Bonnie Benge mistook this little blonde as being Tammie Hinze. Chad Sunderman and Josh Grahmann were also fooled when they guessed Lana Hutchison. Reagan Stienke, Bonnie Benge, Aaron Machac, Shanna Brun-ner, Shane Glaiser, April McMillian, Stefanie Kershner and Tami Fuller all knew that this little girl could be none other than Melissa Guthmann.

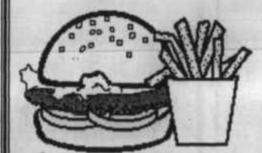

Melissa is a member of the Varsity Basketball and Track team. She is the aughter of Marcus and Billie Guthnann of Eagle Lake.
