Meet the Raiders

By NATALIE CORDOVA
Playing the position of postman for the Raiders is junior, #24, Matthew McGaughey. We talked to Matthew about how the year is progressing with the team and he commented that looking back into the season, their high point was the Boling tournament, when the Raiders played the final round 6-0. Matthew feels that Brookshire Royal was the toughest opponent because of their defense and ability to play hard the whole game.

Matthew McGaughey
Matthew selected Mr. Wendel as his personal inspiration. "He pushes me to do my very best," was his comment. He chose Michael Jordan as his favorite basketball player and when asked who was his favorite team, he chose the Rockets.
Matthew is the son of Max and Cathy McGaughey of Eagle Lake. Matthew's extra-curricular activities at Rice are basketball and golf. Outside of school, he enjoys hunting, playing basketball and going out with his friends.

Who's Zat?

"No way, I may sit here and look cute, but I ain't gonna smile!" This little cutie looks like she's pretty bewildered about having her picture taken. This baby girl confused quite a few people when her picture was passed around Rice. The only clue given was that she is a senior. Jamie Wesselski had this girl's identity confused as he guessed Sher Sunderman. Vicki Drik and Chad Sunderman put their efforts together and guessed Becky Faichtinger, while Kevin Williams thought she was Tammie Hinze. Sher Sunderman, Tom Gold, Wade Satsky, Kori Klein, Dustin Hengst and Shane Glaizer all knew this little cutie was Laraina Pence. Laraina is a member of the Mighty Raider Band and she is also an active member of FFA and the senior class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pence of Sheridan.

Student Pride Award winner
By TRICIA THOMAS
The Student Pride award this week went to Freshman, Mandy Priesmeyer. Mandy is a member of the Mighty Raider Band and also FFA. She is a newcomer to Rice and enjoys school especially for the opportunity to see her friends. She stated that she was "proud, happy, and honored" to receive this award.
When asked to state her favorite class, she stated, "I like all of my classes. Some are better than others, but I don't really have a favorite." When asked who her favorite teacher was she replied, "I don't really have a favorite teacher. Most of them are good teachers and are nice. I like them all." as you can clearly see, it takes a good and positive attitude to receive the Student Pride Award and Mandy has clearly shown us hers, congratulations on a job well-done!
Mandy is the daughter of Ronald and Marsha Priesmeyer of Garwood.

Rice wins medals at Boling meet

One of the best ways to size up your team for district competition is to attend a practice meet. Eight students and sponsors attended the Boling JETS tournament on Saturday, February 2. Rice won 3 medals and accumulated enough points to place fourth out of eight schools attending.
Winning first place was Rebecca Sosa in Spelling. Second place in Spelling went to Becky Korenek. Heather Abel won third place in Number Sense. The top three places earned medals.
Fourth place winners were Josh Grahmann in Spelling and Noble Anderson in Accounting. Chris Burrow placed 5th in Numbers Sense. Both Heather Abel and Noble Anderson tied for 7th place in Literary Criticism. Placing 9th was Emily Galvan in Keyboarding. In Science, Hector Tapia placed 11th. Emily Galvan also participated in Calculator.
Louise accumulated the most points to win the sweepstakes trophy. Needville placed second, Stafford, third and Rice, fourth.
Accompanying the students to Boling was sponsor Lillian Gohlke.

Celebrity at RHS

By MANDY LUEVANO
Rice High School students were fortunate to have David Elron, professional stuntman/actor on campus. He has starred in over 200 movies and television programs such as Telling Lies, Action Jackson, McGuyver, The A Team and Mike Hammer. Betty Ann Davis, Rice CISD's drug awareness counselor invited David, her brother-in-law, to be a guest speaker at the RHS support group meeting. He brought a positive message of hope. "Life has wonderful options," David stated. "Keep striving and have some faith. Everyone has trials and tribulations but what matters is what you make of the situation and how you come out. Pray for help, grow from experience, but most of all, learn from your mistakes."
Dave, currently living in Fulshear, is recuperating from a minor injury, but is ready to hit the stage again soon!

Class of '91's 'Most' and 'Best'

Anessa Williams
Darryl Anderson
By BECKY FAICHTINGER
EXTRA! EXTRA! Read all about it. The results of the Class of '91s "Most" and "Best" list is finally here. During the week of January 21, the Rice faculty was asked to choose students from the Senior class for the "Best" and "Most" categories.
The most prestigious honor of the year was the selection of Mr. and Miss RHS. This achievement went out to Seniors Darryl Anderson and Anessa Williams. Darryl and Anessa were also chosen as the Seniors "Most Likely to Succeed".
Jamie Wesselski and Tricia Thomas were named "Most Handsome and Most Beautiful", while Rodney Sosa and Sher Sunderman were named "Best Groomed".
Given the title "Most Dependable" were Noble Anderson and Natalie Cordova. The "Most Active in School" title went to Wade Satsky and Heather Abel. On the lighter side, Kevin Williams and Rita Kaye Rhodes were chosen as the "Friendliest" Seniors. The "Wittiest" title was given to Jose Gonzales and Patricia Johnson.

These titles give the Class of '91 Senior an extra pick-me-up towards that glorious day of GRADUATION!
