

Royka, Christenberry united in double ring ceremony

Andrea Marie Royka and Dr. Kyle Parke Christenberry were united in marriage at 6 p.m., February 2 at St. Bernard Catholic Church in Akron, Ohio. The Rev. Peter Coletti performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Royka of Akron, Ohio. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James Parke Christenberry of Garwood.

Two spiral 15-branch candelabra illuminated the altar. The pews were illuminated by candles in hurricane globes tied with white ribbon and greenery. A candle burning on the altar symbolized prayers for the safe return of the bride's cousin and all the other servicemen and women from the Persian Gulf.

James Kintz, organist, played "March in D", "Trumpet Voluntary" and "Hompie from Water Music" as the processional and recessional. Noleen Synder and Dana Boehm sang "Sunrise, Sunset", "A Love Until the End of Time", "Ave Maria", "Wedding Song", "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Prayer of St. Francis".

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a full-length sheath gown of white Alencon lace studded with iridescent sequins. It was styled with a sweetheart neckline, double puffs on the shoulders, long sleeves and two rows of cascading pearls on the fitted bodice. A full chapel-length train of water tulle, trimmed with lace, pearls and sequins completed the design. She wore a t-length veil held by a sequin and pearl headband with a pouf. Her bouquet was a cascade of long-stemmed red roses accented with greenery and white ribbon.

Valerie Murphy and Jill Royka-Kline of Akron, Ohio, attended their sister as matrons of honor. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Nicholas of Indianapolis, Ind.; Sophia Xides and Heidi

Cooke of Cleveland, Ohio; Avery Moser of Columbia, S.C.; Karyn Koury of St. Louis, Mo. and Kathy Gross of Galveston.

The bridal attendants were groomed alike in full-length sheath-style velvet gowns with long sleeves worn off the shoulder. There were two in each of the following colors: ruby red, sapphire blue, amethyst purple and emerald green. The honor attendants carried three long-stemmed white roses accented with tulle, greenery and white lace ribbons. The bridesmaids carried matching single roses.

Natalia Webb and Kelsie Burrier were the flower girls. John and Denny Murphy were the ring bearers.

Serving as best men were the groom's father and Carl Webb of Houston. Groomsmen were Dr. Layne Crowe and Dr. Martin Milliken of Galveston, Dr. Ted Krum and Dr. Dana Boehm of Houston, Dr. Mark Hancock of Dallas and Dr. Jeffrey Bleich of Los Angeles, California.

Stephanie Bakker of Boston, Mass. was the reader and Lana Lessem of Boston was a bridesmaid. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at The Tangier Restaurant in Akron.

The bride received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Akron, Ohio in 1986 and was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. She is now employed as the Director of Child Life Therapy at Shriners Burns Institute in Galveston.

The groom received a bachelor of science degree from Sam Houston State University in 1978 and a medical degree from Southwestern Medical School in Dallas in 1987. He is a member of several honor fraternities and is now a fourth year resident in obstetrics/gynecology at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

After a snow skiing honeymoon in Crested Butte, Colorado, the newlyweds will reside in Bayou Vista.

A rehearsal dinner honoring the couple was held Friday evening at the Akron Woman's City Club. After dinner, the bride and groom presented gifts to the members of the wedding party and also to their mothers and the groom's grandmother. The couple was surprised with a personal letter of congratulations from the mayor of Akron.

The drama Agnes and Old Lace is scheduled for the evenings of March 16 and 17. The price of regular tickets is $4.50; reserved seat tickets are $6.50. Remember, the auditorium is air-conditioned now so everyone can expect to be comfortable regardless of the weather. The final night of the play will be the last time to buy the $10.00 passes that will give you the privilege of attending many activities more than once for the one-time purchase of a ticket.

The Thrift Shop will be open this Saturday from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. If you have workable household appliances that you no longer need, the shop will gladly receive them. These can include T.V.'s and furniture such as tables and chairs. Sheets and bedspreads are also popular sale items.

To add to our poster collection is one to the museum by PFC Christina Ruiz, stationed in Saudi Arabia. She wrote that her friend Pat Seaholm asked her to send the card which pictures a rug market in Saudi Arabia.

In our museum brochure under the title "March Birds" is the following information: "Colorful waders and colonial nesting herons and egrets." Under the title "Wintering Waterfowl" is the following information: "Flocks of geese and ducks adorn the landscape, attracting both hunter and bird-watcher."

The museum is open from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Call Bill Harrison if you would like to arrange for a special tour. Again I want to urge teachers to schedule times to bring their students for visits.

Think of the words of this anonymous quotation: "Pity stops and stares; Love stoops and shares."

Theodore Schultz, chairman of the Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District sponsored coloring, poster and essay contest, has announced that some of the posters and coloring entries from the contest held recently will be on display beginning Thursday, February 14.

For the first time this year, posters and coloring entries will be on display in Studio A of the Live Oak Art Center in Columbus. Members of the Art Center invite all of the public to view the entries of our conservation minded young artists from the Columbus schools. The Art Center is open Tuesdays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

Posters and coloring entries will again be on display at Coastal Bank, First State Bank of Columbus, Columbus State Bank, and Fayette Savings in Columbus.

The Oak and Acorn of Sheridan will display entries from the Sheridan School. This is the first time the entries will be displayed in the Sheridan area.

District winners in the Coloring contest were: Kindergarten, Jennifer Houshelt, Garwood School; first grade, Almee Krause, St. Michael, Weimar; second grade, David Fisher, Eagle Lake Primary School; third grade, Ann Stavino, St. Anthony, Columbus.

Elementary Poster contests winners were: first place, Maria Hernandez, Sheridan School; second, Jonathan Hrazek, Eagle Lake Middle School; third, Amy Wagner, St. Anthony, Columbus; fourth place, Michael Brown, Sheridan School.

Essay winners in the Elementary division were: first place, Melissa Harbich, Columbus Elementary; second, Sarah Summers, Weimar Elementary; third, Ryan Till, St. Mary's, Nada; fourth, Elizabeth Schlorff, Columbus Elementary School.

Junior High School Essay winners were: first place, Maria Hernandez, St. Michael, Weimar; second, Wesley Leopold, St. Mary's, Nada; third, Kalli Shaller, St. Michael, Weimar; fourth, Lisa Miller, Columbus Junior High School.

Schultz announced that the total number of entries in all categories totaled 1922. This is an increase of approximately 600 entries over last year. The largest increase was in the coloring contest with 1174 entries. Poster entries were 559 and essay entries numbered 189.

As chairman, Schultz expressed his appreciation to all the teachers, students, parents and anyone else who encouraged the students' participation in the contests. The content of the entries indicated students are interested in the conservation of our natural resources.
