

9-1-1 Interlocal Agreement completed

The Colorado County 9-1-1 Implementation Committee met recently at the Columbus Fire Station to sign the final copy of the interlocal agreement between the county and its three major cities. The agreement provides the outline for the implementation of the 9-1-1 emergency telephone system in Colorado County. The system will be in working order in approximately two years. Pictured at the signing of the agreement are: seated from left, Eagle Lake City Secretary Sylvia Rucka and Eagle Lake Mayor Roy Van Nort; standing, Colorado County Judge H.O. "Butch" Strunk, Colorado County Clerk Darlene Hayek, Columbus City Secretary Earline Drumm and Columbus Mayor Richard Heffley. Not pictured are officials from Weimar.

Banner Press Photo by Rhonda Latimore

Wintermann Library extending hours for students

The Eula and David Wintermann Library will extend its hours during the months of March, April and May in order to give students extra time to use the library for research. Beginning March 7, the library will remain open on Thursday nights until 8 p.m. If it has been some time since you used your library, come in and check out the news. The library now has videos, entertainment videos and educational videos.

The library is busy preparing for our Summer Reading Program. If you have any suggestions for programs, please contact us. The program will be in June and July; story hour every Wednesday and movies every Thursday.

The library hours during March, April and May will be: Monday through Wednesday, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.; and Saturday, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Prairie Edge Players hard at work

The Prairie Edge Players are hard at work preparing for their upcoming production of Arctic and Old by Joseph Kesselring. Play dates are set for March 15 and 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the newly remodeled Prairie Edge Museum in Eagle Lake. Tickets ($4.50 each) are currently on sale at Gifts of Distinction, Heights of Texas, First National Bank, Laker Printing and Eagle Lake Drug Store. A few reserved seat tickets are still available ($6.50 each) but are going fast! Call Jeanne Leopold at 234-3373 for tickets and information.

Dr. Raymond Thomas, director and Helen Craig, producer, are proud to welcome some new as well as familiar faces to their ensemble this year. The cast includes a talented group of people from various jobs and interests who find a common delight in acting.

Vicki Powers will make her fifth appearance on the Prairie Edge stage as Abby Brewster. Vicki is an active member of Eagle Lake's First Baptist Church where she has performed in several musical productions. A mother of three, Vicki is a partner/owner of T's Etc. and Cambios, and is the current president of the Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce. In her spare time, Vicki enjoys golf, swimming, crafts, needle work and just spending time with her children.

Donna Stephens will make her fourth appearance on the Prairie Edge stage as Elaine Harper. Throughout her high school years, Donna enjoyed performing in many school productions. A secretary at the First National Bank of Eagle Lake, Donna also serves as treasurer of ELMS PTO, president of the fire department's ladies auxiliary and is active in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church's Knights of Columbus. A mother of two, Donna's hobbies include running, walking and just being with her family.

Pat Mascheck will make his debut on the Prairie Edge stage as Mortimer Brewster. Pat's acting credits include several childhood appearances of elementary school plays in Eagle Lake. Those former roles instilled in Pat a love of theater that has endured throughout the years. When Pat isn't busy working with his father at Mascheck's Chevron, he can often be found attending productions at Houston's Alley Theater and Theater Under the Stars. He also serves as secretary of the Lion's Club and is an active member of the Knights of Columbus. In his spare time, Pat enjoys sports and spending time with his girlfriend.

Marsha and Ronnie Priestmeyer of Garwood both are lending their talents to this year's production. Marsha will make her third stage appearance as Martha Brewster, while Ronnie will make his debut on our stage as Teddy Brewster taking a break from his usual backstage duties as assistant stage manager. Marsha teaches at St. Mary's School in Nada and Ronnie manages the Garwood Rice Dryer. Together they're raising two children and are active members of the Garwood Methodist Church. In their spare time, Ronnie enjoys carpentry as a hobby and Marsha can be found reading mystery novels.

Jeff Frnka is back after a year's absence from the stage as Mr. Witherspoon. Jeff is the owner of Laker Printing and is a rural carrier for the Eagle Lake Post Office. An eligible bachelor with no time to look, Jeff's off time passion is sports... of all kind.

Tom Reed is also back after a year's absence making his fourth appearance as Officer O'Hara. Tom is in the automotive business with his father at Lake Motors. An active member of Eagle Lake's civic community, Tom is an elder of the First Presbyterian Church, an active Lions Club member, chairman of the Colorado County Economic Development Organization and a director of the Gulf Coast Private Industry Council.

Vic Scott returns for a fourth stage appearance as Dr. Einstein. The retired director of Special Education for Colorado County, Vic's past acting experience includes several performances in melodramas done years ago by the Eagle Lake Quarterback Club. An active member of the United Methodist Church, Vic has two married daughters, five grandchildren and one soon to be married son. When Vic and his lovely wife are not traveling, he can be found hunting, fishing or helping out at the museum.

Louis Schortlemer will make his third on-stage appearance as the Rev. Dr. Harper. Louis has been active with the Prairie Edge Players since its conception working in any area requiring his talents. During his college years he did a lot of backstage work, and in more recent past years, appeared in local Lions Club stage productions. Louis is the father of three grown sons, has one grandchild and one on the way. Louis has been a strong civic worker in our community for many years and is currently serving in Lions Club, Wildflower Celebration and of course, the Prairie Edge Museum. His hobbies include hunting, fishing and golf.

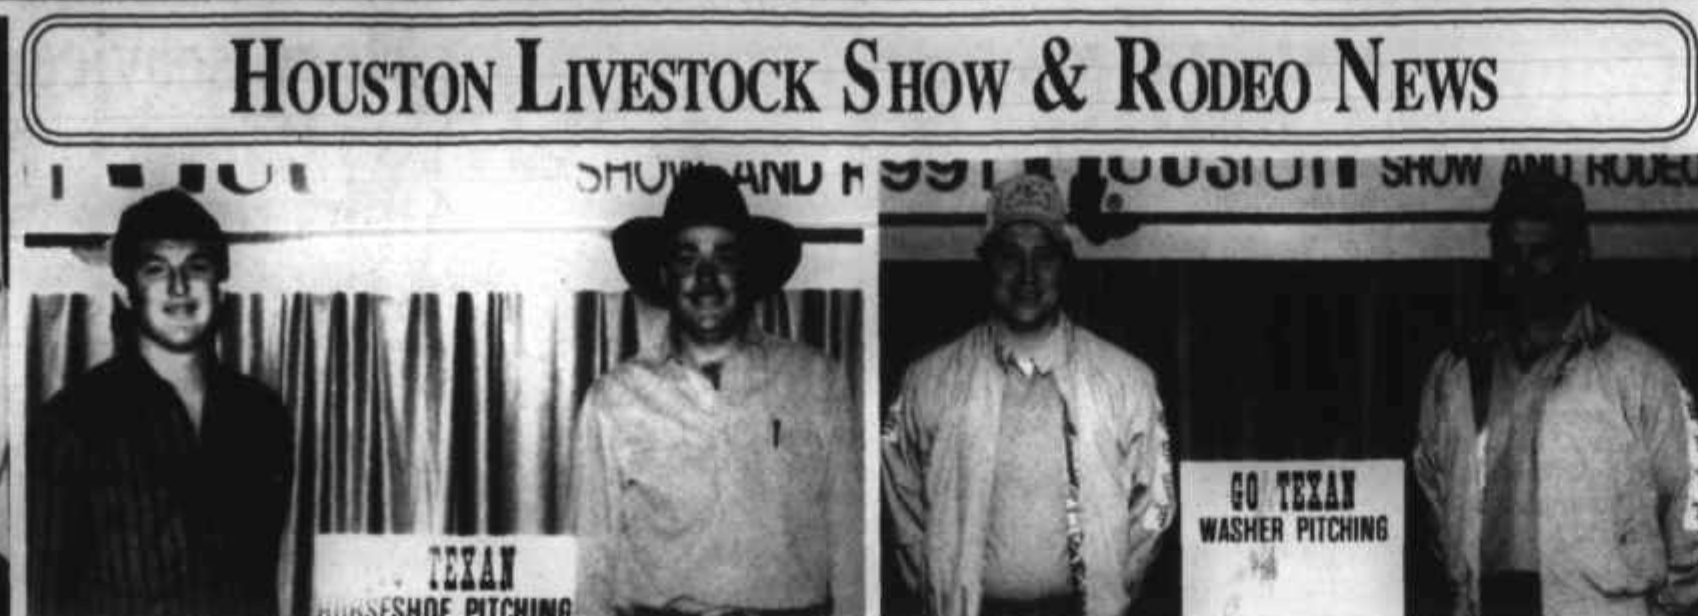

Clark Powers will return after a two year absence as Officer Brophy. Clark acted in UIL during his high school years, but more recently enjoyed appearing in productions for the Prairie Edge Players. Arctic and Old will mark his third appearance. Clark is active at the First Baptist Church as a deacon, Sunday school teacher and choir director. He also serves on the Colorado County Appraisal District board, a director of the Eagle Lake Rice Dryer and is active in the local scouts with his son. Owner of CP Farms, Clark enjoys filling his off hours with his wife, Vicki and their children. His hobbies include fishing and snow skiing when he can.

Ralph Truly is another cast member who will be making his debut on the Prairie Edge stage. For the past 16 years, Ralph has called Eagle Lake home where he operates Truly Properties along with daughter, Sandy Bandy. He is an active member of the United Methodist Church where he faithfully served on many committees including the board of trustees of the Victoria United Methodist District for the past six years. He also has been active in many local civic organizations including the Chamber of Commerce, VFW, American Legion and Lions Club. When asked if he had any prior acting experience, Ralph acknowledged that he was reminded at his 52nd high school reunion in Hubbard, Texas that he had starred in the title role Elmer during the school's county-wide drama competition. The year was 1938 and a 17 year old Ralph walked away with the "best actor" award. Ralph asks we remember that it has been awhile, so local critics... be kind. As for hobbies, in younger years, he liked racing motorcycles. Nowadays, he's satisfied being an armchair participant during racing broadcasts.

Mike Marland returns for a second appearance on the Prairie Edge stage as Officer Klein. Mike never took much interest in drama during his school years but since becoming involved with the Prairie Edge Players he has a new found respect for the arts. Though it takes much time and effort he fully enjoys our local endeavors. A second year independent equipment sales broker, Mike is partner in a new farm equipment dealership that will open March 1st in Rosenberg. In his spare time, he enjoys traveling and just spending time with his wife and three children.

Glen Sunderman will make his fourth appearance on the Prairie Edge stage as Jonathan Brewster. Though Glen had no former experience, he has really enjoyed his involvement with the Prairie Edge Players. Glen is a local rice farmer and for the past several years has coached with the Eagle Lake Little League Association. Members of the United Methodist Church, Glen and his wife Stephanie enjoy spending time with their son Coy, hunting and golf.

Jim Wieser returns to the Prairie Edge stage for his fourth appearance as Lieutenant Rooney. A local rice farmer, Jim is an active member of the

Pesnell, Drik compete in horseshoe pitching, men's division

Keith Pesnell, (left), and Anthony Drik, (right), represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. They participated in the Men's Horseshoe Pitching contest that was held Saturday, February 16.

Sanders, Williamson compete in horseshoe pitching

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was close enough for the judges to measure in order to determine the winner. Congratulations, boys! You did a good job.

Eric Sanders, (left), and Keith Williamson, (right), of Sheridan, represented Colorado County in the Go Texan events at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo by participating in the horseshoe pitching contest held Saturday, February 16. The boys lost 19-20 on the last pitch which was