CLUB/ORGANIZATION NEWS

Alpha Delta announces 1991-92 officers

On Monday, May 6, Alpha Delta Phi met in the home of Janice Obenhaus for their regular meeting. Following the opening ritual, installation of officers was held for 1991-92. The following slate was installed: Mary Kay Cook, President; Robin Thomas, Vice-President; Jennifer Obenhaus, Recording Secretary; Vicki Powers, Corresponding Secretary; Jeri Lou Shindler, Treasurer; and Sheila Mathis, Extension Officer.

The sorority voted on the state project they wanted to see supported this year with their donation. The project chosen was the Children's Dialysis Unit at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston.

Service Chairperson Robin Thomas passed the tray favor made for the hospital for the month of April.

It was reported the next meeting would be in Debbie Christ's home

Garden Club announces new officers

The Civic Garden Club of Eagle Lake held its Spring membership social in the lovely home of Mrs. Cherry Corman on May 6th at noon.

A delicious luncheon of chicken salad, lemon Jello salad, lemon muffins and cake was served to club members and guests Eunice Fmka, Doris Clipson, Elaine Hess, Virginia Reed, Lucy Morris and Hazel Thompson.

Outgoing President Sandy Thompson gave a short report on the wildflower celebration and thanked all those who contributed their time and talent to making this year's booth a success.

Prior to the business meeting, Vicki Powers gave a report on "Celebrating Wildflowers" since it was still wildflower season.

The meeting came to an end by Ann Braden surprising members of the sorority by passing a box of candy signifying her expectancy of a new family member.

Columbus FFA News

Last week the Columbus FFA held the annual Parent/Member Banquet. The banquet was held at the Columbus KC Hall and nearly 375 guests attended.

Chapter officers opened the banquet with the Official Opening Ceremonies and immediately following this the Greenhand officers presented the flags. The meal was then served by Mike's BBQ of Columbus.

Chris Parks and Kevin Ruether recognized the guests immediately following the meal. Chapter officers then held the Honorary Chapter Degree Ceremony. Al and Fausta Kaiser received this award for their exceptional service to the FFA Chapter. Jim Swindall and Al Kaiser, FFA Alumni members, presented the Outstanding Leadership Award Plaques to Gae Jones, Kim Kaiser, Tammy Hauerland, Amy Swindall, Stephen Laake, Bradi Jones and JoAnna Hoffman.

Community Service Awards were given out by Kim Kaiser. To receive this award a member had to work over 20 hours on the chapters community service program. Adolph Kansteiner, Tina Heffernan, Christy Kotila, Bradley Stancik and Laake were presented these awards.

Achievement Awards were presented by Laake and Gae Jones. These awards are given to members who have exhibited excellence in certain areas. The following members received these awards: Charles Potter, Animal Production; Curt Hahn, Home Gardens, Home Improvement, Animal Production and Soil and Water Management; Tracy Kent, Plans for Ranching; Clinton Hegemeyer, Home Gardens and Animal Production; Heffernan, Plans for Ranching; Douglas Wuenche, Animal Production; Kevin Little, Soil and Water Conservation, Plans for Ranching and Animal Production; Laake, Home Improvement, Home Gardens and Animal Production; Stancik, Plans for Ranching, Home Gardens and Animal Production; Amy Swindall, Animal Production and Plans for Ranching; Chris Kotila, Animal Production and Plans for Ranching; Christy Kotila, Animal Production and Plans for Ranching.

Al Kaiser and Jim Swindall presented the Scholarship Pins to 10 members. These members were the high school honor roll for four of the five 6-weeks: Chad Hahn, Hauerland, G. Jones, Kim Kaiser, Alan George, Bruce Heintschel, Kent, B. Jones, Chris Holmes and Eric Dvorak.

Hauerland presented the following members proficiency award pins and certificates: James Janik, Agricultural Sales and Service, (James also won a pair of boots for being the high point salesman); Kent, Beef Production and Extemporaneous Public Speaking, (Travis also placed 2nd in District); JoAnna Hoffman, Diversified Livestock Production and Specialty Animal Production, (JoAnna placed 2nd in District in Specialty Animals); Laake, Poultry Production, (Stephen won 1st in District); Kim Kaiser, Sheep Production; Hegemeyer, Swine Production and Vegetable Production, (Clinton placed 1st in District in Swine and 2nd in Vegetables); Hahn, Home Improvement, (Curt placed 2nd in District); Little, Soil and Water Conservation; Kevin Ruether, Agricultural Mechanics and Dvorak, Forestry Management, (Eric won 1st in District and also 1st in Area. His application will compete at the State Contest later this month).

The Wildlife Management Team placed 4th in State at the Texas A&M Contests. Receiving awards for their outstanding performance were Jason Labay, Verli Cash and Chris Condon. A plaque was presented to the chapter for display in the Ag. Department with these members' names.

Also receiving a plaque for display were the Applied Ag. Science and Technology Team, consisting of Kent, John Heffley and Dvorak. This team placed 8th at State competition. The introduction to Ag. Science Team placed 10th. This team received a chapter plaque and consisted of Jones, Hahn and Potter.

The Computer Applications Team displayed the banner they won for placing 4th at the competition. Laake, Hegemeyer and George were on the team. Stephen was the 4th high point individual at the contest.

The Quiz Team was recognized for their 2nd place District and 12th in Area placings. George, Bruce Heintschel, David Holcom and Holmes were members of this team.

The winner of the "Big Buck" Contest, sponsored by the chapter during deer season was Verli Cash with his 9 point buck.

The Star Awards were given by Amy Swindall, Little, Jones and Hahn. The Chapter Star Greenhand Award was won by Jones, the Star Chapter Member by Laake, The Star Agribusinessman by Hoffman and The Star State Member by Jones.

The chapter would like to thank everyone for their wonderful support during the past year. We hope to hear that support during the next year. If your organization would like to have a speaker or a presentation given, please contact the high school ag. department.

"One last reminder that the annual Cheetham Cemetery Association dinner and meeting is Sunday, June 2nd at the Community Center. Service will begin at 11 o'clock. Tickets are available now from team Brisco, Albert Botard, Daryl Hinz, David Fuller, Velma Kutzer and Omi Kincheloe. Prices are $4.50 for adults and $3.50 for children.

"Rev. and Mrs. Brent Pittman and children spent part of the past weekend in Brownsville.

"Some cleaning has been done on the local swimming pool and repairs to the roof should begin soon. Leaty Heintold, manager of the pool, hopes to have it open early in June.

"The Little League Organization will hold a car wash and bake sale Saturday, June 1 from 8:30 until 4:30 at the Fire Hall. Anyone interested in donating cakes or cookies can have the items at the hall early Saturday. The organization is presently cleaning the property north of the highway, which they have acquired. And also are in the process of purchasing the adjoining railroad property. With this addition of ground, there will be enough area in which to have two official size baseball fields. A field committee made up of Bill Gohlke, Jim Brisco, Leaty Heintold, Cindy Gohlke, Tommy Garza, Daryl Hinz and Derrick Alleyway are working hard to get the field ready for next year. But the entire community support is needed and you can do that Saturday. Cash donations will also be accepted.

"The Pre-school Reading Program that is held every Tuesday at 10 o'clock generally ends with the close of the school year, but not this year. Pre-Schoolers three years old and older are invited to participate in the summer reading program "Camp Wanna Read". They will continue to meet at the library at 10 each Tuesday and they will begin their summer program Tuesday, June 4th. The title is "Read to Me".

"Congratulations are extended to John Williamson of Rock Island and Anthony Halthamer of Brenham. These two boys won the Texas State Championship Men's Class A Doubles horseshoe pitching contest held in Bastrop last Saturday, May 25th.
