Gymnasts awarded at 'End of Year' presentation

The Eagle Lake Gymnastics Academy hosted their end of the year program on May 29 at 6:30 p.m. at the Gymnastics Center.

The festivities included performances from all gymnasts currently enrolled in classes. The classes are made up of first, second and third year members. The performances included an exhibition on the following events: floor exercise, asymmetrical bars, balance beam, vault and rings. Making a guest appearance were the Eagle Lake Jr. Jazz dancers, performing their National Qualifying Pom Pom Routine.

Attending the program were special guests: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Craft of Gainesville, Georgia, parents of owner and instructor Glenda Blair; parents and grandparents of all the gymnasts and dancers and members of the community also were in attendance.

The audience was a complimentary 80 seated and many "understanding" standing viewers. Glenda presented a warm greeting to all the parents and guests and the exhibition proceeded on to a two hour "overwhelming display of talent." Concluding the show awards were given to "Most Improved Gymnasts".

Receiving awards were all first, second and third year members.

Following the individual awards, special awards were given to Adriana Nunez, Rachel Valigura, Erik Wesemann, Beth Lipperdt, Coy Sunderman, Lori Grigar, Heather Henske, Barrett Thomas, all of Eagle Lake; Jaylyn Kovar of East Bernard, Stacy Schneider of Garwood and a Congeniality Award was presented by Glenda to Stephanie Braden for all her "extra" hard work in helping to keep the gymnastics center clean and in presentable fashion. Stephanie Blushed. Thank you, Stephanie!

And a very special thank you to all the parents, grandparents and all who attended our first gymnastics "End of the Year" presentation.

We will also be beginning our summer session on July 1 and running seven weeks into August. The summer camp and the summer session work in conjunction to prepare students for our 1991-92 gymnastics year. (No obligations). The summer session dates are July 1, 8, 15, 22, 29.

Trulys initiated into new neighborhood

Residents of Laughlin Addition welcomed their newest neighbors, Ralph and Estrella Trully, with a housewarming Thursday evening, June 13.

Inez Thomas, Avis Laughlin and Dorothy Cassidy planned the event and Walter Lee Bauer acted as master of ceremonies.

Following a Champagne toast and light buffet meal, Mr. Bauer officially initiated the Trulys into the neighborhood with stories about the history and habits of the residents of the area. Other members added lost bits of history and anecdotes covering nearly fifty years from the first house in the area built by Adolph and Tyra Feik about 1942 to the Trully home just completed.

The residents then presented the

Cookers

The barbecue and chili cook-offs attracted a good crowd at the Rice Festival. The smart cooks who kept their coals dry produced some terrific smelling odors that covered the festival area and tempted the taste buds.

In the barbecued chicken division winners were: 1st place, Country Guzzlers, Kenny Wisheit; 2nd, Weekend Cookers, Robert Woolard; 3rd, Country Cookers, Lonnie Labay. The beef division winners were: 1st, Kubis' Cookers, Clement Rubicek; 2nd, Nuts and Bolts, Oscar Tesch; 3rd, Dettling Burnout, Manuel Rodriguez. Showmanship trophy was won by Country Cookers captained by Lonnie Labay.

In the chili cook-off Sharon Sharp of Houston won first. Kathleen Schmidt of League City took second and Chris Diebert, Port Lavaca, third.

Rohm and Haas Chemical Co. sponsored the barbecue cook-off and Budweiser sponsored the chili.

Festival

Whew, another Rice Festival is behind us! Rainy weather Saturday morning caused more than a few anxious moments, but later in the day blue skies and high temperatures brought some welcome relief. All the day's events went off well, giving everyone a chance to enjoy themselves. The months of planning by Community Association President Robert Abell and committee chairman paid off in a great day.

A day like this is important to our little town. It gives our organizations a chance to raise funds for worthy causes. It becomes a sort of homecoming for people who live elsewhere now. But most importantly, it's a chance for us all to work together for a common reason. The benefits of cooperation and the lessons we can learn from it are priceless. By pulling together, we accomplish much more than we ever could separately.

Keep up the good work friends, and give yourselves a pat on the back. You deserve it.

Rice Dish Contest

The Garwood Community Association owes a special debt of gratitude to all the people who contributed to the success of the Rice Dish Contest. Chairman Betsy Miller and her fellow members in the Nada/Garwood Extension Homemakers put on a splendid event.

Sponsors who supported the contest were: Rice Council, American Rice Growers, Garrett Farms, Texas Rice Marketing, F&W Food Store, Texana Seed and Karen and Johnny Popp. The support of these generous businesses and individuals were vital to the contest's success.

Judges play an important role in any such contest, and sometimes finding people to participate is difficult. We would like to acknowledge those kind folks who helped out by being judges — Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Thomas, Chief Eugene Barabe and Chef John Denton, Jacko and Nancy Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Labay and Harvey T of KIKK.

Thanks for taking time from your busy schedules to help our cause.

Here is a list of the winners in the various categories:

Carpenter honored with tea shower

Kristine Carpenter, bride-elect of Brian Naiser, was honored with a tea shower on Saturday, June 8 at the home of Mrs. Dale Hunt in Garwood.

The honoree and special guests were pinned with white cushion mums tied with peach ribbon.

Guests were received by Mrs. Hunt, Kristine and her mother, Mrs. William Carpenter, and Mrs. Donald Naiser of El Campo, mother of the groom.

The registry table was decorated with a picture of the engaged couple, a peach plumed pen and a bouquet of flowers gathered from the home of Kristine's Great Aunt, the late Vera Shoop.

The refreshment table was set with an ecru lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of silk peach tulips. Flanking the arrangement were a pair of crystal candleholders with ivory candles.

Other special guests were Mrs. Louis Miller of Garwood and Mrs. John Carpenter of Comanche. Kristine's grandmothers, Mrs. Charlene Carpenter of Comanche, Mrs. Bobby Heathington of Arlington, her aunts and Mrs. Julia Kutch of Rock Island, Brian's grandmother.

Hostesses gave the honoree a vegetable bowl of her chosen pottery. Janish, Mrs. J.P. Krenke, Mrs. Del Labay, Mrs. Paul Lehrer, Mrs. John Boenisch, Mrs. James T. Danklefs, Mrs. Margaret Bunge, Mrs. Carol Joy Dromgoole, Mrs. Joe Hinze, Mrs. Dale Hunt, Mrs. Jerry Mark Wied.
