Garwood 'Yard of the Month'

The Garwood Community Association Beautification Committee has selected the yard of Danette and Philip Huvor for June's Yard of the Month. Their home is relatively new in Garwood and Danette has worked hard each year planting many beautiful blooming plants. The yard is always kept mowed and trimmed. She has petunias and periwinkles blooming profusely around the house and purslane, verbenas and hibiscus in a large bed in the center of the yard. The Huvor's yard has contributed a neat, bright and cheery corner to downtown Garwood.

The Beautification Committee would also like to acknowledge the efforts and contributions of two businesses in Garwood. The Circle W Drive-in Grocery owned by Pat Wishart and Kallina Oil Company owned by Alice and Jodie Kallina. This year Pat has planted beds of gladiolas, lantana, marigolds and roses at her business on Hwy 71. At the Kallina Oil Co. on FM 950, Alice has planted petunias and periwinkles blooming profusely around the house and purslane, verbenas and hibiscus in a large bed in the center of the yard. The Huvor's yard has contributed a neat, bright and cheery corner to downtown Garwood.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
AUGUST 10, 1991

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT
Senate Joint Resolution 42 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the newly created county education districts to hold elections to exempt from ad valorem taxation a percentage of the market value of the residence homestead of a married or unmarried adult. The percentage exempted could not exceed 20% of such market value, and the amount exempted could not be less than $5,000. The amendment would also authorize county education districts to hold elections to exempt from ad valorem taxation not less than $3,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of a disabled person or a person sixty-five years of age or older. Finally, the amendment would authorize elections in county education districts for the taxation of certain tangible personal property exempted from ad valorem taxation by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:
"The constitutional amendment to allow the voters of a county education district to adopt certain exemptions from the district's ad valorem taxation for residence homesteads and to provide for the taxation of certain tangible personal property."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT
Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $300 million of general obligation bonds to finance educational loans to students. The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:
"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide educational loans to students."

Estos son los informes explicatorios sobre las enmiendas propuestas a la constitución que aparecerán en la boleta el 10 de agosto de 1991. Special guests at OLPH's Annual Picnic will be Carl Geisler of KULM Radio and Harvey T. of KIKK Radio (pictured above). Harvey Thompson's activities speak the very philosophy that catapulted KIKK to top ranking Houston radio station and made that position a constant fact. KIKK's roving and goodwill ambassador is as valuable to the stations as in this philosophy that in order to maintain its status it has to stretch in all directions and be involved in every phase of community activities. An accomplished musician, entertainer, master of ceremonies, public speaker and air personality, Thompson takes the call letters from county fairs to church bazaars, battleships to jumbo cockoffs, rest homes to rodeos, parades to parties. The KIKK Van is a well-travelled and well-known part of most any event or celebration and Harvey T. has become one of the station's best-known personalities.

OLPH Annual Picnic this Sunday

The Janda children, Lucas, Jeremy and Lara Beth, have been playing together for three years at fairs, jamborees, the River Walk in San Antonio and Sea World of Texas.

Gary and Connie Janda joined these children in their musical career and are performing as "The Janda Family". They have performed for anniversaries and local festivities for the past year and a half.

The Janda family of La Grange will be performing at the "Old Fashioned Country Jamboree" in Eagle Lake at the KC Hall on June 21 beginning at 7:30 p.m. Pictured, from the back left are Gary, bass guitar; Connie, keyboard and mandolin; Lucas, guitar; Jeremy, fiddle and drums and Lara Beth, keyboard and vocals.

Parishioners of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Eagle Lake and their pastor, the Rev. Jesse Euriat, invite one and all to their Annual Picnic which will be held this Sunday (June 23) at the new Knights of Columbus Hall at the intersection of Highway 90A East and FM 3013.

A pre-picnic Old Fashioned Country Music Festival will be held in the KC Hall at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 21 to set the mood for the annual picnic. A feature of this event will be an Old-Fashioned Dress Up Contest. Master of Ceremonies will be Bill Appelt and he will be assisted by Harvey T. of KIKK Radio. Nearly 20 performers have been signed to provide good family entertainment, live on stage. Call 234-2842 or 234-2903 for tickets or buy them at the door for $4 for adults, $2 for children 6-12 and those under six will be admitted free.

Entries are being accepted for a horseshoe pitching tournament to be held under direction of Pinto Broschke; and for a volleyball tournament to be directed by Mrs. Edward Sunderman. There will be divisions for men and women and mixed play. Contact the chairmen for details on these events or call the OLPH church office at 234-2842.

A delicious BBQ beef and sausage dinner will be served from 11-1:30 p.m. with dining in the spacious air-conditioned hall or plates to go. Adult plates will be $4.50; children's plates $3. (Adult plates only in the to go line.) The menu will include BBQ, rice salad (no potatoes), green beans, pickles, onions and bread in generous amounts. Cold drinks of all kinds will be sold as well as delicious baked items. You can buy bulk BBQ meat beginning at 11 a.m. and BBQ sandwiches during the afternoon.

Booths such as a country store, plant sale, cake walk, stuffed animal walk, video games and more will be in operation for your entertainment beginning at 11 a.m.

A big auction will begin at 1:30 p.m. with hundreds of items from home-grown vegetables to hand-made items going on the auction block. The El Campo Christian Square Dancers and Eagle Lake Gymnastic students will perform at 4:30 p.m. followed by the awarding of 29 valuable prizes to conclude the event. Tickets are available for the drawing at $1 each or 6 for $5 and may be purchased from any parishioner or at the picnic. You do not have to be present to win. It will be lots of fun and fellowship for the entire family, remind members of the church. "So bring the family and come to our picnic."

Mrs. Marshall was selected as the 1991 Queen of Parkview Manor Home in Weimar, Texas on Saturday, June 8. The theme was "Remember Nostalgic Musical Treasures" and the entrance, dining room and recreation room carried out the theme with pink and black decorations and various nostalgic musical treasures. The Prom King was Mr. Ed Guenther.

Mrs. Marshall was a resident of Eagle Lake for 35 years before going to live at Autumn Hills in Bastrop and then Parkview Manor in Weimar. She has been a resident of Parkview for several months. She was thrilled at being selected queen for 1991 at Parkview Manor.
