Rice High School counts on U.I.L. number sense

Chris Burrow

This week, Number sense is in the U.I.L. spotlight. Each week the school's only contestant, Chris Burrow, practices with the Number Sense sponsor, Mrs. Volkmer.

The contest will consist of an eighty problem test to be completed in ten minutes. The work in the test is to be done mentally. No scratch work is to be used.

When the test is graded, contestants receive five points for each problem solved correctly. The sum of the points shall be considered the gross grade of the contestant. From the gross grade, four points shall be deducted for each problem solved incorrectly or skipped.

Chris will compete in the district meet on April 3, at Blinn College.

Student Pride Winner Chosen

By Shannon Wesselski

This week's student pride award goes to sophomore, Chris Burrow. Chris feels honored that he was chosen to win the student pride award. When asked what he liked best about Rice, he mentioned the teachers because, "They're not only the instructors of the class, but they are also good friends." He also enjoys the many challenging classes Rice has to offer.

Chris' hobbies include playing his band instrument, working on the computer and playing baseball. In school, he is a member of the Mighty Raider Band and the Stage Band. His accomplishments include being on the honor roll regularly and being in the Region and Area Bands.

Chris is the son of Randy and Carolyn Burrow of Eagle Lake.

Seniors wish for Christmas

By Patricia Lares

As Christmas is getting nearer and nearer, the student body is becoming excited and very anxious for the Christmas vacation to arrive. The senior class of 1992 are realizing that this will be the last Christmas they will spend together with their high school friends. Several seniors were asked, if anything, what would be their Christmas wish this year. We had many responses.

Bonnie Benge said, "I wish we would win the Basketball State Championship and I need a Mickey Mouse Watch."

Tami Fuller said, "I need a teal-green convertible!"

Steven Polach said, "I wish for me and all my classmates to have successful years in college after graduation. Merry Christmas everyone!"

Shane Glaister said, "I want a new pickup and to be 18 already!"

Adriana Rangel said, "I want a Mustang convertible and all the clothes I desire."

Also included in this survey were: Bianca Cantu, who wished for a tennis bracelet and a 1992 black Mustang convertible.

Finally, my wish is for all my Senior friends' wishes to be granted. Have a great Merry Christmas and a wonderful new year!!

Meet the Raiders

By Jennifer Wied

Rice High School would like to introduce Matt McGaughey, the son of Max and Carolyn McGaughey of Eagle Lake.

Not only is Matt a member of the varsity basketball team, but he is also a veteran of the varsity football team and is looking forward to participating in track.

As for basketball, Matt's hopes and expectations are to win district and to do well in the best season games. He says that the best advice that he has received from coach Reynolds is to play as a team.

Some of Matt's accomplishments include a basketball letter. Also, he ranks in the top 10% of his class. Outside of school he enjoys hunting and going out with his friends.

After graduation, Matt plans to attend the University of Texas and Study business or law.

Who's Zat

By Tami Fuller

Who's this little cutie with the black and white dog? This sweet little face stamped a lot of people. Veronica Ruiz and Donna Greak had the wrong girl when they guessed Lana Hutchison. Kelli Walker was also far from being right when she guessed Donna Greak.

The correct guessers of this girl and her doggy friend were Lonnie Hutchison, Sandra Cordero and Shanna Sewell, who all said that the little cutie was Shannon Smith. Shannon is a member of the band and also a member of Business Professionals of America. She enjoys talking on the phone and hanging out with her friends. Shannon is the daughter of Ben and Sue Smith of Sheridan.

Spanihel selected as Dec. Future Teacher

Future Teacher members selected Stacy Spanihel as the December Future Teacher of the month. Spanihel is a three-year member who is very active in the club. She attended the Christmas meeting on December 9, brought a gift for her secret pal, and brought two door prizes. She was one of the top sellers in the Future Teachers fund raiser; she sold $51 worth of tickets.

Members chosen earlier for this honor were Jill Janish, Jennifer Wied, Adriana Rangel, Kelli Thomson, Jessica Whitnutt, Lana Hutchison, Rebecca Sosa, Kim Henske and Kelli Walker.

Meet the Lady Raider Tillman hoops it up

By Bonnie Benge

Starting at the post or wing position for the Lady Raiders is number 42, Nekeshia Tillman. Keshia is a junior this year and believes that teamwork and the fastbreak are what helps them to win games, but their defense needs to improve. The toughest opponent for the Lady Raiders has been Schulenburg, but Keshia believes that La Grange is the toughest team in the district. She says this because of their strong program.

The Lady Raiders practice hard during the school athletic hour and after school, but Keshia believes that the hard work will pay off. The team's goal is to win the first girl's state championship for Rice, and Keshia hopes to contribute to this goal by practicing hard and giving 110%.

Although basketball takes up a lot of time Keshia also enjoys eating, hanging out with her friends and shopping. When Keshia has time to watch television, her favorite college team to

Future Teachers raise scholarship funds

Adriana Rangel was the top ticket seller for the Future Teachers. She sold $98 dollars worth of tickets. Proceeds go toward a college scholarship for a Future Teacher member. Rangel will be recognized at the Awards' banquet in the spring for her top sales.

FTA shares Christmas Spirit

Christmas is a time for sharing and caring for one another. The Future Teachers remembered their teachers with a greeting card and a batch of divinity candy made by Ordell Powell of Rock Island. Teachers enjoyed the delicious sweets.

On Monday, December 9, the Future Teachers had their Christmas meeting, highlighted with a catered dinner by Sportsman's of Eagle Lake. Jennifer Wied called the meeting to order, and Adriana Rangel gave the blessing. Seventeen members enjoyed a meal of chicken fried steak, white gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, rolls and apple cobbler. After dinner, members shared a gift from their secret pals. Doors prize drawings concluded the meeting.
