Parent aide volunteers wanted

This year some families in the Austin, Colorado and Waller counties area will be receiving a special kind of caring. They will have a parent aide volunteer.

This volunteer is a caring, committed adult who is a friend, support model and resource to one family where child abuse has been or could become a problem.

The Parent Aide Program is currently seeking additional volunteers. If you or your organization is concerned about troubled families and have 20 hours a month to give, call about our upcoming February training.

Prairie Edge Museum News

By Elizabeth Boothe, Reporter

There were about 30 enthusiastic people attending our board meeting the evening of January 6. One of the main items up for business was the election of officers to serve through 1992. Before I list these, I want to express our sincere thanks for the faithful and efficient manner in which our out-going president Joe Lee McCreary served for more than one term. The officers for 1992 are as follows: President, Vic Scott; Secretary, Jeanne Leopold; Treasurer, Louise Spalinger; and Reporter, Elizabeth Boothe. Out-going board members are Joe Lee McCreary, Elfe Thomas, Louise Brunner and Grace Cooper. Those to serve during 1992 are Obie Rhodes, Helen Craig, Jeanne Leopold, and Vic Scott. Those to be on the board through 1993 are Mary Baker, Mary Lou Szymanski, Ethel Cone and Louise Spalinger. Joe Lee McCreary, Grace Cooper, John Canaris, and Lloyd Spalinger are to serve through 1994. Alternate board members for 1992 are Catherine Clippin, Dorothy Cassidy, Nita Leppin, and Elizabeth Boothe.

Interesting donations continue to be added to our museum treasures. Helen Craig has given a kitchen apron (cobble style) made of bright figured feed sack material. Bennie Blair has added to our railroad collection by donating a lantern which was used in the east parking lot. The Prairie Edge Players have begun work on the drama The Forger by Larry Shue. This play is a comedy and it probably will be presented the last week end in March. Watch this column and other items in the Headlight for additional news concerning the drama.

The Thrift Shop will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. this Saturday January 18. Very good buys include extra wide drapes and panels, a butane cook stove, coats, sweaters and shoes.

Prairie Edge is open on Saturdays and Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m. If you wish to arrange for a special tour, please call Bill Harrison Sr. at 234-2662 or Elizabeth Boothe at 234-3361.

Denise Dusek, Billy Cook honored with showers

Denise Dusek and Billy Cook have been the honorees at many wedding showers recently. The couple will be united in marriage on January 25, 1992.

On November 16, 1991, the couple was honored with a "Around the Clock" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wiese of Eagle Lake.

The party began at 7 p.m. with a buffet dinner and cocktails. Hostesses were Tanya Wiese, Jean and Jim Wiese. Special gift from the hostesses was a beautiful flower arrangement for the couple's home.

On November 23rd, a "Bar" shower was held in the home of Glen and Charlet Janow of Eagle Lake. The shower began at 7 p.m. with hostesses being Ronny Cook, Randy and Karen Epps, Andy and Susan Gertson, Glen and Charlet Janow and Jon and Beverly Wunderlich.

Finger foods, chips, dip and cocktails were served. The gift from the hostesses was a decanter and glass set.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Isehower, of Eagle Lake, was the setting for a "Cocktail Buffet" party held on December 6th.

The party began at 7 p.m. with a delicious buffet dinner, dessert and cocktails. Hostesses were members of the Bridge Club: Mrs. Linda Balas, Mrs. Robbin Clippin, Mrs. Michele Isehower, Mrs. Robin Thomas, Mrs. Sue Weller and Mrs. Sandy Bendy. Special gift to the couple from the hostesses was a card table.

On January 4, 1992, Denise was the honoree at a "Christmas Ornament" shower at the home of Mrs. Steve Balas. The shower was held from 10:30 a.m. to noon with hostesses being Linda and Renee Balas, Brenda and Kim Corman, and Joan and Lesley Matthews.

Mrs. Balas' home was decorated with beautiful Christmas decorations and refreshments of brunch finger foods, coffee and punch were served.

Also on Jan. 11th, a "Honeymoon Apparel" shower was held in honor of the couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Henske of Matthews. Hostesses for the shower were Mike and Penny Henske and Jim and Mary Ann Wood.

The shower began at 7 p.m. with refreshments of shrimp gumbo, rice, salad, dessert and drinks. A welcome mat with a special theme of "The Cooks — 1992" was a special gift from the hostesses.

Denise and Billy were honored once again at a "Come and Go Brunch" on January 12th from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Smolik of Wharton.

Table arrangements were in the wedding colors of mauve and burgundy. Many delicious finger foods, fruit salad, blueberry muffins, punch and coffee were served for refreshments.

Special guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dusek of Wharton; groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cook of Eagle Lake; and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dusek of Schulenberg. A microwave oven was the special gift from the hostesses.

Home-grown artist immortalizes late Dimmit County Sheriff

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Smith stand with Dimmit County Sheriff Raul Medina at the dedication unveiling of the bust of the late sheriff, Ben "Doc" Murray. Mr. Murray was killed a year ago. Smith was commissioned by the people of Dimmit County to create the bust which is to be placed on permanent display in the Dimmit County Courthouse in Carrizo Springs. Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Smith of Eagle Lake, parents of the artist, also attended the dedication.

Carlson, Popp vows exchanged at St. Phillip's

Rebecca Lynn Carlson and Clark Anthony Popp were united in marriage at 2:30 p.m., Dec. 28, 1991. Bishop Bernard F. Popp of San Antonio performed the double ring ceremony at St. Phillip's Catholic Church in El Campo. He was assisted by Monsignor Victor G. Schmidzinsky of Nalda and the Rev. Joe Koebel of El Campo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emil Carlson of El Campo and granddaughter of Mrs. Edith Cernoch of El Campo. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Popp Jr. of Garwood.

The wedding ceremony was set before an arch with spiral candelabra on each side of the altar entwined with tulle and greenery. The family pews were designated by large red bows arranged with tulle and greenery. Pointsettias completed the decorations.

Organist Cynthia Goerig, violinists David Vitera and Hayden Vitera and flutist Courtney Brandt, accompanied soloist Janice Cox. The selections musical included "Christmas Carol Medley," "Wedding Song," "Trumpet Tune," "Wedding Tune," "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," "Psalm 98," "All the Ends of the Earth Have Seen the Power of God," "God's Holy Family," "God is Love" and "Trumpet Voluntary."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her parents, wore a formal gown of candlelight Princess Glow satin by Fink of New York. The fitted bodice was encrusted with hand-sewn pearls and bridal iridescents and featured a vee neckline. The leg-o-mutton sleeves, which ended in points over the wrists, were enhanced with Alencon lace. Embroidered English net was applied with Alencon lace and buttoned in back with satin covered bridal buttons.

Triple cut appliques lined with English net and matching Alencon lace accented the train. The full skirt and train were enhanced with hand beaded and sequined Alencon lace appliques and finished with scalloped edges. The train was gathered into a nine point bustle for the reception.

To complete her ensemble, the bride wore a high crown of iridescents and pearls and a poof that held a double tier of silk illusion dotted with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of moonlight roses, dianthus, baby's breath, lepto and pearl sprays. A crystal rosary, given to her by the groom, was entwined in the bouquet.

Deborah Carlson of El Campo attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Dawn Bram of Baltimore, Md., Kim Dornak of Pablico, sister of the groom Shari Popp of College Station, Becky Staring and Shelley Stepan of El Campo.

The bridal attendants wore formal gowns of ivory antique satin styled with off-the-shoulder ruffles accented with bows, sweetheart necklines with beaded lace appliques and dropped waists with bows. They carried stemmed glass goblets filled with red poinsettias and greenery, garnished with satinery and a variety of Christmas satiny streamers.

Kaylin Boenisch of Garwood, godchild of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore an antique ivory satin gown with a round neckline, leg-o-mutton sleeves and full flowing skirt with a big bow at her waist. Trey Young, also a godchild of the groom, served as ring bearer. His attire was similar to the groom's.

The best man was David Seifert of Houston. Groomsman were David Kozel of Tyler and Darrin Stock of El Campo, cousins of the groom; Jeff Dugie and Duane Korenek of Nalda and Richard Waligura of Temple.

Serving as ushers were Ryan Cernoch, cousin of the bride and Curtis Egegemyer, cousin of the groom, both of El Campo. Altar boys were Brett Boenisch and Drew Kana, cousins of the groom.

Programs were handed out by Kendra Cernoch, cousin of the bride, and Shelley Boenisch, cousin of the groom. Offertory gifts were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cernoch, the bride's aunt and uncle, and Mrs. Alene Hubenak and Mrs. Jeanette Stock, aunts of the groom. Witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cernoch, the bride's aunt and uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Young, the groom's sister and brother-in-law. Following the ceremony, a reception, dinner and dance were held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in El Campo.

The houseparty included Shelley Boenisch, Kendra Cernoch, Troy Cernoch, Lori Chabula, Vicki Davis, Jan Dornak, Jean Dorotik, Jennifer Egegemyer, Tami Harrell, Rhonda Kimball, Monica Krpec, Karen Korenek, Eleanor Oldag, Fae Popp, Michelle Prasek, Dana Stock, Deanna Stock, Susan Stockton and Shawn Swoboda.

Grand march leaders were Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Egegemyer, aunt and uncle of the groom. The bride is a 1987 graduate of El Campo High School, a 1989 graduate of Wharton County Junior College and will graduate in May 1992 from Sam Houston State University with a bachelor's degree in interior design.

The future groom graduated from Rice High School in 1984 and earned an associate degree in livestock and ranch management from Texas State Technical Institute in 1988. He is employed by Clippin Ranch.

The couple plans to be married March 7 at St. Phillip's Catholic Church in El Campo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Anthony Popp member of the Knights of Columbus and is employed by Occidental Chemical Corp. in Bay City.

The couple's parents hosted a dinner at the El Campo Civic Center after the rehearsal. A chicken fried steak dinner was served to approximately 50 guests. The bride and groom presented gifts to their attendants.

After a honeymoon at Disney World of Florida, the newlyweds will reside in Sweeney.

Terese Rash, Billy Breithaupt announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rash of Rockdale announce the engagement of their daughter, Terese Rash, to Billy Breithaupt of Rockdale.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E.H. (Sonny) Breithaupt of Eagle Lake. His grandparents were the late William Breithaupt and the late Willie and Mary Taylor of Weimar.

The couple plan to exchange their wedding vows Saturday, Feb. 22, at Peace Lutheran Church in Rockdale.
