Prairie Edge Museum News

If you will determine to procrastinate no longer regarding purchasing a ticket or tickets to "The Foreigner", you may be able to buy one or more. They are really selling at a brisk rate. There are no more reserved seats available. Regular tickets are $5. The play is to be presented the evenings of March 27 and 28 at 7:30 p.m.

Try to come early the evening of the Prairie Edge Players' presentation of "The Foreigner" so that you can enjoy viewing the contents on display in the many cases that are in the auditorium as well as in other parts of the museum. There are six new cases. Bill Harrison and Rollin

Baker were giving special attention to the ones featuring scientific literacy for its students, held its first Science Fair and Invention Convention Tuesday night, March 3.

Some of the students showed their scientific knowledge and use of the scientific process with a standard six-step scientific project. Others tried something totally different, creating inventions of their own.

Visitors were delighted with the fresh approach to an old idea. Projects were judged according to presentation, creativity and accuracy. Three places were awarded for each grade level. Trophies were awarded to the best three exhibits in the elementary division, grades 1-4, and the best three exhibits in junior high division, grades 5-8.

Trophy winners in the elementary division were: Joel Baggett, first; John Mieth, second; and Isam Brisco, third. Jr. high division winners were: Leigh Jackson, first; Johnny Slawinski, second; and Jeremy Gohlke, third.

Winners for each grade are listed in first through third place order: For the elementary division: First grade: Desi Rae Lowe, Hanna Kallina and Christine Jackson; Second grade: John Mieth, Frank McClain and Michael Poole; (See Inventions, Page 9)

Deborah Reed and her "P.J.'s" meet every Monday afternoon at the Museum.

Sandy Thomas called me yesterday and told me she has a special old fountain pen to add to our collection. She plans to send it soon. Then, she is looking forward to being here in April to help us celebrate the Wildflower Fields on Tour.

Surely you are noticing the many wildflowers blooming in and around Eagle Lake. Can you realize that this year's activities are due to begin two weeks from this Wednesday? Many plans have been and continue to be in the making. Call Vic Scott at 234-2792 if you wish to serve on a certain day or on more than one day as a host or hostess at the museum. There are three shifts from which you can choose.

J.K. Davidson will use his artistic ability in calligraphy to make us signs to place above a map of the United States and one of the world so that visitors can pinpoint their towns, cities and countries. This idea was very popular with our thousands of visitors this past year. In looking at the registration book this morning, I noticed we had visitors yesterday, March 15, from both Minnesota and Pennsylvania.

Kitty Miller and I are to begin work this afternoon getting my many museum reports, flyers and other information in chronological order so that we can compile a scrapbook featuring Prairie Edge. The book which she is donating is large enough to display whole sheets from our Eagle Lake Headlight. I'll keep you posted on our progress and hope the book will be ready for viewing by April 1.

Have you ever been to a quilting bee? If not, here's your opportunity to take part in one. Ethel Cone called this morning to tell me that the quilt featuring all 50 states is now in the frame and ready for you to meet at her house to start quilting. This work of art should be ready for display by April 1. Tickets can be purchased at $1 each or six for $5. The drawing will be the final day of the Wildflower Fields on Tour activities.

The Thrift Shop will be open March 21 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Interest continues to grow in the newly formed Prairie Edge Players Juniors, to be known as the PJs. There probably were about 75 children attending the first two meetings. Many of the mothers are showing an interest in being present with their children.

Prairie Edge Museum is open Saturdays and Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m. Call Bill Harrison at 234-2662 or Elizabeth Boothe at 234-3361 if you wish to arrange a special tour.
