LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I don't think what they did was right

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is because I am very sorry to hear that one of our best, along with probably the most respected, teacher-coaches, Jack Sanders, has not been given a new contract in our district. This shows us that our concerns as well as our students' interest is not of concern.

I have had the privilege of being around these teachers and, not to take away from any of them, Coach Sanders has earned more respect from the students than any other teacher I know. This is something you do not find coming from the students in this district and it is really sad.

Coach Sanders takes the time to sit down and talk to any one of the students whether they are one of his, one from the high school or one that just walks up to him. This is why I respect him. I do not think anyone else can honestly say they have students in numerous counts who come to them with personal problems and will sit down and talk with them.

I personally know this happens since my daughter has confided in him about many things. I am very thankful that she has him to talk to. Many students choose to confide in him instead of their parents. The board should show gratitude toward him instead of their lack of respect.

Along with being an excellent teacher, he has spent hour upon hour with students when he did not have to. We never had a summer track program before Coach Sanders, much less one that goes to national competition.

We owe our coaches at Eagle Lake Middle School respect. They are excellent with our students in basketball and football.

Coach Sanders has earned the respect of many students along with that of numerous adults. I just wish the School Board would show the respect for our teachers as we do. The students should use our teachers as role models and if the Board does not show respect, then the students won't either. It starts at the top and goes down from there... our School Board is the top in this case.

I applaud Melody Grigar for voting against the whole board in favor of signing a new contract for Sanders. Thank you, Melody. At least one of the School Board Members is not a "yes" person.

I do not think they have given this enough thought and consideration. If they had, the only right decision is to renew Sanders' contract. The school will not only lose one excellent teacher-coach, but two teachers. Betty Sanders is an excellent fifth grade teacher and one I was hoping my daughter would have next year. Sad, isn't it, that we have to lose one more great teacher to another district. If everyone would stop and think, they would know we've lost one of our best teachers in the past. Our loss, another district's gain.

I hope the Board will stop and reconsider Coach Sanders before we have lost yet another. Also, consider what the people along with the students want since they are the ones who put each and every one of you on the Board.

Editor's Note: Plans are in the works to have petitions placed in various businesses around town supporting Jack Sanders and the renewal of his contract.

Thank You

I would like to thank each and every one of my loyal friends and supporters for your vote March 10th. Your belief in me and the job I have done for the past eight years is something I will always treasure.

I took to task what you told me was the most important aspect of the office of Tax Assessor-Collector. I am very proud of accomplishing those changes that were made to bring an efficient and more up-to-date manner in which to better serve you.

These next nine months will be bittersweet as I wind down my term. I will miss seeing you as you come in for titles and tags. I will miss my staff who I feel are both competent and courteous. Most of all, I will miss my job because I truly love what I do.

God bless,
Evelyn Thomas

Lake Motors introduces new service manager

Lake Motors, Inc. has announced the hiring of Johnny Gooch as the new Lake Motors Service Manager. Johnny began his duties Monday, March 16, and has assumed the responsibilities left vacant with the retirement of Dan Boethel. Dan had been with Lake Motors for nearly 19 years, but was forced to retire earlier this year for health reasons.

"Johnny brings a good attitude, an easy, friendly manner and 19 years of experience in the car repair business to his new position," said Tom Reed, general manager of Lake Motors. "We are positively delighted to have someone of Johnny's caliber pick up where Dan left off."

Gooch previously served as manager of service and parts for British Royal Motor Cars of Houston, the Rolls Royce-Sterling dealership, for the past four years. Prior to that he worked with Pontiac and GMC truck customers at Leo Jamagin Pontiac in Houston.

Gooch began his career with Hightams Cadillac in the service department in 1973 and continued with the business when it became McGinnis Cadillac. Time spent in a Florida Buick dealership further rounded out his expertise in GM products.

"One crucial item of importance for our customers to know is that Johnny does not need on-the-job training," said Reed. "He has hit the ground running and is already up to speed on diagnosing and handling our service problems. It was important to us that we fill perhaps the single most important job in Eagle Lake with someone who was seasoned and ready to handle the job from day one. He will see to it that our customers get back on the road as soon as possible.

"In addition, we are pleased to have someone who has worked with and knows how to take care of luxury car owners, and at the same time, can understand the problems of pickup truck owners, economy car and used car owners. Johnny's breadth of experience makes him a real asset to Lake Motors and Eagle Lake," Reed commented.

When asked about his years in the car business, Gooch replied, "I was born into a GMC dealership my father owned in Oklahoma and grew up in the car business. I absolutely love cars; always have, always will. I'm looking forward to my new position at Lake Motors and to serving the good people of Eagle Lake and surrounding areas."

Gooch and his wife, the former Jackie Leyendecker of Columbus, have recently sold their home in Katy and moved back to Columbus.
