4 Cards of Thanks

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or set quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend would say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
The Family of Mr. Lindsey Palmer
Mr. & Mrs. Booker T. Davis*
*The family of Betty Jean Winn would like to extend their gratitude and appreciation in our time of sorrow in the death of our Beloved Mother and Grandmother. Thanks for the cards, money, flowers, phone calls and prayers.
May God Bless Each of You,
The Piggins & Jackson Families*

*We would like to express our sincere thanks to the employees of the Heritage House, Eagle Lake Community Hospital staff, Dr. Raymond Thomas, Dr. Russell Thomas, Roy Van Nor and Rev. McGill for their thoughtfulness and concern for our father.
Also, to our friends for their prayers, flowers, food, donations and visits.
May God Bless You All,
The Cal Gertson Family*

The judges' selections were based on academic achievement, leadership and participation in school and community activities. Sports ability was not a criterion of the selection.
Ron Haddock, president of FINA, said, "The records of this honor team make us proud. By spotlighting their accomplishments, we hope to encourage other youngsters to emulate them."
Bonnie, daughter of Major and Sandra Benge, is a senior at Rice High School where she ranks first in her class of 72. She has been active in student government, serving as president of her class all four years as well as student body president. She has also been president of the Rice NHS, and the band. Her musical talent has earned her the Outstanding Musician award for three years and placed second in state band solo contest.
Bonnie has captained the volleyball, basketball and track teams and served as a cheerleader. She is active in the First Baptist Church. She has worked as a life guard, lawn mower, and bookkeeper for middle school tournaments.

The all-state scholar-athlete team scholarship program was begun by FINA in 1985 to highlight the accomplishments of the large number of high school athletes who excel in the classroom, school and community. In 1991, The Dallas Morning News and KDFW-TV joined FINA as program sponsors.

Jeff Rosser, vice president and general manager of KDFW-TV, stated, "As a television station that is dedicated to a major commitment to education, we are honored to participate in this program. It allows us the ability to share these wonderful students' stories with the public. We hope they will inspire others to excellence."
