Prairie Edge Museum News

By Elizabeth Boothe, Reporter

Our fourth Wildflower Celebration will soon be history and what interesting memories we shall be able to enjoy. One of the most pleasant results of all these hundreds of people visiting Prairie Edge is that so many of them are so friendly.

We received such a gracious note from the Bryan-College Station Newcomers group who visited not only the museum but also the wildflower fields. Following is a note: "Thank you for making our day so pleasant and enjoyable. We appreciate the warmth, friendliness and hospitality. Our trip to Eagle Lake is now a delightful memory that we shall long treasure."

There was indeed much planning that went on before the activities began. Those of us who have had the pleasure of being hosts and hostesses at the museum can truly recommend this volunteer service. There are still a few more days that you can sign up for this so just give Vic Scott a call at either the museum, 234-7442, or his home, 234-2792.

The following states have been pinpointed since Monday April 13: Delaware, Georgia, New Hampshire, South Carolina, Wisconsin and Wyoming. This makes a total of 46 states from which we have had visitors. Here are the countries and islands to add to our list: Brazil, Austria, Saudi Arabia, Spain, Peru, Portugal, Russia, Chile and Puerto Rico. This continues to be so popular with our visitors that we can plan to use the same idea again.

I have never known one quilt to attract so much attention as the one featuring the fifty states. Ticket sales continue to be brisk. The tickets will be $1 each or $5 for six. The drawing will be Sunday, April 26.

This Friday a lively group of first graders from River Oaks Baptist School in Houston are scheduled to visit us. Their teacher, Candy Glidden, called me this past week to make arrangements for the visit. This will be the third year in a row that the first graders from this school have come to Eagle Lake.

Candy always brings several other adults; and another special guest, our own Evelyn Landa, always accompanies the group. Evelyn continues to be a faithful supporter of our museum. The group looks forward to going to the farm also.

A visitor last week asked whether or not we had any spurs and when he learned that we did not, he promised to donate some of these to the museum. With you could hear people reminiscing when they see the old sewing machines, the wall telephone, the refrigerator with the motor on top, the washing machines, ice boxes, etcetera.

Our future young actors and actresses are to meet again at the E.H. Henry Activities Center on the afternoon of April 27. They plan to rehearse their play, "The Prairie Edge May 4: Children aged 5-7 will meet at 3:30 p.m. and children aged 8-10 will meet at 4:30 p.m. Parents are welcome to accompany their children and volunteers are welcome, too, to help with the program.

I was happy to have two special guests, Benny and Mary Nell Chapman. We enjoyed their visit this Wednesday. We enjoyed the wagon ride at Wildseed Farms where we saw many beautiful flowers in the fields and also at the walking trails. We enjoyed lunch at one of our local attractive places to dine, had an interesting visit to our very own museum and to the Farris Antique Store. We noticed so many beautiful flowers growing along the roadside on the way to the farm. Thanks to the thoughtful ones who planted so many seed out that way.

Speaking of friendliness, not only are the visitors "ambassadors of good will" from their home towns and cities, but the museum volunteers are so very thoughtful of our visitors and of each other. The ladies who have charge of the many booths located in our auditorium on many occasions help each other.

I did not have the privilege of hearing the Greater Mount Olive Church Choir sing Sunday afternoon, but I have had some wonderful reports about them. The following young people sang: Candace Maxie, Kyrle Mason, Jason Barrow, Paula Barrow, Marilyn Johnson, Jerrie Flowers, Dennis Higgins, Angela Phillips, James Phillips, Shaniqua Moody, Darran Barrow, Antron Clark, Kindy Jones, Temika Jones, Stephanie Shropshire, DeShun Ashton, Stephanie Smith, Latasha Stewart, and Arnette Kuykendall. Paul Barrow also accompanied the group on a portable keyboard, sang a solo and played a trombone solo. Jason Barrow played the drum and cymbals.

Area students honored at Blinn

The Blinn College math department recently recognized 45 top math students and 28 area high school students by inducting them into Mu Alpha Theta, the national mathematics honor society for high school and junior college students.

These students were recommended on their math grades and overall grade point averages.

Among the Blinn College students inducted into the math society were Kelly Jarvis of Eagle Lake; Nancy Raabe, Brenda Lange and Faylene Dreiner of Weimar; Shanna Querner of Rock Island; and Lisa Kulhanek of Columbus.

The new members were inducted in ceremonies April 13 at the Blinn College Student Center. This is the only chapter of Mu Alpha Theta in the United States that inducts both high school and college students.
