24 Hour Emergency Phone: 234-3834 PMS: Many Treatments Recommended

> Premenstrual syndrome (PMS) is a much publicized condition experienced by up to 40 percent of women. PMS is a term that refers to a collection of behavioral, emotional, and physical symptoms that occur as early as 7 to 10 days before a menstrual period and last for about 24 hours after the start of menstrual flow.

> Symptoms of PMS, which can range from annoying to incapacitating. include breast tenderness, weight gain, swollen ankles, craving for sweet and salty foods, anxiety, depression, irritability, and intense aggression. According to one reference, in order for symptoms to be classified as PMS, they should occur during most, if not all, menstrual periods. And symptoms should be severe enough to interfere with some aspect of daily living.

Vitamin B6 has been suggested for PMS treatment because of its role in the production of serotonin and dopamine. Lack of these substances at nerve endings in the body is thought to be associated with depression symptoms in some PMS sufferers. Other nutrients used in PMS include calcium, vitamin A, and magnesium. Mild diuretics, such as caffeine, may help relieve swelling and bloating. Cramping pain may be relieved with uprofen, aspirin, and acetaminophen

Against Hallettsville, the varsity Raiders continued to work together smoothly, racking up an impressive 87 points during the night. They again jumped into the lead and stayed there. Sunderman led the scoring with

Cards of Thanks

Card of Thanks The Chavis and Nash families wish to express our gratiude to everyone for their help during the illness and passing of our loved one, Bro. Archie Nash.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, January 30, 1993, 12:00 noon, at Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church, Houston, Texas; Rev. R.L. Franklin, officiating. A special thank you to Rev. Obbie Rhodes. We extend our heart-felt appreciation to all of our friends.

Card of Thanks

With words straight from our hearts,

The Family of Bro. Archie Nash

With all of you we'd like to share; To those of you who sent heart-warming cards, Just to let us know you care. If you came by with a friendly smile, Whether from afar or somewhere near: We are surely glad you stayed awhile, Cause you're always welcome here. To those who brought a lovely gift, And helped us through a stressful day: It gave us such a glorious lift. hat mere words can't repay. If you couldn't come, but you gave a call, And you shed a tear or two. We were very moved to hear from y'all, With words sincere and true. If you said a prayer or sang a song, And the words came from your heart; It made no difference if it was short or long, From our hearts they'll never part. We thank you all with that special love, That we receive from God above.
