Hyek, Pavlu vows exchanged in Nada

Vicky Jo Hyek and Lawrence C. (Larry) Pavlu Jr. were united in marriage Saturday, Jan. 9, at 2:30 p.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nada. A double ring ceremony uniting the couple was performed by Msgr. Victor Schmidtinsky, Fr. Eddie Schoellmann and Deacon Edward Wendel, uncle of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Victor and Dorothy Hyek of Nada. The groom is the son of Lawrence and Lillian Pavlu of Garwood.

For the wedding, the chapel altar was framed by four candelabra adorned with English ivy. Two large baskets of mauve roses, magnolias and calla lilies with greenery and jade-wood spirals were accented with mauve bows.

Soloist Samantha Labay sang several selections accompanied by organist Cynthia Sunderman, including "Love Until the End of Time," "Wind Beneath My Wings," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She chose a gown of white tulle with a sweetheart neckline and deep v back, accented with beaded and sequined lace. The long, tapered sleeves featured lace cutouts and beaded lace. The slipper length skirt of the dress fell from a basque waist and flowed into a cathedral length train which ended in rows of frothy satin ruffles lined with lace.

A headband decorated with satin flowers and pearls held a tulle pouff sprinkled with pearls and layers of fingertip length tulle veil. Pearl drops fell from the center of the headband across her forehead.

She carried a bridal bouquet of magnolias, mauve roses, jade wildflowers and a crystal rosary enhanced with baby's breath.

Linda Gold of Nada was maid of honor. The bride's two sisters, Denise Urbanovsky and Janice Dornak from El Campo, were matrons of honor. Bridesmaids were Stephanie Causey and Kim Corman of Eagle Lake, Rachael Hoffman, LuAnn Korenek and Charlotte Korenek of Nada, Amy Drik of Garwood and Kim Kitchin of Las Vegas.

Flower girls were Kendyll Layne Urbanovsky and Jessica Leigh Dornak of El Campo, nieces of the bride, and Nichole Leigh Weishuhn, niece of the groom, from La Grange.

The bridal attendants wore tea length dresses with black velvet bodices that featured peplums and leg-o-mutton sleeves. The jade taffeta skirts were gathered into pouffs. They each carried an arm bouquet of magnolia, mauve roses and jade accent twists with a mauve bow.

The groom chose as his best man, Paul Korenek of El Campo. Groomsmen were his brothers Patrick and Bob Pavlu from Garwood, Brian Hyek of Houston, the bride's brother, Stephen Drik, Richard Walligera, Todd Krenek, Carl Wegenhoff all of Garwood, Keith Peinell of Chesterville and Patrick Gold of Taitan.

The groom wore a formal white tuxedo with tails. His boutonniere was a mauve rose taken from the bride's bouquet. His attendants wore formal black tuxedos with tails and mauve rosebud boutonnieres.

Kenneth Hyek, brother of the bride, Philip Urbanovsky and Philip Dornak, brothers-in-law of the bride, and James Weishuhn, brother-in-law of the groom, served as ushers.

Kenneth Hyek and the groom's sister, Carolyn Weishuhn, were witnesses as the couple exchanged vows. Bret Boenisch, cousin of the bride, and Clint Leopold were altar boys.

Gift bearers were Laurie Hyek, the bride's sister-in-law; Carolyn Weishuhn; and Suzana Pavlu, the groom's sister-in-law.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception honoring the newlywed couple was held at St. Mary's Community Center. Serving in the house party were Misty and Brooke Cranek, Ann Drik, Annie Mitchell, Michelle Prasek, Vickie Leadbetter, Tammie Williamson, Susan Sanders, Betty Socha, Rhonda Prazak, Dawn Popp and Lezi Schilling.

At the dance that evening, the grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Korenek.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, the couple reside in Garwood.

Sheridan News

Last Thursday evening the PTS held their regular monthly business meeting. The second grade class won the attendance award and Aileen Peck won the door prize. The program was interestingly presented by the Weimar Police Chief and his drug dog. The next meeting will be March 9.

March 2, the staff of Sheridan Elementary School invites everyone to our Open House.

The evening will start with a barbecue meal prepared by Bill Gohlke, Earlene Botard and other volunteers. The meal will be open to the public at 5:30. After the meal, parents and friends can visit our Science Fair on display in the gym. From the gym you will be able to visit each classroom and view students' work and art work on display in the library.

You do not have to have children in school to enjoy an evening at school. Come visit, observe students work and see your community school at its best. The cost of the meal is $4 for adults and $3 for students.

The Student Council will have a booth for the sale of 1992-93 school annuals for $6 each. The Student Council will also have a bake sale that evening with the proceeds going to offset the school annuals. The "Go Raider" coozies which the P.T.S. is selling will be available for $2 each. Volunteers are still needed to help Mrs. Botard, please give her a call.

Any parents interested in eating lunch with their children during Texas Public School Week need to call the office by 9 a.m. so the cafeteria staff will be prepared to feed any visitors.

Any questions you may have about the open house may be answered by calling 234-7334.

The Sheridan Youth Memorial Library is in the process of a book sale. Paper backs are five cents and hard cover books are ten cents. There are a lot of good books available and if you buy a box-full, the librarian will give you a greatly reduced price.

The 1967 graduating class of Sheridan High School held a reunion Saturday, Feb. 20, at Kiessels Steak House in Moulton. The event was well attended. There were five teachers and their spouses present. Ruth Rutledge Briscoe and Lavo, second grade; Hazel Brown Welman and Dick, fifth grade; Bill and Lillian Kubesch Gohlke, band director and English teacher; Charles De Shazo, math and science, and Mary.

Classmates and their spouses attending were James and Carolyn Briscoe, Linda Cousins Davidson, Judy Meyer Currier, Darnell Blanchard, Varley and Larry, Tommy Holt and Mary Jo, Skip Pustejovsky, Tim Mireno and Pauline, Matthew Hagen-dorf and Monica, Larry Zbrank and Prissy, Loreta Johnson McCloud and David, Jessie Taylor and Katherine, Eugene and Sheila Garza.

Congratulations to Colleen Sevak and Amy Moore who won second place in Reserve Champions in Jr. Horseshoe Pitching in Houston Saturday. They were in competition against 53 other counties. Colleen and Amy represented Colorado County.

Colleen's mom, Jacque and her partner, Mary Lou Spalek placed third in competition against 59 counties. They, like Colleen and Amy, represented Colorado County. By placing third in the contest, Jacque and Mary Lou had to beat out Wharton County whose team consisted of the Jr. World Champion horseshoe pitcher and the number one ranked lady pitcher in Texas.

Contributions needed for relief shipments

Lutheran World Relief will have a donation drive again for 1993. Shipments of clothing and projects from all over Texas will be received at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Dallas. From there it will be sent to New Windsor, Md. for distribution.

St. John Lutheran Church of Rterville and Zion Lutheran Church near Brenham will receive the boxes from this area on Tuesday, April 3. Rev. and Mrs. Lee Eschberger will deliver the shipment to Dallas, leaving early Wednesday, April 14.

Matthew Leon Gunn, son of Ada and Glen Wren of Sagamiara, Japan, grandson of Laura and Robert Finney of Eagle Lake, graduated from Zama American High School in Japan, Jan. 28. He was the only graduate at the Feb. 3 ceremony which was attended by family and friends.
