CLUB & ORGANIZATION NEWS

Monument Hill Chapter, DRT

The Monument Hill Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas met March 6 at La Grange with 13 members present. President Carolyn Marble of Lincoln presided. Chaplain Bessie Bean gave the invocation and secretary Imogene Williams called the roll.

Treasurer Debbie Higgins reported that dues were received and she has sent a check reflecting 100% participation of the chapter in the president general's project, the chapter was invited to the Sam Houston Birthday anniversary April 3 at Houston's Oak House in Gonzales.

Members discussed the new assault on the Alamo by State Rep. Ron Wilson of Houston. Registrations were passed out to the annual convention in Beaumont May 13-15. Pres. Marble requested they be returned soon so she can send them all in together and reserve a table for the chapter members. New officers will be elected at the convention. Marble, Stuesser, Bean and Williams volunteered to serve as sergeants at arms during the convention.

Vice Pres. Dorothy Albrecht reported that Registrar Rox Ann Johnson is working on the yearbook. Clippings were collected for the absent historian, Marilyn Miller. It was fortunate none of the chapter's historical materials were damaged in the recent fire at the miller home.

Bean reported she had mailed two cards of condolence; to Pre. General Burr on the death of her son; and to the family of Mattie Phillips, DRT member who died in Feb.

Children of the Republic of Texas sponsor Betty Hill spoke to the chapter about funds to have a flag made for the MH CRT. They have chosen the DeZavala flag because it was the first recognized Lone Star flag. Estimated total cost is $75. The chapter voted to fund this.

Hill also reported the CRT again found and serve water for the "Toast of Texas" Feb. 28 at Washington on the Brazos in the annual Texas Independence Day celebration. CRT and 10 MH CRT members had their picture taken with Gov. Ann Richards. John Cagle and Ellen Murray of Texas Highways magazine coordinated the event.

The Outstanding Chapter award, which the MH CRT shares with the Ima Hogg Chapter this year, was passed to them in December. The MH chapter has had this coveted award three times. Also two MH members will be among the six pages serving at the annual DRT convention.

The CRT chapter will have a marathon party starting March 28 at 8:30 a.m. with services at the Methodist Church in La Grange, followed by a trip to Weimar and then to Burnham's Ferry which was once burned by Sam Houston, then on to Osage Cemetery, retracing the route taken by Houston.

The following morning, as the scouts prepared to return, each received a special patch commemorating his participation in the Sam Houston Trail. Participating were Webeles William Ramirez, Clint Mueller, Kurt Coldeywey, Mark Contreras, Jason Edwards, Jerry Sosa and Erik Wesemann along with Leaders Clarence Coldeywey, Ed Wesemann and Herbert Ramirez.

Essays by a student at St. Rose and one by a fourth grader at East Bernard have been entered in district competition. St. Rose history teacher Peggy Kury is nominated for the history teacher of the year award by the MH chapter.

Ernest Mae Seaholm of Eagle Lake gave a talk about gravesites and tombstones of people in Colorado County who played important roles in the area's history. She noted the emotional epitaphs were mostly on the markers of mothers.

The benediction by Chaplain Bean was followed by a luncheon served by hostesses Deena Wenske, Denise Rogers, Debbie Higgins and Carolyn Marble.

In addition, all scouts received special participation ribbons and all first place winners advance to the Brahmam District Finals in Bay City, March 27. Ed Sundermann set up the track for the scouts at the Community Center and the Eagle Lake Lions Club provided the trophies.

After the Pine Wood Races several of the Webeles Scouts joined the Boy Scout Troop 334 for the Sam Houston Trail Campout near Mentz. The event follows the trail used by General Sam Houston during the war for Texas Independence from Gonzales to San Jacinto.

The boys enjoyed fishing, a chili cookout, a program depicting the histories of our flag, scouting the Sam Houston Trail and later that night local scouting stories were told around the campfire.

The following morning, as the scouts prepared to return, each received a special patch commemorating his participation in the Sam Houston Trail. Participating were Webeles William Ramirez, Clint Mueller, Kurt Coldeywey, Mark Contreras, Jason Edwards, Jerry Sosa and Erik Wesemann along with Leaders Clarence Coldeywey, Ed Wesemann and Herbert Ramirez.

Views On Dental Health

IS YOUR CAP SHOWING?

Maybe you've heard someone say: "for your back teeth to show." Properly fitted and contoured to follow the shape of natural teeth, capped or crowned teeth encased in a natural color are almost impossible to detect. However, they do have to be guarded against decay, just as your other teeth do. With good oral hygiene at home and regular dental checkups, you should never have to worry about your cap showing. Presented as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of JOHN B. MYRES, D.D.S., 704 S. McCarty Avenue, Eagle Lake, 234-3525.
