SHERIDAN NEWS

By Velma Kutzer

Lester Tesch, resident of Steven Nursing Home in Hallettsville, spent part of the weekend in Sheridan with children and grandchildren.

Nory Baggett provided transportation to Katy Saturday evening for Brandy Walker, Nerissa Brisco, Trish

Chisum, Erica Cole, and Leila Baggett to attend a slumber party at the gymnastics studio, Katy Kips. The group returned home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Kazmir and Jeffery spent last weekend in Pasadena visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Paul

Hernandez and Stacey.
Mr. and Mrs. Billy High had a great time attending races in Bryan Sunday at the Texas World Speedway.

Brent Thomas, Travis and Teresa Pittman enjoyed spending part of the spring break in Brownsville with relatives.

Nancy Criswell Allgayer from El Campo is critically ill in St. Luke's Hospital in Houston. Her family was called to the hospital during the weekend when her condition worsened. Our prayers go out to her and her family during this time.

A reminder that this week is the regular "Friendship Fellowship" dinner. King Ranch chicken will top the menu.

Youngsters attending Sheridan School are reminded of the Kite Flying Contest to be held Friday afternoon. The very active Student Council will be sponsoring the event.

The community, once again, graciously saw a need and responded. There was a need for food and refreshments for the family of Tom Easton last week after his burial services, and many responded. Those who traveled from out of state were overwhelmed by the generosity of our community. The family wishes to extend their thanks to each person who prepared food and to those who served it.

Get well wishes continue for Janelle Klein who is still a patient in Houston. Complications following surgery three weeks ago has postponed her release.

Sheridan junior high division winners
