News from South Texas Medical Clinics

DERMATOLOGIST JOINS CLINIC

A dermatology specialist has been added to the staff of South Texas Medical Clinics, P.A. Keith Edward Schulze is now associated with the clinic and began seeing patients as of July 19 at the Wharton location.

Dr. Schulze is a graduate of the University of Texas Medical School at Houston specializing in Internal Medicine.

He received the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, the Eugene D. Jacobson award of achievement in mammalian physiology and highest achievement in microbiology from UT Medical School. Schulze is affiliated with the American Academy of Dermatology, American Medical Association, Harris County Medical Society and Alpha Omega. Among his credits are numerous publications, extensive clinical research and professional presentations.

He and his wife Betsy are residents of Wharton.

NEUROLOGIST NOW PRACTICING WITH STMC
 Jennifer Harris, MD, has joined the physician staff of South Texas Medical Clinics, P.A. She is a neurologist and will see patients at the Wharton Clinic on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

Dr. Harris obtained her medical degree at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. She trained at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati in Internal Medicine. She trained for her neurology specialty at Columbus University in New York City and Tulane University in New Orleans. She studied neuro-oncology at M.D. Anderson Cancer Center.

She is a member of the American Academy of Neurology, American Association of Electrodiagnostic Medicine and Houston Medical Forum. She has done research in neuropsychology and neuro-oncology.

STMC HONORS OUTSTANDING EMPLOYEES

The outstanding employees were chosen for South Texas Medical Clinics, P.A. for the third quarter. Carolyn Douglas, laboratory and x-ray technologist at the El Campo Clinic, was voted by her fellow employees as the outstanding choice for the satellite clinic. She came to work for the clinic in May 1986.

Cris Jedlicka from the reimbursement department was her coworkers' choice for employee of the quarter at the Wharton Clinic. She has been with the clinic since May 1979. Her ability and performance as well as genuine love and understanding for patients made her a good candidate.

Douglas received a savings bond and a free lunch at her favorite restaurant for her award. Jedlicka also received a savings bond, a special parking place and a lunch. Both women will be candidates for the 1993 employee of the year.

SPORTS

Past softball champs reunite for contest

A "Blast from the Past Weekend" is planned for two former Eagle Lake softball league champions as they reunite for two days of softball and golf competition.

Duncan Ranch, league champions 10 years ago, along with the Lakers who were champs of the 1979-82 seasons, will renew their old rivalry Saturday, July 31.

They will start with a softball doubleheader at the Eagle Lake Little League Park at 5 p.m. Then, Sunday, Aug. 1, a golf tournament will be held at the Eagle Lake Recreation Center golf course beginning at 8 a.m.

Players from the two teams that participated in the city league during the early 80s should contact either Terry Erwin, TPWD recreation programs coordinator.

Running Raiders ready for Nationals

Counterclockwise from upper left, Rick Thomas, a senior at Rice High School this fall, is ready to try for national places in two events the week of July 31-Aug. 7. He will be one of seven Running Raiders to compete in the AAU National Junior Olympics in Knoxville, Tenn. Thomas placed second in regional in both long and triple jump.

Shea McElanahan, 16-year old junior at Rice High School this fall, will compete in two events at the AAU national meet in Knoxville, Tenn. She placed second in both the 100m hurdles and the 400m hurdles in the young women's division events at regional to qualify.

Nikki Chamberlain runs the 100m and the 200m hurdles as she practices for the meet next week. She was out on the track Monday even though it was her 14th birthday. Nikki will be a freshman at Rice.

LaToya Parker runs in preparation for her 100m dash at the National Meet. She is competing in the Midget division. She placed second at the regional qualifying meet in Corpus Christi. LaToya is a student at Eagle Lake Middle School.

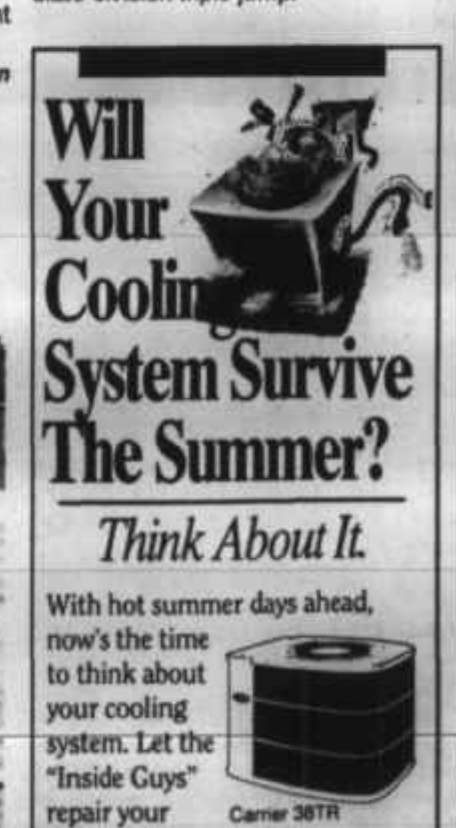

Ruthie Long qualified for nationals by placing first in the Midget division in the 80m hurdles. The Eagle Lake Middle School student shows her talented style as she practices her hurdles.

Clint Mueller struts along as he works on his time for the 1500 meter race/walk for nationals. He earned a third place at regional to compete in the Bantam division. Clint turned 10 years old in June and will be a student at Eagle Lake Middle School.

Rachelle Kallina tied for third place at the regional qualifying track meet to earn a chance at the national competition this week. She will be challenging all comers in the intermediate division triple jump.

Hunter ed. classes set

Every Texas hunter born on or after Sept. 2, 1971, must successfully complete a hunter education training course. The program is reciprocal with all other states and Canadian provinces. The minimum 10 hour course scheduled over two days, focuses on hunting safety, responsibility, ethics, game laws and other related topics.

There are a number of classes (See Classes, Page 9)
