Wasn't Friday's Rice game a beauty? Anyone who didn't travel to Smithville really missed the best game yet. The Raiders were great! (And so were the fans.)

Unfortunately, Godley has been replaced in the top spot in the Greater Houston Area rushing list by Jay McGuire of St. Louis. McGuire rushed for 424 yards last week during their game against Nederland. That's not many yards short of the all-time state school football record. But, our Godley is still in the second slot.

The high school games seemed to give the most trouble this week; especially the Columbus-Sealy and Weimar-Runge games. I guess, personally, I would have considered the Columbus-Sealy game a toss-up. And where is Runge and who are they?

Oh yes, Brian gets another gold star for beating out Dad again this week. He missed 5 and Dwight missed on 6. Listen to the kid, Dwight!

The best entries this week had 3 incorrect. They were submitted by Lucio Mota, Elmer Struss and Chad Ferguson of Eagle Lake and James Jurica of Garwood.

left in the first quarter. A good kick made the score 7-0.

Halfway through the second quarter Rice hit the scoreboard on a 3-yard run by Godley to make the score 7-6 going into the half.

On their way

With the fans urging them on, the Raiders put together a beautiful drive to score their first touchdown of the night halfway through the second quarter. Above, #4 David Godley carries the ball during that drive while #88 Heath Mahalite, #64 Sam Mader and #71 John Kaluza block out Smithville players.

Following an excellent halftime show by the Raider Band, Rice returned to the field ready to play ball.

In the third quarter, Sims put the Raiders ahead 12-7 with a 10-yard touchdown run.

Smithville came back late in the fourth quarter with a 37-yard touchdown pass by Garcia to Alaric Fredrick, making the score 13-12 with 2:43 left in the game.

Plagued by penalties throughout the final quarter, the Raiders never lost their determination.

Their attitude paid off when Thomas and Clark took Rice ahead of the Tigers after Sims ran 51 yards on a kickoff return.

Jerome Haynes' kick after Thomas' touchdown pass to Clark put the Raiders at 19-13.

As the Rice fans cheered, the team showed they weren't finished yet. Smithville's attempt to score again on a long run was halted with a tackle by Clark.

On the next play, Thomas stopped all hope for the Tiger's homecoming crowd when he intercepted a Smithville pass and took the ball down the field to score as the final seconds ticked off the clock. The 23-13 victory gives the Raiders a 3-2 season record.

This Friday the Raiders are on the road again to take on Hallettsville. The game starts at 7:30 p.m.

Rice 7th, 8th Raiders take on Smithville

The Rice Raider eighth grade blue team is undefeated in football for the season after winning an exciting game over Smithville 26-20 on Sept. 30.

Offensively the young Raiders looked good and had a solid passing game. Josh Godley had eight carries for 29 yards, including three touchdowns.

Receptions from Rangel, a three yard extra point run and a 15 yard kickoff return. Pete Rangel made three of four passes to Godley for touchdowns.

Jeremy Gohlke had a 37 yard touchdown run and seven carries for 69 yards, and a 15 yard kickoff return. He was hurt and unable to play the second half. Clint Gertson also had two good runs on reverses. The offense was unable to get going as the Tigers shut them down. Tackles were made by Warren Scott who made 11 and scored the only touchdown with a 60 yard interception return.

Jay Knight had six tackles, Eric Sanders made three; Russell Thomas had three, Chad Kallina, Jeremy Parker and Ralph Gertson had two each; one piece was made by David Rangel, Johnny Stawinski and Zach Daniels.

The young Raiders played a good second half but could not get the offense working to score.

The seventh grade blue Raiders were handed their first loss when they took on the Smithville Tigers last week. The loss of 22-6 brings their

Seventh grade Lady Raiders triumphant

Both the blue and the white teams of seventh grade girls played volleyball matches in Sealy Sept. 20.

The white team won their match in two eight minute games, 14-12 and 11-5. They remain undefeated for the season. "This was a team effort with all the ladies serving well and playing great on rallies," stated Coach Julie Clark.

Jennifer Christ contributed five points to lead the attack with Karina Jones, Amanda Meehan, Stacey Rodriguez and Danielle Witte adding three points each.

The seventh grade blue Lady Raiders had one of their best matches of the year at Sealy in a hard fought, three game battle, although Sealy came out on top, 13-15, 18-16, 15-5.

The Rice girls came out strong in the first game with an attack led by Valerie Fields, Syretta Johnson and Holli Shindler. Johnson had six points to lead all scorers.

The second game went into extra points when the two teams were tied at 14. Fields served the 15th and 16th points to tie the game again. Sealy then served up the winning point in a tough game. Sealy rode their wave of momentum into the third game to win the match.

Coach Clark commented, "I am very proud of these girls. They played hard and they deserved to win. They need to be more unified as a team so they can pull through these tough situations."

The seventh grade blue junior high team helped host a volleyball tournament with the eighth grade blue team Sept. 25 at Eagle Lake Middle School gym. In the seventh division, Bellville won the championship trophy and took honors for best sportsmanship.

Lady Raider in the spotlight

By Misty Cranek, Student Reporter

This week all eyes are on varsity volleyball player, #21, Kelly Thomson, a hitter for the team. Kelly feels the team's biggest concern is "morale" but she states, "We have really high hopes for the rest of the year." In the beginning of the season the girls had trouble pulling things together, but each member is starting to look at the situation from a different point of view.

Kelly says practices are hard with so few girls out this year, but their digs are looking much better. She says the team is capable of "playing with anyone" in our district, even though Columbus is their toughest opponent. The team feels good about beating Hempstead, and especially the alumni for this season. Besides being active in volleyball, Kelly also is a member of the Flag Corp and mighty Rice Raider Band. She enjoys going out with her friends and just hanging around.

The consolation trophy went to Columbus.

The Lady Raiders "series" played a good tournament according to their coach. They had two matches with three games in each. Sealy won the first match, 12-15, 15-8, 15-7. Fields led all scorers for the Rice girls with her powerful serves, scoring six points.

Rice then played Columbus in the consolation bracket. Although Rice came on strong and won the first

Alumni, faculty take on Lady Raiders

By Tracey Winecke

The Rice Alumni/Faculty Game was a lot of fun for both the Lady Raider Varsity volleyball team and the alumni/faculty team.

The match went to three games with the Lady Raiders winning. The scores of the match were 15-13, 6-15, and 15-10.

The alumni/faculty team consisted of Neysa Poppy, Shannon Westski, Amy Leopold, Robbin Clippson, Beverly Machac, and I'any McClanahan.

"Thanks to all who participated," said Coach Winecke.

Rice Raider JV take a loss

The Rice Raider Junior Varsity football team played the Smithville Tigers last Thursday at Rice Stadium. This was the Raiders' first home game of the year. The Tigers handed Rice their second loss in district play with a 36-16 score.

The Raiders, who played aggressively throughout the four quarters of play, were no match for the older and more experienced Tiger team.

The Raiders highlights came from their offense when they exploded for two touchdowns. James Cotton scored both touchdowns.

The first touchdown came when Cotton broke free for an eighty yard touchdown run. He again scored later in the game on an eight yard scamper.

Shawn Johnson added both two point conversions by some tough running.

The Raiders next opponents are the Hallettsville Brahmas. The game will be Thursday, Oct. 7, at 6 p.m. at Rice Stadium. Come support the Raiders and enjoy the game.

FIXED BRIDGE

Nearly half of all adult dental patients need replacement for one or more missing teeth. A great many after-40 patients already have such replacements. While a single tooth can often be replaced by an implant substitute, the most common method is a fixed bridge.

In this situation, teeth on either side of the space are shaped so that a crown will fit over them. Impressions are then taken, from which permanent supporting base crowns of gold or non-precious metal are made. The base crowns are finally laminated with either plastic or porcelain. The permanent crowns are soldered to the artificial teeth. The completed bridge is cemented to the supporting teeth. It is immovable.

Advantages: ease of cleaning, minimum adjustment and repair, immovability, strengthening of adjacent teeth, not to mention that beautiful feel and appearance of natural teeth. Your dentist will help you consider the factors that could affect the choice between a removable bridge or one that is fixed.
