Special Olympians take first at Bastrop

By Judy Pustejovsky

The Rice Raider Special Olympics volleyball team participated in a tri-area tournament held at the federal correctional institution near Bastrop on Oct. 2. There were seven teams competing: four in pool A, and three in pool B.

Rice defeated teams from Floresville and Harlandale in round robin action to capture the first place pool B.

Larry Morgan, Eric Guthrie, Doyle Holland and Sidney Lira contributed vital points with their serves during the competition while teammate, Judy Holloway, had a perfect day in the serving department. Holloway added fifteen aces to her credit in the serving column.

Contributing to the team's efforts and leading the school spirit were Socorro Cano and Misty McCloud.

In addition to competing, the Rice Olympians participated in a weight lifting exhibition directed by two of the Olympian inmates.

The Raider team will now focus on bowling skills for their area meet Oct. 30-31 in Austin.

JV Ladies score second district win

By Judy Pustejovsky

In volleyball action Saturday, Oct. 9, at Rice's gym the Lady Raiders junior varsity team collected it's second district win against the ladies from Hempstead.

Rice had a slow start, losing the first game 8-15, but, finished strong with final scores of 16-14 and 15-6.

The Lady Raiders proved super effective in both their passing and spiking skills. Leading the team in the passing column were Alison Atkins, Kristen Stienke, Jodi Heard, Paula Barrow, and B.J. Salazar.

Offensive attacks were headed up by Barrow, Heard, Salazar, and Annette McTeer. Spiking their way into the kill column were Barrow, Heard, and McTeer, all with three apiece.

Despite the team's many serving errors, Leigh Jackson, Jessica Whisnant, Kristi Gertson, and Barrow all scored above 75% in the serving column.

High point leaders were Stienke with nine and Heard with seven. Aces were credited to Atkins, and Stienke, each with one, and McTeer with two.

The Lady Raiders will host Columbus Oct. 16 at 5 p.m. rather than 1 p.m. as previously scheduled.

St. Anthony Saints take flag in football

The St. Anthony Catholic School Saints played their first flag football game of the season against the St. Michael Swords from Cuero, Oct. 6. The Saints scored five touchdowns on was to a 30-0 victory.

"The team played an excellent game. I was proud of the boys. Everyone gave 100% the entire game," said Coach Chad Sunderman. There are only 13 boys on the entire team so there was little time for players to rest.

Running back Keith Garcia rushed for 65 yards on 10 carries and scored 2 touchdowns. Quarterback Kris Kuhn had 100 yards passing, 53 yards rushing, a touchdown pass to Bradley Koria and 1 touchdown rushing. Backup quarterback Jay Glueck passed for 30 yards and had 1 keeper for 20 yards.

Free safety and punt returner Adam Briscoe had 1 interception and 72 yards returning. One return was for the first touchdown of the game. Also contributing to the win were Jeff Glueck, Greg Glueck, Andy Glueck, Jonathan Barret, Paul Pleasant, David Weaver, Ross Hounshell and Guy Hilburn.

The Saints were to play the Swords again Oct. 13 in Cuero.

Eighth, seventh grade silver netters lose to St. Phillips

Rice eighth grade girls silver team lost their volleyball match to St. Phillips in El Campo, Oct. 4 in two games, 3-15 and 10-15. The seventh grade silver team did not fare much better, losing in two games 3-15 and 13-15.

In the eighth grade first game, the silver Lady Raiders had a slow start. After trying to return seven straight serves, the game swung to the Pioneers' favor for a win.

Game two was a good one for the Rice girls even though they were unable to gain the necessary points for a win. The team played a more consistent and fluid game noted Coach Laws.

Scoring for Rice were Shelley Cunningham, Chazara Scott and Brandi Scott with one point each to their opponents. In the second game, Cunningham had 3, Misty Tesch made 3, Devin Douglas had 2, Vanessa Rodgers and Stacie Mueller had one each.

"This group of girls are improving on their basic skills with each game," said Coach Laws. "Even though victory has escaped their grasp, they keep on trying, working and hustling every play."

The seventh grade silver Lady Raiders played a good first game although the scoring did not reflect it. Their second game was even better but they could not quite get the needed points to win it.

Scoring punch was led by Dyna Reese with 3 points, Amy Moore with 4 and Susanna Silva with 5 "killer serve" points. Also playing well were Arlisha Lemons with 1 point and Julie Birmingham with 2.

Coach Julie Clark said she was proud of the way her team never gave up and tried their hardest.

"They get nervous in game situations and are not playing as well as they do in practice. But that will come together with experience and maturity," Coach Clark commented. "The important thing now is that they are learning to love the game and enjoy it."

The two silver teams were scheduled to play at Burton on Monday, Oct. 11.

The St. Anthony Catholic School Lady Saints lost two volleyball matches last week.

The B team fell to St. Rose of Schultenburg Oct. 7 in two games. Leading the B team Lady Saints were Katie Barta, Sarah Heffley and Theresa Wagner. Ann Starvinoha led with the most aces.

The A team also played the Cardinals in a two game match to give the Cards another victory. Leading service percentages were Amber Miksch, Amy Wagner, Britni Wood, Ginger Case and Julie Glueck. Helping out service receiving were Cindy Baron and Valerie Tate.

"The Lady Saints did a good job in their zone match. They all have come a long way and have a lot to be proud of," said Coach Kori Klein.

Oct. 9, the Lady Saints A team participated in the Nazareth Academy tournament in Victoria.

In their first match, the girls played

Rice 7th blue earns consolation, white team loses to Columbus

The Rice seventh grade Lady Raiders blue team traveled to the Needville Junior High Volleyball Tournament Oct. 2. They came home with the consolation trophy.

The Rice girls played Needville in the opening round, winning the first game 15-7. They relaxed too soon, though and Needville came back to take away the match with games of 9-15 and 7-15.

Serving up points in the match were Latoya Parker with 7, Valerie Fields with 6, Syretta Johnson and Tierra Wright with 5 each and Lori Grigar with 4.

Earning one point each were Mar-iel Atkins, Rochelle Teague, Amalia Kucherka and Gerica Smidovec.

Monique Cotton also contributed to the team.

In the consolation bracket, the young Lady Raiders faced Lamar, winning the match in two games, 15-6 and 15-0. Scorers in this round were Atkins, Grigar, and Parker with 5 each, Wright and Fields with 4 each, Shindler and Smidovec with 3 each and Johnson with 1.

Cotton, Kucherka and Teague also contributed to the round.

The final match for the Rice blue team was with Stafford. They again took the match in two, 15-9 and 16-14.

The Rice seventh grade white team hosted Columbus Oct. 4 for their first loss in a three game match. The young Lady Raiders won the first game 15-10.

In a close second game they lost 14-16 in overtime and then fell in the third, 10-15.

Point servers in this match were Fields with 7, Johnson and Kucherka, 6 each, Parker and Shindler 4 each, Smidovec with 3
