Raider varsity wipes out Schulenburg

The Rice Raider varsity team sent the boys from Schulenburg home without a victory, beating them 84-56 Dec. 14.

Rice began with a strong defense that allowed the Raiders' offense to keep up their scoring throughout the game for a great finish.

Antone Clark made 24 points with 11 rebounds and 5 steals. Jerome Haynes had 22 points, 5 rebounds and 2 steals.

Ernest Sims, Jason Brunner and Louis Barrow each made 8 points while Darian Barrow added 6 with 5 rebounds, 2 steals and 9 assists.

After the Raider tournament Dec. 17-18, the varsity team is looking forward to their match against the experienced Alumni in a game Dec. 27 at the Rice gym beginning at 6 p.m.

They will follow that with a three day varsity tournament at Schulenburg, Dec. 28-30.

The seventh grade Raiders lost their hoop effort 37-14.

Warren Scott scored all the Raider points while rebounds were won by Coy Sunderman, 8; J. Sormerlatie, 4; K. Rodgers, 2; and Barnett Thomas, 2.

The eighth grade Raiders also took a tumble to Sealy 49-13.

Hollis Shorter and Jamaricus Brooks each scored 4 points; Clint Gerson made 3 and Jason Waddell made 2.

Richard Vargas and Zach Daniels getting 1 each.

They will not have another game until January.

In rebounding, Gerson and Shorter each got 7; Horace Hodges and Nicholas Teague had 2 each; and Brooks, Waddell and Juan Rodriguez had one each.

This was their last game for 1993. After the holidays, Hempstead will be coming to Eagle Lake Jan. 6.

Coach Dennis Jackson wishes his team and their supporters a happy holiday.

Varsity ladies host tournament

The Rice High School Lady Raiders held their varsity tournament Dec. 17-18. Austin Reagan won the first place trophy with Sweeney taking second and Wharton winning the third place trophy.

Named to the all-tournament team were Traci Nickleberry of Waller, Stephanie Murray and Christina Davis of Wharton, Chissy Bonner and Amy Ramon of Reagan, Shannon Jolly and Andrea Bess of Sweeney and Kaci Klein from Rice.

Stacy Brown of Reagan was awarded the most valuable player. The sportsmanship award was presented to Annette McTear of Rice.

During the tournament, there were two contests held. Winning the first throw contest were Shannon Jolly with first, Andrea Bess in second and Kaci Klein taking third.

The winners of the 3-point shooting contest were Amy Ramm, Rebecca Burrow of Rice in second place and Lynn Grovey of Sweeney taking third.

The Rice girls fell to Sweeney in their first game of the tournament, 64-33.

Kaci Klein made 11 points for the Lady Raiders with Annette McTear adding 8, Paula Barrow adding 6, Rebecca Burrow with 5 and Regina Valdez with 3.

Their next opponent Friday night was Wharton who managed to take the victory 59-55.

Even though the Lady Raiders did not win the games, they played well noted Coach Susan Pittman.

McTear led the scoring with 15, Klein had 12, Valdez and Barrow added 8 each, Nicole Chamberlain put in 6, Burrow had 5 and Bridget Baird added a point to the score.

Saturday morning the Lady Raiders faced Waller for a third defeat of 61-48. This loss eliminated them from the tournament.

McTear again led scoring with 22. Klein had 15, Barrow, 5, Valdez, 4 and B.J. Salazar and Burrow each put in 2.

The tournament was declared a success in spite of the losses by the Lady Raiders.

The Rice High School Raider-Alumni basketball game is scheduled for Dec. 27 at 6 p.m. in the Rice High School gym.

Everyone is reminded to come out for a fun filled, action packed evening of basketball as the experienced alumni take on the current Raider varsity team.

All the exes who have signed up to play the game should report to the PAC office to see Coach Reynolds for the proposal. (He says he thinks he has some that "might fit the real old exes.")

Seriously, all exes should be at the gym by 4:30 p.m. to get their uniforms and instructions for the evening.

The public is invited to come support the Raiders, current and ex, Dec. 27.

"It could be a night to remember and tell your grandchildren about" commented Coach Reynolds.
