Sebesta takes top honors Shell Scholarship offered to Rice senior

Jodi Sebesta, owner of Jodi and Company in Columbus, recently took up honors at the Southwest Professional Photographers convention in New Orleans, La.

Sebesta's photo "Soul Ascension" of April Harris of La Grange, won best illustrative portrait of the five state area. It also received a merit from the Professional Photographers of America.

Two other photographs by Jodi, of Columbus residents Julie Franks and Tammy Theriot, also received merits at the convention.

All three will be displayed in Denver, Colo., this summer at an international convention. Jodi will receive her master of photography degree during that convention.

Shell Western E&P Inc. will offer a $300 scholarship to a graduating Rice High School senior this spring. The scholarship will be given to an outstanding senior who plans to attend a two or four year college or technical school to pursue a petroleum related curriculum.

Graduating seniors interested in applying for the scholarship should contact the counselor's office for details and application information. The high school scholarship committee will make its selection based on the candidates' academic achievements, participation in school and community activities, and written statement of why they want the scholarship.

Children of Shell Western employees are not eligible for this scholarship. Shell has a national scholarship program for the children of its employees.

Did You Know...
The first school for Eagle Lake was a private school in 1864 located just west of the current community center.

The body of water known as Eagle Lake froze solid Feb. 12, 1899. More early day weather and history on the Rotary City Tour, April 8-17.

Conservation awards banquet deadline is Friday

The annual awards banquet sponsored by the Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District is scheduled for Thursday, March 24, at 7 p.m. in the Veterans Memorial Hall, Waimar.

The reservation forms, which were mailed to winners and other guests, must be returned by Friday, March 11, to the SCWD, 316 Spring St., Columbus TX 78934.

Anyone wishing to attend may purchase tickets from Clara Hornet at the district office or call 409-732-2773.

District winners in the coloring, poster, poetry and prose essay contest will be presented with trophies at the banquet. The winners' parents and teachers will also be recognized.

Awards will also be made at the banquet to the conservation rancher, absentee rancher, homemaker, business, media and other special conservation awards.

WCJC Pioneers place fourth in SWTU rodeo

The Wharton County Junior College rodeo team brought home a fourth place from the first rodeo of the NIRA spring season. They competed in the Southern Region opener at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos Feb. 24-26.

Pioneer rodeo coach Chris Guay said eight teams made it to the finals, including his own Bubba Miller of Woodville and Clayton Adkins of Sugar Land.

"They are both bull riders and they ended up tying in the first round-for second and third place," Guay commented. But in the finals, Adkins took third overall in bull riding and Miller won second place in bareback riding.

WCJC's Chad Marshall of Brazoria finished behind Adkins with fourth place and Ronnie Fitch of Bellville qualified for finals but was injured and could not compete.

Also qualifying for the finals were WCJC team members Craig Cavaness of Houston with fourth in steer wrestling finals; Cody Munlin of Pasadena and Pat Scott of Angleton in bareback competition.

Rice Raider Special Olympians win trophy

The Rice Raider Special Olympics team competed in the Area 13 basketball tournament, Feb. 26, in Victoria. The Raiders defeated three other teams in the skills division to win gold medals and a team trophy.

On the championship team are Socorro Cano, Eric Guthrie, Doyle Holland, Judy Holloway and Sidney Lira of Eagle Lake and Misty McGuire of Sheridan. They are coached by Judy Pustelovsky.

The team will begin working on their track and field skills for upcoming meets.
