Sheridan News

By Janet Dupré

The Sheridan Emergency Aid (S.E.A.) held a meeting on March 16 at the Fire Hall. This meeting was dedicated to continued education and those attending reviewed procedures for drug induced or abuse situations. The next scheduled meeting is April 6.

Also reviewed were some of the new equipment on the new ambulance. Watch for posters on this year's 11th Annual Sheridan Ambulance Benefactor that will be held on Saturday, May 7, at the Sheridan Fire Hall and Logan Park.

There will be a parade, mixed volleyball, kids pet show, horseshoe pitching, bar-b-que cook-off, drawing, silent auction, cake walk, food, craft, game and dunking booths, egg toss and kiddie rides. There will also be free live country western music from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m.

For more information call Traylor Walker at 409-234-3937 or 409-234-3921. All proceeds go toward the upkeep and operation of Sheridan Ambulance Unit 805.

The Sheridan Lions Club will have their Ladies Night on March 29.

The Sheridan Little League held a workday on March 29. Those present to help with the work were: Leah Ross, Franklin Walker, Bo Vavrusa, Ginger Stiehl, Darnell Varley, Jack, Debbie and Jerrod Vawter, Clark Peterson, Louis Botard, Allen Sneider, Warren and Wayne Dupré, Darrell Quinney, Bennie Machac, and five probationers from the county sent over by Vince Stominski. We thank Mr. Stominski for his continued support.

The dugouts were completed, the flag pole was put up, the forms were removed from the concrete work, and the dirt work on the field was done. Field preparation has begun. Special thanks to Dupré Lease Service for all their help and Allen Sneider for hauling the dirt free of charge.

Sheridan Park and Recreation Center (S.P.A.R.C.) held a meeting on March 14 at 5:30 p.m. at the Fire Hall. Among the items discussed was the field dedication and future plans for the park.

Field dedication will be March 26 at 3 p.m. A short ceremony will be held followed by a game between the two T-Ball teams and then afterwards a co-ed softball game between S.P.A.R.C. and Little League. A hamburger supper will end the evening at 6 p.m. Helpers are still needed for the dinner; desserts are also needed and welcomed. Contact Ginger Stiehl at 234-2489 if you can help in any way. Everyone please come out and enjoy. The park is for everyone to enjoy.

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Earl Dutcher Jr.

Jalowy, Dutcher united in double ring ceremony

Natasha Doreen Jalowy and Walter Earl Dutcher Jr. were united in marriage Nov. 24, 1993, at the Sealy Knights of Columbus Hall. Trevor White, friend and former classmate of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Victor and Deborah Jalowy of San Felipe. She is a 1993 graduate of Sealy High School and attends Wharton County Junior College.

The groom is the son of Walter and Janice Dutcher and the late Loretta Dutcher of Lissie. He is the grandson of Leon and Lorena Johnson of Nacogdoches and James Dutcher of Lissie. He graduated from East Bernard High School in 1990, attended WCJC and is employed by Riceland Regional Mental Health Authority in Wharton.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a fitted ivory taffeta sheath with off the shoulder bodice and floor length skirt from a basque waistline. She carried a bouquet of ivory roses, miniature carnations, daisies, baby blue flowers, baby's breath and greenery with ivory ribbons.

The hall was decorated in ivory and baby blue with white lattice backdrops entwined with greenery, ivory flowers, ivory and blue bells and blue netting. A center table held a unity candle and to each side were single podiums holding single candles which were used by the couple to light their unity candle during the ceremony.

Marilyn Svec was organist and soloist for the wedding. She sang

"Wherever You Go" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Gert Peek, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Nicole Jalowy, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and Whitney Valden was flowergirl.

The bridal attendants were matching ivory taffeta, full length dresses with cap sleeves and greenery with ivory ribbons. The flowergirl carried a basket with the flowers and ribbon.

The best man was the groom's close friend, Danny Herring. Justin Freeman, the groom's cousin, was groomsman and Megan Reed, the groom's cousin, was ring bearer. Ushers were Russell Victorin and Michael Chmelick.

The groom wore an olive green suit with ivory shirt and print tie. His attendants wore slacks and shirts with print ties and the ring bearer's dress was blue in the same design as the flowergirl's. She carried a heart shaped ivory pillow.

All the men of the wedding party wore boutonnieres of miniature ivory carnations with blue flowers and baby's breath. The mothers and grandmothers had ivory corsages.

The decorations were done by the bride's mother and sisters, Nolana and Nicole, and Robin Valden, Leona Jalowy, Debbie Kne, Gert Peek and Michael Chmelick. Leona Jalowy also made all the flower arrangements for the wedding and reception.

A catered dinner reception followed the wedding ceremony. Guests were served chicken fried steak dinners by Staff Catering.

The bride's cake was a two-layered heart with ivory icing and baby blue roses topped with a bride and groom in a lace heart background. Two heart shaped satellite cakes at the sides had the bride's and groom's names on them. The groom's cake was chocolate decorated with deer, trees and fish to show the groom's outdoor interests.

Serving in the houseparty were Nolana Jalowy, the bride's sister, Debbie Kne and Marisa McVay.

The couple now reside in East Bernard.
