Shropshire-Upton UDC chapter presents eight military crosses

The Shropshire-Upton Chapter #361 of the United Daughters of the Confederacy presented eight military crosses to veterans with Confederate ancestors. The presentation was made at the April 14 meeting of the chapter in the Nesbit Memorial Library in Columbus.

The Veterans of Foreign War Auxiliary presented the colors for the meeting. Eldora Mattem, chapter chaplain, gave the invocation. Pledges to the flags were led by Sherry Davis, Texas Division president of UDC. Margaret Mainer led a patriotic song after each pledge.

Auxiliary holds annual salad luncheon

The Eagle Lake Community Hospital Auxiliary members enjoyed a variety of salads for their annual luncheon Tuesday, April 12, at the United Methodist Church.

Rev. Larry Bailey of United Methodist Church offered the invocation. Rev. Richard Miller of First Presbyterian Church, accompanied on piano by Mrs. Draper Stephens, sang several solos. He then invited the Pink Ladies to join in singing more old favorites.

James Buckner, administrator for the hospital, said a few words of appreciation to the auxiliary for their monetary donations for equipment. They have also donated up to $1,000 to the scholarship program for the nurses. This is used for workshops and seminars each year.

A check was presented to Buckner for $440 for four nurses to attend an EKG seminar. Volunteer hour award pins were presented to Mrs. Jimmie Scott for 2,000 hours and Hattie Mae Dromgole for 2,500 hours.

The cross for Korean conflict was presented to James Charles Kearney, USARPAC, HHC-15th Medical Battalion; Confederate ancestor, William M. Boswell, Pvt. Co. A 29th Regiment, Mississippi Infantry.

Sarah Uzzi, chapter president, introduced Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Jo Ann Lloyd, Texas Division third vice president. Many family members of the recipients attended.

A reception was given following the special service by hostesses Eldora Mattem, Bertha Mae Mattem, Mattie Krosnick, Mary Ann Duff and Jo Ann Freberg.

Charles Monroe Harvey Jr., Army Specialized Training Unit; Confederate ancestor, Henry Clay Land, Pvt. Co. D, State Troops, Mississippi Infantry.

Gus Herman Miller, 3rd Battalion, 386th Army Infantry, TCS; Confederate ancestor, John Hickerson, Co. G, 23rd Regiment, Tennessee Army.

Clyde Edward Rau, posthumously, accepted by his son, Richard Harry Rau of Houston. He was Naval Reserve, Lt. Cmdr, Civil Engineering Corp; Confederate ancestor, Charles Dorothy Breithaupt, Shirley Seasholtz, Connie and Sunny Gertson and Kimberly Henske attended the pageant from Eagle Lake.

Henske will represent the title at the Miss Texas Teen USA pageant in Houston in Nov. She was one of 22 contestants who vied for the Corpus title.

In addition to a $1,000 scholarship, she received prizes worth $6,000 including a ring, wardrobe, travel expenses and paid entry fees to the state contest.

Cast A Vote For Progress
Saturday, May 7, 1994
Elect Robby Cook
Mayor, City of Eagle Lake

Political advertisement paid for by Robby Cook Campaign Fund, Wayne Bowen, Treasurer, P.O. Box 716, Eagle Lake, TX 77434

Why Re-Elect Reggie Brisco?

(Rice C.I.S.D. Board of Trustees, Place 3)

- I have kept the best interest of all the children in the district in each vote cast as a trustee for the past 12 years.
- I have taken every opportunity to gain more knowledge in the field of education by attending numerous workshops, training sessions and state conventions. Currently, I have accumulated 263 hours of accredited continued education that has broadened my understanding and expertise to help ensure that each child in the district receives a solid education.
- I have expanded my role as a board member at the state level by being elected to serve as a trustee of the "Texas Association of School Boards". This position has provided me the opportunity to collectively lobby the state legislature on behalf of the public schools of Texas.
- I have worked with our district's board and superintendent to continually review and set higher educational goals.
