ANTIQUE FARM EQUIPMENT
As the Colorado County Fair nears, the antique tractors, gasoline engines and other old farm equipment of a past era are being prepared for display at the fair. This old equipment will be displayed at the stock area.

On Saturday some of this "old iron" will be entered in the parade and, with a little luck, complete the distance.

Last year's displays proved a real success with over 40 entries. There were about seven antique tractors, 23 various types of gasoline engines and many miscellaneous displays such as plows, washing machines, hay balers, etc.; all from a past era. This old iron exhibits Colorado County's past which is associated with farming and ranching.

Colorado County Sheriff's report
The Colorado County Sheriff's Department reported the following calls for the past week.

Monday, Aug. 15, at 1:26 a.m., Deputy Leonard Peters met with a complainant at Fishbeck's Texaco.

Deputy Jim Parcell responded to a call concerning a dog bite on Struss Lane at 12:30 p.m.; then enroute to Hempstead at 1:51 p.m.

Lt. R.H. "Curly" Wied responded to a call concerning a car fire on Hwy. 71 at 5:55 p.m.

Sgt. Bill Lattimore responded to a call concerning a suspicious vehicle at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, Aug. 16, at 7:16 a.m., Deputy Richard LaCourse responded to a reported burglary in Altair.

On Saturday some of this "old iron" will be entered in the parade and, with a little luck, complete the distance.

Last year's displays proved a real success with over 40 entries. There were about seven antique tractors, 23 various types of gasoline engines and many miscellaneous displays such as plows, washing machines, hay balers, etc.; all from a past era. This old iron exhibits Colorado County's past which is associated with farming and ranching.
