The Raider Review is published by the Journalism Department of Rice High School. The opinions reflected are those of the students and not the administration or The Eagle Lake Headlight unless otherwise stated.

Band holds banquet

The Mighty Rice Raider Band held its annual banquet on Monday, May 1, at 7 p.m. in the commons. The room was decorated in Walt Disney theme, anticipating the trip to Disney World in Florida next year. Following the welcome by President, Crystal Atkins. Vice-president Courtney Parker lead the prayer.

The meal consisted of barbecue beef, sausage and all the trimmings. Band treasurer Paula Barrow entertained the crowd with the senior prelude, followed by the history of the band read by historian Rebecca Burrow. Finally came the presentation of the awards by Mr. Spenrath. Certificates were awarded to the Region Band, front line, band council and letter award receivers. Crystal Atkins received a plaque for being a member of the All State Band, along with flag captain Jessica Whitsam, head twirler Rebecca Burrow, drum major Beth Buckner, the band wagon-loading crew, and section leaders. The band banquet was a huge success and perfect ending to a good year.

Raider Review final issue

As the school year comes to a close next week, this will be the final publication of the Raider Review. The annual staff has enjoyed keeping our readers informed of the current activities which have taken place throughout the school year at Rice High School. We would like to thank the Eagle Lake Headlight for their cooperation in printing our news stories. The annual staff is looking forward to working with the Headlight for the 1995-96 school year.

DWI presentation

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) Bill Alex gave a presentation to Coach Ehrlich's Drivers Ed classes on May 2 and 11th. His presentation dealt with the dangers of drinking and driving. Slides were shown depicting actual accidents involving drinking and driving. He also spoke about consequences of driving while intoxicated. Bill was a former Victoria police officer before becoming an EMT in Victoria. He gives programs on his own time without pay. His only concern is getting the point across about the dangers of drinking and driving.

Bill Alex, EMT from Victoria, informs the Drivers Ed class of Rice High School about the perils of drinking and driving.

Meet the Raider

As the baseball season comes to an end, we would like to let you know a little about Neil Broesche. He plays left field and wears the #1 jersey. Broesche feels the team has improved in every aspect of the game. He mentioned that it was hard work, but they did it. Neil said the coaches taught the team about the game and overall the team in return respected the coaches. Broesche's favorite baseball team is the Houston Astros. After graduation, he plans to attend WCJC for two years and then transfer to the University of Texas in Houston. Fred and Charlotte are the proud parents of Neil.

Prom night magic

Rice High School held its annual prom on Saturday, May 6, at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Houston. Students arrived, took pictures, and began eating. The Grand March started at 9:30 and was followed by a poem dedicated to the seniors and read by the junior class officers. At 10:30, the Prom King and Queen were announced and presented with crowns. The nominees for Prom King this year were Desty Leopold, Kurt Sunderman, Ricardo Roque and Heath Mahalic. Queen nominees were Ashley Krenek, Kim Korenek, Shea McClanahan and Kaci Klein. The 1995 Prom King and Queen are Ricardo Roque and Kim Korenek. The evening was filled with dancing and fun. A Houston security guard, who attends proms on a regular basis, commented that of the proms she has been to, the Rice students were the most polite and well-behaved. Rice High School, should also be commended for hosting a drug and alcohol free prom. Many students stayed past 11:30 and quite a few even stayed until the end, which is a dramatic change from past years. A special thanks goes to all of the junior and senior class sponsors and junior chairman, Mrs. Holden, for all their hard work in making the 1995 Jr.-Sr. prom one to be remembered.

Who's Zat?

All set ready and go! Where in the world could this little boy be headed to? Well, his picture was passed around the halls of Rice to see if anyone knew who he was.

We got many responses to this cutie little boy's face. Cody Cemy said it had to be no other than Brian Rees and Dariyn Norris thought it was Justin Rodgers. Urbana Vasquez was stumped, but finally guessed it was Clint Leopold. Jermaine Collins had no doubt it was Kyle Fink and Kristie Vargas was puzzled. Ashley Crane, Justin Rodgers, Shari Grahmann and Dana Leopold knew the second they saw the picture that it was Brent Schneider. Brent is the son of Leon and Sandy Schneider of Garwood. He is a sophomore at Rice. This cutie played football his freshman and sophomore years. He is very active in FFA and showed commercial steers both years in the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Roping in Tyra, going out, and working with his dad in the rice field are just a few of the things Brent does outside of school.

Who's Zat?

By Mari Valles
The only people who knew who she was were Rebecca Burrow, Nancy Hernandez, Bub Carter and Norris Cavit. When we said just look at her eyes, they knew it could be no other than sophomore, Sara Mann. Sara enjoys acting and participating in her dance classes, church choir and church youth group in her spare time. She was captain of the Gunslingers, assistant captain of the JV cheerleaders and an active member of PTA, Raider Business Professionals, NHS, One-Act Play and U.L.L. Journalism. The proud parents of this little kite are David and Claudia Mann of Eagle Lake.

ON DENTAL ANXIETY
If you are apprehensive or, or put it bluntly - scared - when you visit the dentist, you shouldn't have to feel embarrassed by it or have to apologize. As the patient, you have the right to be anxious. As the dentist, it's my responsibility to help you deal with it. You can make your day at the dental more pleasurable by bringing your Walkman with you. Putting on ear phones and tuning in your favorite music has a relaxing effect. Many people find their dental appointments more enjoyable by using nitrous oxide. Also called "sweet air" or "laughing gas" (it really doesn't make you laugh), it can help you relax. School comes to a close
By Ashley Crane
With less than two weeks of school left, students, especially seniors, are anxiously waiting for the last day of school to arrive. Graduation practices and the exam schedule, give a sign that school's closure is arriving very quickly. Seniors finally received their caps and gowns, which Balfour delivered on May 8. Teachers and students learned of their testing schedule to be followed on the assigned test days. The exams will be given on May 19-25.

Socha, Staff exchange marriage vows at St. Phillip's Church

Elizabeth "Betty" Ann Socha and Emil Trac Staff were united in marriage at 2 p.m. on April 22, 1995, at St. Phillip's Catholic Church in El Campo. Father Gerard Cernoch performed the sacrament. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Socha of El Campo. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Staff, also of El Campo. The church's main altar held two arrangements of white gladiolus, carnations and spider mums. An arched candelabra accented with greenery flanked the altar. Family pews were trimmed with white satin bows and greenery. The side altar also held a candelabra with mixed greenery. Mauve candles trimmed with greenery illuminated the windows. Organist Susie Orsak performed the musical selections. Samantha Labay served as soloist. Musical selections were "El Shaddai", "On Eagles Wings", "There is Love", "Wherever You Go", "Trumpet Voluntary", "Bridal March", "Joyful, Joyful", "The Lord is Kind and Merciful", "Celtic Alleluia", "United as One", "Only a Shadow", "Here I am Lord", "One Bread, One Body" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother". The bride who was escorted by her father wore a bouffant, white silhouette gown of romance satin designed by Mon Cheri. The gown was styled with a scalloped vee neckline edged in pearls. The long sleeves tapered to form a vee over the hand and were fastened with French loops and bridal buttons. Her traditional gown featured a Basque waist with a fully decorated bodice or embroidered appliques highlighted with sequins and pearls. An elegant gathered skirt swept to a semi-cathedral train with a lavish embroidered trim. The scalloped vee back, edged in pearls, lead the eye to the decorated peplum and semi-cathedral train with embroidered appliques. The bride's veil was a crescent band of satin rosettes with beaded transparent leaves accented with pearl sprays held a waist length veil of imported illusion styled with a double folded pouf. The bouquet was made of white roses accented with burgundy callalilies. Entwined in her bouquet was a mother of pearl rosary belonging to the groom's grandmother. Serving as maid of honor was Becky Socha of Damon, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Patsy Socha, sister of the bride; Michelle Prasek, friend of the bride; Mikely Holub, friend of the bride; Michelle Krasucky, cousin of the bride, all of El Campo; Tara Krasucky, cousin of the bride from Louise; Rachel Pieprzycia, friend of the groom from Nada; and Shelly Staff, friend of the bride, from Austin. Junior bridesmaids were Jody Cerny, cousin of the bride from El Campo and Madny Staff, niece of the groom from Nada. Flowergirls were Kenna Bubela, friend of the bride from El Campo, and Karl Mahalic, friend of the groom from Eagle Lake. Bridal attendants wore a full length floral print gown polished apple styled with a scalloped neckline and vee waist bodice. They carried arm bouquets of burgundy magnolias, callalilies and peonier accented with mauve and blue bows. Assisting as best man was Carl Wied, friend of the groom from Houston. Groomsman were Craig Potter of Columbus and Duane Korenek of Nada, both friends of the groom; Lynn Staff, brother of the groom; Todd Krenek of Garwood, Daryl Pieprzycia and Kevin Genz, both of Nada, all friends of the groom; and Anthony Labay of Houston, friend of the groom. Junior groomsman were Troy Cerny of El Campo, cousin of the bride, and Jake Staff of Nada, nephew of the groom. Ring bearer was Troy Staff of Nada, nephew of the groom. Ushers were Wayne Socha, Brian Hyek, Wade Schindler, Tom Gold and Brent Schindler. Socha and Schindler also served as candelights. Serving as witnesses were Frank Staff and Diane Cerny. Gift bearers were Harry and Jeanetta Socha and Kenneth and Renee Staff. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus hall in El Campo. Member of the house party were Jackie Garner, Lynn Potter, Annie Blumrich, La Ann Wigginton, Leslie Hancock, Lisa Watz, Dawn Mackel, Charlotte Korenek, Linda Gold, Tammy and Andra Krasucky, Recie Bram, Annie Mitchell, Kim Shimek and Lenice Socha. A rehearsal dinner was held at the KC Hall in El Campo the eve of the wedding. The bride is a 1990 graduate of El Campo High School. In 1993, she received a Secretarial Associates degree from Wharton County Junior College. She is presently employed by Leach Insurance Agency in El Campo. The groom is a 1989 graduate of El Campo High School and a 1991 graduate of Texas State Technical College in Commerce.

Institute with a degree in farm and ranch management. He is employed by LT Ranch and is a farmer and rancher. After the wedding trip to Florida, the couple reside in El Campo.

Mr. and Ms. Emil Trac Staff

Older Texans honored in Nada

The Older Texan Fair was held on May 4, at the Community Center in Nada. Along with all kinds of exhibits the Outstanding Older Texan Man and Women were chosen. Chosen as Outstanding Older Texan Man was C.L. (Buddy) Pruse of Columbus. He was nominated by Caledonia Lodge No. 68 A.F. & A.M. He was born in Wharton County and is married to Barbara Leenen Pruse. They have four children and seven grandchildren. Buddy has his own business, Pruse Paving Co., which he started in 1948. He now assists his two sons, who are the owners, and is also engaged in ranching. Buddy has sponsored a local child to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital and donates money each year to send underprivileged children to the circus. He's a life member of VFW Post 6113 and American Legion Post 383 in Columbus, was VFW Commander for four terms and has held various offices in both organizations. He supports the Future Farmers of America and the Colorado County Fair and is presently a member of the Texas German Society, Texas Sportsman's Association, Nation Rifle Association, Ducks Unlimited, Frelsburg Volunteer Fire Department, Independent Cattlemen's Association and Texas Farm Bureau of Colorado County. Buddy is very community minded, cooperative and patriotic. He gives of himself to help others and never fails to do what is asked of him. Others nominees were Herbert Aschenbeck of Frelsburg, Warren C.

Dupe Sr. of Sheridan, James Helfrich of Mentz, Emmet Thomas Rohwer of Nada and Norbert Tasler, Columbus. Chosen as Outstanding Older Texan Woman was Margaret Bunge of Nada. She was nominated by the Catholic Daughters of Americas, Nada Court Our Lady of the Rosary. Margaret was married to the late Lester Bunge in Dec. 1938. She has three children, six grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and is a member of the St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nada. In 1948 she was instrumental in organizing room mothers, a parent-teachers club at St. Mary's School, and the P.T.C. Chili-Hamburger Supper, which still takes place today. Margaret was P.T.C. president for 14 years and served the Catholic Daughters as regent for 7, recording secretary for 4, ways and means chairman for 12 and is currently chairman of three different committees. ## Heritage House News

By Patricia Bubela, Activity Director

Worship services were held Sunday afternoon by the First Baptist Church of Eagle Lake. Rev. David Mann gave a heart warming sermon to a large number of residents and hymns were enjoyed by all. Mother's Day was a very special day at Heritage House for all mother's and grandmothers. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and Mother's Day cards were given to each mother in the facility. Receiving carnation corsages were, for oldest grandmother, Mrs. Rose Lange; Bessie Williams, most grandchildren; and Gladys Jones won a corsage for youngest grandmother. A senior bash was held on Friday in Bay City at their beautiful new park on the Colorado River. Residents from Heritage House, Wharton Manor, Bay Villa and Sweeny House gathered under a pavilion to sing songs, visit with others, while some played dominoes. A delicious lunch of sloppy joes, chips, pickles, onions, and dessert were served. The ride to Bay City was enjoyed in the new van, a lot of fun was had by all. Special thanks to Pat Flores, L.V.N.; Helen Washington, Dietary Supervisor; Janie Lujan, Medical Records; Rhonda Henderson, bookkeeper and Tricia Bubela S.A.D. for assisting residents at the bash. Residents attending the bash were Francis Kelter, Francis Koudelka, Joe Salas, Roosevelt, Herman McMillin and Majorie Goode. Beauty shop visitors this week were Rosie Clemens, Ruth Kidwell, Annie Richter, Billie Holloway, Jewel McGee, Martha Clay and Georgie Franks. Our special beauty salon cosmetologist is Christy Frey Peikert and we appreciate her talent of prettying up our residents. Mrs. Rhonda Henderson has joined the bookkeeping team and we are proud to have her, as well as Mrs. Carolyn Ferrill, in the office taking care of the general office. New residents at Heritage House are Herman McMullin and Virgie Tupa. Welcome folks, and may your stay be pleasant and productive. A luncheon was held last Thursday in honor of National Nurses Day. Anna Smith, Lisa Kubena, Linda Carvelli, Laurie Deckard, Gina Roberts, Portia Robinson, Robin Persons, Pat Flores and DeAnne Cooper, R.N., were treated to a baked potato lunch with all the trimmings. A special gift was presented to the nurses for their hard work and dedication to our facility.
